

CONTENTS

Translators' note	xi
Editions used	xii
Abbreviations	xiii

PART ONE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN THE CITY OF JERUSALEM

I INDUSTRIES	3
A The industries of Jerusalem	4
1. Industries which served the general public	4
A Goods for domestic use	4
B Food trades	6
C Luxury goods	8
D The building trade	10
i. Building activity	10
ii. The building workers	14
(α) Ordinary building	14
(β) Skilled craftsmanship in building	15
(γ) Building maintenance	16
E Other trades	17
2. Guilds within individual industries	18
A The layout of the city	18
B The distribution of industries in the city	19
C The organization of the trades	21
3. Industries connected with the Temple	21
A The buildings	21
B The cultus	25
C Organization of Temple workers	26
B The individuality of Jerusalem	27
1. The position of the city	27
2. The political and religious significance of the city	27
II COMMERCE	31
A Evidence of commerce in Jerusalem	31
1. In general	31

2. Foreign trade	35
3. Local trade	38
A Grain	39
B Fruit and vegetables	41
C Livestock	46
D Raw materials	49
B The influence of Jerusalem on commerce	51
1. The city's geographical position	51
2. Political and religious importance of the city	54
III FOREIGN VISITORS	58
A Evidence for foreign visitors in the city	58
1. In general	58
A The Journey to Jerusalem	58
B Accommodation in Jerusalem	60
2. Visitors from a distance	62
A Gaul, etc.	63
B Rome	63
C Greece	64
D Cyprus	64
E Asia Minor	65
F Mesopotamia	66
G Parthia	67
H Syria	68
I Arabia	68
J Egypt	69
K Cyrene	71
L Ethiopia	71
3. Visitors from within Palestine	71
B The unique character of Jerusalem	73
1. The city's geographical position	73
2. Political and religious importance of the city	73
Excursus The number of pilgrims at Passover	77
Additional Note on calculating the number of festival pilgrims	84
PART TWO ECONOMIC STATUS
IV THE RICH	87
A The court	87

B The wealthy class	92
1. Extravagance	92
2. Representatives of the wealthy class	95
V THE MIDDLE CLASS	100
VI THE POOR	109
A Slaves and day labourers	110
B The subsidized sections of the population	111
VII DECISIVE FACTORS IN DETERMINING THE ECONOMIC CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE PEOPLE OF JERUSALEM	120
A Economic and geographic situation of the city	120
1. The cost of living in normal times	120
2. The cost of living in times of emergency	121
B The political situation	123
1. Taxation	124
2. War and spoliation	126
C Religion and cultus	126
1. Acts of charity	126
2. Pilgrim traffic	134
3. Income from the Cultus	138
Excursus I The historicity of Matthew 27.7	138
Excursus II Disasters in Jerusalem	140
PART THREE SOCIAL STATUS
VIII THE CLERGY	147
A The high priest	147
B The chief priests and chief Levites	160
C The priestly aristocracy	181
Excursus The chronology of Maccabees	182
D The 'ordinary' priests	198
E The Levites	207
F The hereditary character of the priesthood	213
IX THE LAY NOBILITY	222

X	THE SCRIBES	233
XI	THE PHARISEES	246
PART FOUR
THE MAINTENANCE OF RACIAL PURITY
XII	THE STRUCTURE OF THE NATIONAL COMMUNITY	271
XIII	ISRAELITES OF PURE ANCESTRY	275
	A Legitimacy of ancestry	275
	B Historical value of lay genealogies	284
	C Civil rights of full Israelites	297
XIV	DESPISED TRADES AND JEWISH SLAVES	303
	A Despised trades	303
	B Jewish slaves	312
XV	ILLEGITIMATE ISRAELITES	317
	A Israelites with slight blemish	317
	1. Illegitimate descendants of priests	317
	2. Proselytes	320
	3. Freed Gentile slaves	334
	B Israelites with grave blemish	337
	1. Bastards	337
	2. Temple slaves, fatherless, foundlings, eunuchs	342
XVI	GENTILE SLAVES	345
XVII	THE SAMARITANS	352
XVIII	THE SOCIAL POSITION OF WOMEN	359
	List of High Priests	377
	Jerusalem Scribes	379
	Index of Names and Subjects	381
	Index of References	385
	Old Testament	385
	New Testament	388
	Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha	392
	Qumran Writings	392

The Mishnah	393
The Tosephta	396
The Babylonian Talmud	397
The Jerusalem Talmud	399
The Extra-canonical Tractates	400
Midrash Rabbah	400
Josephus	401
Philo	404