

Contents

CHAPTER

I.	WHAT IS LITERARY CRITICISM?	1
	The Study of Literature	1
	The Traditions of the Rhetoric and the Poetics	3
	History and the Study of Literature	5
	Interpretation as Translation	7
	Form and Religious Function	11
II.	THE FORM OF THE GOSPEL	14
	The Story as a Form of Religious Speech	14
	The Story as Reenactment	16
	The Gospels as Reenactment and as Hope	18
	Jesus as the Focus of Concreteness	24
III.	THE PROVERB	30
	The Proverb in Folk Literature	30
	The Proverb in the Gospels	33
	The Beatitude or Macarism	36
	The Intensification of Proverbial Insight	39
IV.	HISTORY AS A FORM	42
	Hellenistic Writing of History	42
	Hebraic Writing of History	44
	The Writing of History in Acts	46
	Literary Art in Acts	49
V.	THE APOCALYPSE	53
	Apocalyptic Symbolization of the End	53
	The Book of Revelation as Literary Vision	56
	The Use of Symbols in the Book of Revelation	58
	Apocalyptic Symbols and Rebellion Against Structure	62

CHAPTER

VI. THE LITERARY HISTORY OF THE SYNOPTIC GOSPELS	64
The History of the Study of the Growth of the Gospels	64
The Arguments for and Against the Priority of Mark. .	66
The Source for Matthew's and Luke's Sayings
Material	72
Current Research on Synoptic Sources	74
VII. LITERARY CRITICISM AND THEOLOGICAL
UNDERSTANDING	75
Imagination and Faith	75
Literature as an Index of Life Style	76
The Vitality of the Christian Vision	78
Implications of the Narrative Form for Theological
Interpretation	80
The Symbolization of Hope	81
GLOSSARY	84
ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY	85