

CONTENTS

	Preface	7
1	Names and Values: a Preliminary Inquiry	11
	(1) Proper Names and Group Names. (2) For and Against. (3) Values, Institutions, and Parties. (4) The Protestant Label.
2	Protestant and Catholic: a Re-examination of Terms	21
	(1) Protestant Origins. (2) The Protestant Protest. (3) Catholic Universality. (4) The Appeal to Tradition. (5) Protestant versus Catholic. (6) Protestantism versus Catholicism. (7) History and Ideas.
3	Protestant Belief: I. 'No other Foundation'	44
	(1) The Gospel. (2) Confessional Theology. (3) The Limitations of Theology. (4) Faith, the Church, and the Sacraments.
4	Protestant Belief: II. Obedience to Faith	59
	(1) God and Man. (2) The Reception of the Gospel. (3) Possessing the Truth. (4) Personal Response and Objectivity. (5) Speculation and Dogma. (6) Natural and Revealed Theology. (7) Saving Knowledge.
5	Protestant Doubt	83
	(1) Certainty, Psychological Certitude, and Faith. (2) Love as the Key to Faith and Doubt. (3) Ideology as Certainty. (4) Faith versus Radical Doubt. (5) Doubt as the Absence of Rational Certainty. (6) Doubt as Disbelief. (7) Religious Experience. (8) Mysticism.
6	The Freedom to be Wrong	110
	(1) Doubt, Law, and Toleration. (2) Moral Law and Society. (3) Moral Subjectivity. (4) The Growth of Toleration. (5) True and False Individualism. (6) The Use and Abuse of Freedom.

7	The Sacred and the Secular	132
	(1) The Ethical Demand for Secularism. (2) The Scientific Demand for Secularism. (3) The Moral Basis of Secularism. (4) The Ethical Limitations of Secularism. (5) The Faith behind Secularism. (6) The Sacred within the Secular.
8	Protestant Morality: I. Grace beyond the Law	156
	(1) The Place of Morals in Religion. (2) Confessional Theology's Attitude to Morality. (3) The Moral and Religious Spheres of Interest. (4) The Moral Scandal of Predestination. (5) Moral Freedom and Moral Effort. (6) The Protestant View of the Relation of Faith to Morals. (7) The Implications of Moral Subjectivity.
9	Protestant Morality: II. 'The Fruits of the Spirit'	184
	(1) Beyond Dual Standards. (2) The Alternative to Clericalism. (3) Responsibility in Society. (4) Moral Development. (5) Education as a Moral Force. (6) Social Morality.
10	Protestantism under Judgement	207
	(1) Incompleteness and Failure. (2) Protestant Idolatry. (3) Protestantism's 'Distressed Areas'. (4) Rationalism and Irrationalism. (5) Sacramental Dialogue. (6) Art's Sacramental Function. (7) The Challenge of Culture.
11	Protestant Values: a Summing-Up	236
	(1) The Subjectivity of Value. (2) Dialogue—an Anti-rationalistic Value. (3) Authoritarian, Empiricist, and Romantic Values. (4) Form and Spirit. (5) The Re-formation of the Church. (6) Unity and Dialogue.
	Index of Subjects	255
	Index of Names	262