

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments 7

Abbreviations 8

Introduction 11

- I JEWISH HERMENEUTICS IN THE FIRST CENTURY 19
- Sources
 - Literalist Interpretation
 - Midrashic Interpretation
 - Peshet Interpretation
 - Allegorical Interpretation
 - Summation
- II JESUS AND THE OLD TESTAMENT 51
- A Realistic Appraisal of the Documents
 - The Phenomena of the Quotations
 - Literalist and Midrashic Treatments
 - Peshet Interpretations
 - A Paradigm for Continued Study
- III EARLY CHRISTIAN PREACHING AND THE OLD TESTAMENT 79
- Sermonic and Catechetical Materials
 - The Phenomena of the Quotations
 - Testimonia Portions and Collections
 - Exegetical Presuppositions
 - Exegetical Practices and Patterns
- IV PAUL AND THE OLD TESTAMENT 104
- The Letters of Paul
 - The Phenomena of the Quotations
 - Literalist and Midrashic Treatments
 - Allegorical Interpretations
 - Peshet Interpretations

V THE EVANGELISTS AND THE OLD TESTAMENT	133
The Phenomena of the Quotations
The Quotations of Mark and Luke
The Quotations of Matthew
The Quotations of John
VI HEBREWS AND THE OLD TESTAMENT	158
The Provenance of the Letter
The Phenomena of the Quotations
Exegetical Presuppositions and Practices
The Biblical Argument
VII JEWISH CHRISTIAN TRACTATES AND THE OLD TESTAMENT	186
The Nature of the Materials
The Phenomena of the Quotations
Literalist Treatments
Peshet Interpretations
VIII THE NATURE OF NEW TESTAMENT EXEGESIS	205
Christocentric Interpretation
Common, Diverse and Developed Exegetical Patterns
The Descriptive and the Normative in Exegesis
A Selected Bibliography	221
Index of Authors	231
Index of References	234