

Contents

General preface	5
Author's preface	11
Introduction	13
The historical background	13
The traditional view of the book	16
The theory of the Maccabean orientation of the book	17
The answer from the conservative point of view	19
The central theme of the book—its convincing unity and integrity	20
Daniel within the biblical tradition	22
a. Daniel within the prophetic tradition	23
b. Daniel within the apocalyptic tradition	24
c. Daniel and the wisdom tradition in Israel	27
Daniel 1: The issue and the answer	30
The people of God: new questions in theology and policy	30
Nebuchadnezzar: benevolence and despotism	32
The practical issues—co-operation or withdrawal?	34
The caretakers of the true Israel	36
Yes and no!	39
The first encounter	40
The issue, and the drawing of the line	41
A model for today?	43
The vow and the appeal	45
God takes over	46

Daniel 2: The stone and the shattered kingdoms	49	Daniel 9: A prayer and a prophecy	147
Crisis in palace and city	49	Daniel, the community and the books	147
Ultimate questions	51	The books and the presence of God	148
Daniel the mediator	52	The search today	150
The mystery of the king's dream	54	The presence, the books and the prayer	151
The proclamation of the kingdom of God	56	An individual in community	153
The details of the image	58	Reality and liturgy in the Bible	154
The stone from the mountain	58	Dates—or assurance?	155
The king's first response	60	The beloved man as an acceptable sacrifice	157
 		The angels and the answer	159
Daniel 3: The blazing furnace	62	The God of angels and mankind	161
The need for social cement	62	Is our God too small?	162
The Festival of the New Babylon	63	Seventy weeks of years!	163
The miracle of resistance	65	The goal of history	164
The answer	65	The foreshadowing of events to come	166
The miracle of survival	67	The working out of the purpose of God	168
Nebuchadnezzar—the moment of truth	68
Nebuchadnezzar—the moment of repentance	70	Daniel 10: 'I Daniel'	171
 		The final encounter	171
Daniel 4: 'I Nebuchadnezzar'	72	The shattering and exalting presence	173
Evasion	72	The cost of involvement and the gift of understanding	175
The rejection of the sower with the seed	74	The cost must be the same today	177
The clay in the hand of the potter	75	The communion of heaven and earth in the cosmic conflict	178
The Father who disciplines us	76	The decisive heavenly war	180
Daniel—companion and sign	78
Daniel—faithfulness in counsel	80	Daniel 11: The history inscribed in the book	182
The lesson	82	Take-over by the spoken word	182
The personal testimony of a converted soul—his peace	83	The history of the broken empire and its issue	183
The personal testimony of a converted soul—his new-found life in God	84	God shapes the pattern of our ways	186
 		We have our responsibility	187
Daniel 5: Belshazzar's feast	86	The transition to 'the time of the end'	189
Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar—the drawing of a contrast	86
Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar and Daniel—even 'change' can change!	87	Daniel 12: Waiting and watching for the end	191
Daniel's attitude	88	The time of the end	191
Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar—the elect and the rejected	90	The Antichrist	191
The rejected chooses his rejection	91	The tribulation	192
Nebuchadnezzar—mercy and judgment	92	The separation	193
		The finale—the gap between seeing and understanding	195
		The need for steadfast patience	196
		The need for wisdom	198
		The final pastoral word—the way and the place	199
		The final pastoral word—the promise of rest	200

Belshazzar—judgment and mercy	93
The writing on the wall	94
The act of sacrilege	95
The vessels of the Lord	97
The essence of sin	98
The pastoral word at the eleventh hour	99
The honesty and severity of love	100
The background of the human tragedy	102
Daniel 6: The den of lions	104
The mystery of the offence	104
Anyone who hates his brother . . .	105
The unswerving witness of Daniel	106
The point of the offence	107
The injustice of the charge	109
Murder under the system!	110
The saving grace of discipline	112
Our need of habit	112
The law-and-order trap	114
The resurrection of Daniel	115
Darius	117
Daniel 7: The beasts and the son of man	119
A new look at world power	119
Questions for today	121
The ultimate and tormenting problem	122
Towards a final answer	124
The kingdom of the son of man	125
The son of man and the servants of the Most High	127
The haunting details of the last beast	128
The ten horns	130
The need for perspective	131
Reading the signs today	132
Justifiable depression?	134
The need for watchfulness	135
Daniel 8: The he-goat and the little horn	138
The vision—Alexander the Great and Antiochus Epiphanes	138
A history without a clue—the absurdity of the outcome	140
A foretaste and foreshadowing of the final Antichrist	144
Back to the king's business!	146