

Contents

Preface vii
The Editors

PART ONE: BACKGROUND AND ORIGINS

1. What the Fundamentalists Want 3
Richard John Neuhaus
2. The Evangelical Worldview Since 1890 19
James Davison Hunter
3. The Evangelical Denomination 55
George Marsden
4. The Evangelical and Fundamentalist Revolt 69
A. James Reichley

PART TWO: SPEAKING FOR THEMSELVES

5. Making Political Decisions: An Evangelical Perspective 99
Carl F. H. Henry
6. An Agenda for the 1980s 109
Jerry Falwell
7. The Two Faces of Evangelical Social Concern 125
Ronald Nash
8. An Evangelical Theology of Liberation 143
Ronald J. Sider
9. Public Justice and True Tolerance 161
James Skillen
10. The Lures and Limits of Political Power 171
Charles W. Colson
11. The Powerful and the Powerless 187
Jim Wallis
12. Radical Evangelicals and the Politics of Compassion 203
Lloyd Billingsley
13. The Moral Limits of Government 217
Stephen Monsma
14. Confusing Justice and Peace 233
Dean Curry

PART THREE: WHAT OTHERS SAY

15. Fundamentalists: A Defensive Offensive 245
Nathan Glazer
16. Who Put Morality in Politics? 259
George F. Will
17. Yale and the Moral Majority 265
William F. Buckley, Jr.
18. The Religious Right and Republicans 269
Sidney Blumenthal
19. Fundamentalism as an Ideology 287
Harvey Cox
20. Fundamentalism as a Social Phenomenon 303
Martin E. Marty
21. Evangelicals Are Politically Diverse 321
Stuart Rothenberg
22. Searching for Norman Rockwell 327
Grant Wacker
23. Evangelicals and Catholics: A New Ecumenism 355
George Weigel
24. Religious Belief and the Constitutional Order 363
William J. Bennett
25. Televangelism and Politics 379
Jeffrey K. Hadden
26. Secular Humanism and The American Way 395
Joseph Sobran
- Bibliography 411
- Index of Names 417