

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

- CREATION—The Creation Account; Relation of God to the World; Relation of God to Man; The Making of Man; The Two-fold Nature of Man; Genesis and Science; Great Truths Taught 19

CHAPTER II

- THE GARDEN OF EDEN—The Meaning of this Narrative; Adam and Eve; The State of Innocence; The Temptation; The Fall; The Punishment; The Promise; The Garden of Eden and its Location; Adam to Noah . . 27

CHAPTER III

- THE FLOOD—The Scripture Account; The Cause and Method; Side Lights and Confirmations; The Widespread Tradition; The Extent of the Deluge; Teachings: About God; About Man; The Nature of Sin 35

CHAPTER IV

- THE ANCIENT WORLD—The Table of Nations and the Tower of Babel; The Condition of the Ancient World; The Commercial Interests; Literary Culture; Civilization; The Motive of the Ancient Civilization 43

CHAPTER V

- ABRAHAM AND THE CHOSEN PEOPLE—Purpose of the Narrative; The Call of Abraham; Promises to Him; Covenant with Abraham; Emigration for Conscience Sake; Condition of Ancient Lands and Cities; Chaldea; Egypt; Canaan; The Moral State; Historical Confirmations . 53

CHAPTER VI

MOSES AND THE EXODUS—Connection between Genesis and Exodus; The Place of Israel in Egyptian History; The Political and Religious Situation at the Time of the Exodus; The Oppression of Israel by Egypt; Moses, the Great Deliverer; His Call and Work; The Exodus; The School of the Desert 68

CHAPTER VII

JOSHUA AND THE CONQUEST—The Narrative; The Course of Events by Chapters; Joshua; The Conquest of Canaan; Some Reasons for the Destruction of the Canaanites; The Incoming of the Israelites; The Difficulties in the Way of Conquering the Land; The Significance of the Seven Years War 77

CHAPTER VIII

THE JUDGES OF ISRAEL—The Times of the Judges; The Book of Judges and the Exploits of its Heroes; The Task of the Israelites; To Keep what had been Gained under Joshua; To Repel Invaders; To Dominate the Social and Religious Relations of the Country; To Advance the Tribal and National Interests; The Preservation of the Israelites 85

CHAPTER IX

THE RISE OF THE KINGDOM—Introduction to a New Period; The Times; The Sad State of Israel; The Philistines; The Reformation under Samuel; The Establishment of the Kingdom; The Immediate Cause and Necessity for this Step; The Principle of the Kingdom; The Course of Events; The Rule of Eli; The Rule of Samuel; The Rule of Saul; New Institutions; The Monarchy; The Prophetic Order 95

CHAPTER X

THE GLORY OF THE KINGDOM—Introduction and Course of Events by Books and Chapters; The Work of King David; As a Military Leader; Statesman; Servant of God; Poet and Musician; The Work of King Solomon; With Foreign Nations; At Home; In Religious Matters; Political and Religious Condition of the Surrounding 160 Nations; Some Benefits of this Age

CHAPTER XI

THE DIVISION AND FALL OF THE KINGDOM—The Disruption; Causes of the Division; First and Second Causes; Condition of the two Kingdoms; The Northern and Southern; The Relations Between the Kingdoms; Mutual Hostility; Close Alliance; Fresh Animosity and Gradual Decline; The Struggle for National Existence; The Kings of Israel; The Kings of Judah; Historical Confirmations . . . 118

CHAPTER XII

PROPHETS OF THE KINGDOM—What a Prophet Is; The Prophetic Order; The Prophetic Gift; Prophetic Teaching; The Sixteen Written Prophecies; The Prophets of the Kingdom; The Times of the Prophets 140

CHAPTER XIII

THE CAPTIVITY—The Meaning of the Captivity; The Exile of the Ten Tribes; The Historical Situation; The Religious and Moral Causes of the Downfall of Israel; The Captivity of Judah; The Historical Situation; The Gradual Decline and Fall of Judah; The State of the Exiles; The Hope of the People; The Great Lesson 157

CHAPTER XIV

THE RETURN FROM EXILE—The End of the Captivity; The State of the Nations; Assyria, Babylon, Israel, Persia; The Return to Jerusalem; The Order of Events; The First Colony; The Second Colony; The Significance of the Return of the Jews to their own City 166

CHAPTER XV

PROPHETS OF THE EXILE AND RETURN—Introduction to their Special Work; The Prophets of the Captivity; The Messages of Daniel, Ezekiel and Obadiah; The Prophets of the Restoration; The Messages of Haggai, Zachariah and Malachi; The Goal of Prophecy 178

CHAPTER XVI

MALACHI TO CHRIST—MALACHI: the Last of the Old Testament Prophets; The Cessation of Prophecy; The Order of Events: the Persian; the Greek; the Maccabean; the Roman 188

CONTENTS

CHAPTER XVII

THE ADVENT OF THE MESSIAH—The Coming of Christ; The Kingship of Christ: (1) He was Expected as the Messianic King; the Hebrew Prophets Foretold it; Heathen Writers Confirm it. (2) He was Proclaimed King; He Claimed that He was the Messianic King; Divine Titles were Given to Him; Divine Attributes were Ascribed to Him and Divine Works were Wrought by Him. (3) He Rules the World as King; He was King to the Early Christians; He is Lord over all Civilizations; He is the King of the Ages 203

CHAPTER XVIII

THE LIFE OF CHRIST ON EARTH—The Condition of the Age; The Romans and Greeks; The Corruption of Worship and Morals; Human Life Considered of Little Value; Slavery; Amusements; The Work of Christ; Purity of Worship; Sanctity of Human Life; Cleansing of the Human Heart; The Life of Christ: Nativity and Youth; Period of Obscurity; Period of Popularity; Period of Opposition; Period of Triumph; The Four Narratives of Christ's Life by Matthew, Mark, Luke and John 214

CHAPTER XIX

THE RESURRECTION AND ASCENSION—The Resurrection; Necessity; Foretold by Christ; Appearances: Times and Places; The Ascension; Teaching 233

CHAPTER XX

SUPREMACY OF CHRIST—The Great Prediction in the Old Testament; The Fulfilment of Prophecy; The Position of the New Testament; How Christ is Master and Lord; His Writings; His Character; Intellectual Ability; Plans; Power 241

CHAPTER XXI

THE CHURCHES IN THE ACTS—The Origin of the Churches; The Record in the Book of Acts; Definition, Form and Purpose of the First Churches; Growth: in Jerusalem; in Judea and Samaria; Among the Gentiles; The First Preachers and what they Taught. Seen and Unseen Forces 251

CONTENTS

CHAPTER XXII

THE EPISTLES OF PAUL—The Epistles of the New Testament; Form; Reasons for this Kind of Writing; Number of Writers; Occasion; The Epistles of Paul, thirteen in All; Qualifications of Paul for Writing these Letters; the General Plan in Each One; The Four Groups of Paul's Epistles Chronologically Arranged . 258

CHAPTER XXIII

THE GENERAL EPISTLES—The Name; The Significance; The Writers; The Epistle of James; the Writer; the Occasion and Purpose; The Epistle of Peter; Contents of the First and Second; The Writings of John; Place and Occasion of the First, Second and Third; The Letter of Jude; To Whom Written; The Object . . . 270

CHAPTER XXIV

THE MESSAGE OF JOHN TO THE CHURCHES—The Age and the Author; The Purpose; The Message to the Seven Churches of Asia; The Message to all Churches; Analysis of the Book of Revelation; Interpretation and Teaching 277