

CONTENTS

OF THE

ADDENDA TO 1 COR. XIV.

CHAP. I.

Concerning the Hebrews and HellenistsPage 286

CHAP. II.

Of the Hebrews in Babylon, and the adjacent countries..... 287

CHAP. III.

In the same regions were the seats of the ten tribes 291

CHAP. IV.

Peter preaching the gospel in Babylon 294

CHAP. V.

The Hebrew Bible read in the synagogues of the Hebrews..... 295

CHAP. VI.

What the Jews think of the versions 297

CHAP. VII.

A comparison of the history of the LXX as it is in Josephus and as it is in the Talmudists 299

CHAP. VIII.

Of the thirteen places that were changed 302

CHAP. IX.

In what value 'the Version of the Seventy,' as it is commonly called, seems to have been among the Jews..... 303

CHAP. X.

What things are objected for the affirmative 308

CHAP. XI.

By what authors and counsels it might probably be that that Greek version came forth, which obtains under the name of 'The Seventy.' 309