

CONTENTS

PREFACE

vii

I. CREATION

1. What does the Bible tell you about your creative power? 1
2. Even God is concerned about getting the right image 3
3. Chaos in Scripture holds meaning for moderns 6
4. Trust in the power of the small group 10

II. THE HOLY GOD

1. Scripture sets the balance for understanding the God "up there" 14
2. The Christian idea of the holy springs from biblical roots 16
3. Biblical man looked at the world with awe and wonder 20

III. WORSHIP

1. The Bible tells us how to worship 25
2. The law books of the Old Testament are the least read books of the Bible 28
3. Pagan festivals of nature were transfigured into historical liturgy 31
4. Ezekiel separates sacred from profane 34
5. Five kinds of sacrifice for the Mass ritual 38
6. The New Testament is not specific on the celebration of the Eucharist 40
7. Why Christians must gather together 43
8. The Bible illustrates the priest's wide-ranging mission 46

IV. ADVENT

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1. Christians must be men of faith plus decision                       | 53 |
| 2. The Bible looks more to the future than to the past                 | 56 |
| 3. The Day of the Lord is recalled during Advent                       | 58 |
| 4. Isaiah celebrates the Messiah's coming with remarkably clear images | 62 |
| 5. Luke's Christmas story  | 65 |
| 6. New Year and the Jewish Feast of Tents                              | 68 |

V. LENT

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1. The call to test the spirits                                  | 75 |
| 2. Paul and Silas had faith that released them from jail         | 78 |
| 3. Penance should cause a change                                 | 80 |
| 4. The Bible is optimistic about death                           | 83 |
| 5. The pilgrim Church finds a model in the story of Israel       | 85 |
| 6. The Suffering Servant   | 89 |
| 7. Christ on the cross shows the greatest of three kinds of love | 91 |

VI. EASTER

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Christ's resurrection signifies his availability to all mankind           | 97  |
| 2. Peace is obtained by placing one's life at the point of anguish           | 99  |
| 3. Crisis of authority is not new in the Church                              | 102 |
| 4. Christ's comforting words: "Sorrow will give way to joy"                  | 104 |
| 5. A charismatic quality in the conduct of men is the Spirit's manifestation | 106 |
| 6. Prayer is the constant discovery of God's will                            | 109 |

VII. ASCENSION, PENTECOST, TRINITY

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. The Ascension: Cosmic Presence of Jesus     | 115 |
| 2. Pentecost: Seizure of the Spirit            | 117 |
| 3. Day of Trinity: The glory that transfigures | 119 |

VIII. LOVE AND FREEDOM

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Getting to know each other has deep scriptural basis                        | 124 |
| 2. The Bible often uses pairs of brothers to dramatize themes of love and hate | 126 |
| 3. The Bible offers no clear political solutions, but dilemma and paradox      | 129 |
| 4. Do freedom and religion mix?  | 132 |

INDEX

137