

CONTENTS

Preface

9

INTRODUCTION

- Chapter I—Literature and Authority* 13
Liturgical Use of the Bible—The "Lessons" in the Church—
Difficulties of Devotional Reading—The Bible and the Reformation
—The Dogma of Biblical Infallibility—A Danger to Religion and Morals—Grounds of Belief in Authority—The Word of God—The Analogy of Science—Primary and Secondary Authority—Authority of the Expert—Science, Art, and Religion—Religious Genius—The Authors of the Bible—Genius and Inspiration

PART I

THE AUTHORITY OF INDIVIDUAL INSPIRATION

- Chapter II—Inspiration and Prophecy* 41
Inspiration: The Biblical Data—The Numinous—The Primitive Numinous in the Bible—Communion with God—Moses the Man of God—Jehovah the Mighty God—Primitive Prophecy—Samuel,
Nathan, Micaiah ben Imlah—Elijah—Elisha
- Chapter III—The Forms of Prophetic Inspiration* 61
Psychical Abnormality in Prophets—Jeremiah and Paul—Prophecy and Automatism—Prophet, Poet and Ecstatic—Poetry of Ezekiel and Jeremiah—Prophetic Vision—Prophetic Imagination—The Shaping of the Vision—Predictive Vision—Imaginative Dialogue—
The Vision and the Word—"Thus Saith the Lord"—Reason and Imagination—Inspiration and the Subconscious
- Chapter IV—The Content of Old Testament Prophecy* 90
Ritual and Tabu—Amos at Bethel—Holiness and Righteousness—
The Prophets and the Cultus—The Virtue of Intelligence—The

CONTENTS

Character of God—The Consistency of God—The Wrath of God—
The Doctrine of Retribution—The Love of God—Righteousness and Mercy—The Tribal God—Prophetic Criticism of National Religion —Nationalism and Universalism—The People of God—Ethical Monotheism

*Chapter V—The Personal Religion of the Prophets;
Their Historical Relativity* 120
The Prophetic Vocation—Inner Life of the Prophets—Prophetic-evangelical piety—Particularity of Prophecy—Time-relativity of Prophecy—Truth and Illusion

PART II

THE AUTHORITY OF CORPORATE
EXPERIENCE

Chapter VI—The Bible as a Record of Religion in Common Life 131
What is Religious Experience?—History and Religious Experience
—The Common Man in the Bible—Primitive Religion—Migration
Legends—The Roman Empire—"Quidquid agunt homines"—Daily
Life in the Parables—The Heritage of History

Chapter VII—The Religion of the Prophets in the Life of the Community 149
The Canon of the Prophets—Deuteronomy—Composition of the Pentateuch—The Canon of the Old Testament—The Religion of the Psalter—The Psalms and the Law—Wisdom-Literature—Ethics of Judaism

*Chapter VIII—The Inconclusiveness of the Old Testament
Religion* 165
Sacrifice and Prayer—Nationalism and Universalism—Transcendence
and Immanence—Wisdom as Mediator—Prophetic Theodicy Questioned—Intimations of Immortality—Scepticism—Origins of Apocalypse—Value of Apocalypse

CONTENTS

PART III

THE AUTHORITY OF THE INCARNATION

Chapter IX—The New Testament as the Literature of a Decisive Movement in Religion 184
The Canon of the New Testament—The Hellenistic Civilization—
Hellenistic Judaism and Christianity—Hellenism in the New Testament—The New Age

Chapter X—The New Testament as the "Fulfilment" of the Old 194
Old Testament Questions and New Testament Answers—Nationalism and Universalism—The Universal Society—Righteousness and Grace—The Problem of Suffering—Suffering and Sacrifice—Eternal Life—The Problem of Mediation—The Incarnation and the Sacraments

Chapter XI—Jesus Christ and the Gospels 211
The Gospel before the Gospels—The Christ of the Gospels—Source-Criticism of the Gospels—The Gospels as Historical Documents
—Eternal Christ and Jesus of History—Historical Relativity of Sayings of Jesus—Temporary Forms of Teaching of Jesus—The Permanent in the Temporary—Personal Authority of Jesus Christ

PART IV

THE AUTHORITY OF HISTORY

Chapter XII—Progress in Religion 227
Continuity of Biblical History—Pagan Israel—False Progress under the Monarchies—From the Prophets to Judaism—From Judaism to Christianity—Progress by Ebb and Flow—Christianity an Historical Religion—The Scriptures as Historical Documents—The People of God—A Criterion of Progress—The Shaping of History from Within

Chapter XIII—"Progressive Revelation" 248
Revelation and Discovery—Stages of Revelation—Revelation Relative to Human Faculties—Grace and Revelation—Old and New in

CONTENTS

Christ's Teaching—Revelation and Incarnation—The Lordship of Christ—"To sum up all things in Christ"

CONCLUSION

Chapter XIV—The Bible as "The Word of God"	264
How Jesus revealed God—Revelation through Reconciliation—The Appeal of the Bible—The teaching of the Bible—Past and Future
Index	275