

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
PART I	Introduction	1
1	Christian Origins and the New Testament	3
	1. Introduction	3
	2. The Task	6
	(i) What to Do with the Wicked Tenants	6
	(ii) The Questions	11
	(iii) The History of Early Christianity	14
	(iv) 'New Testament Theology'	18
	(v) Literary Criticism	25
	(vi) The Task Restated	26
PART II	Tools for the Task	29
2	Knowledge: Problems and Varieties	31
	1. Introduction	31
	2. Towards Critical Realism	32
	3. Stories, Worldviews and Knowledge	38
	4. Conclusion	44
3	Literature, Story and the Articulation of Worldviews	47
	1. Introduction	47
	2. On Reading	50
	(i) Introduction	50
	(ii) 'Is There Anybody There?'	54
	(iii) Reading and Critical Realism	61
	3. On Literature	65
	4. The Nature of Stories	69
	(i) The Analysis of Stories: Narrative Structure	69
	(ii) The Analysis of Stories: The Wicked Tenants	74
	(iii) Jesus, Paul and the Jewish Stories	77
4	History and the First Century	81
	1. Introduction	81
	2. The Impossibility of 'Mere History'	82
	3. 'This Does Not Mean 'No Facts''	88
	(i) Critical Realism and the Threat of the Disappearing Object	88
	(ii) The Causes of the Misconception	92
	(iii) Wanted: New Categories	96
	4. Historical Method: Hypothesis and Verification	98
	(i) Introduction	98
	(ii) The Requirements of a Good Hypothesis	99
	(iii) Problems in Verification	104
	5. From Event to Meaning	109
	(i) Event and Intention	109
	(ii) History and Narrative	113
	(iii) History and Meaning	115
	(iv) Conclusion	118

viii	Contents
	6. Historical Study of First-Century Religious Movements	118
	(i) Introduction	118
	(ii) Judaism in the First Century	118
	(iii) Christianity in the First Century	119
5	Theology, Authority and the New Testament	121
	1. Introduction: From Literature and History to Theology	121
	2. Worldview and Theology	122
	(i) On Worldviews	122
	(ii) On Theology	126
	(iii) On Christian Theology	131
	(iv) Worldviews, Theology and Biblical Studies	137
	3. Theology, Narrative and Authority	139
	4. Conclusion	143
	PART III First-Century Judaism within the Greco-Roman World	145
6	The Setting and the Story	147
	1. Introduction	147
	(i) The Aim	147
	(ii) The Sources	151
	2. The Greco-Roman World as the Context of Early Judaism	152
	3. The Story of Israel, 587 BC—AD 70	157
	(i) From Babylon to Rome (587–63 BC)	157
	(ii) Jews under Roman Rule (63 BC—AD 70)	159
	(iii) Judaism Reconstructed (AD 70–135)	161
	(iv) Conclusion	166
		167
7	The Developing Diversity	167
	1. The Social Setting	167
	2. Movements of Revolt	170
	3. The Pharisees	181
	(i) The Sources	181
	(ii) The Identity of the Pharisees	184
	(iii) The Agenda and Influence of the Pharisees	185
	4. The Essenes: Spotlight on a Sect	203
	5. Priests, Aristocrats, and Sadducees	209
	6. 'Ordinary Jews': Introduction	213
		215
8	Story, Symbol, Praxis: Elements of Israel's Worldview	215
	1. Introduction	215
	2. Stories	215
	(i) Introduction	215
	(ii) The Basic Story	216
	(iii) The Smaller Stories	219
	(iv) Conclusion	221
	3. Symbols	224
	(i) Introduction	224
	(ii) Temple	224
	(iii) Land	226
	(iv) Torah	227
	(v) Racial Identity	230
	(vi) Conclusion	232
	4. Praxis	233
	(i) Introduction	233
	(ii) Worship and Festivals	233
	(iii) Study and Learning	235
	(iv) Torah in Practice	237
	5. According to the Scriptures; The Anchor of the Worldview	241
	6. Conclusion: Israel's Worldview	243
9	The Beliefs of Israel	244
	1. Introduction	244
	2. First-Century Jewish Monotheism	248
	(i) Creational Monotheism	248
	(ii) Providential Monotheism	250
	(iii) Covenantal Monotheism	251
	(iv) Types of Duality	252
	(v) Monotheism and its Modifications	256
	3. Election and Covenant	259
	(i) Introduction	259
	(ii) Covenant	260
	(iii) Israel, Adam and the World	262
	(a) Pentateuch	262
	(b) Prophets	264
	(c) Wisdom Literature	264
	(d) Qumran	265
	(e) Other Second-Temple Literature	266
	(f) Israel and the Nations	267
	4. Covenant and Eschatology	268
	5. Covenant, Redemption and Forgiveness	272
	6. Beliefs: Conclusion	279
10	The Hope of Israel	280
	1. 'Apocalyptic'	280
	(i) Introduction	280
	(ii) A Literary Form and a Linguistic Convention	280
	(iii) The Contexts of Apocalyptic	286
	(iv) On 'Representation'	289
	(v) Daniel 7 and the Son of Man	291
	(vi) Apocalyptic, History and 'Dualities'	297
	2. The End of Exile, the Age to Come and the New Covenant	299
	3. No King but God	302
	4. The King that would Come	307
	5. The Renewal of the World, of Israel, and of Humans	320
	6. Salvation and Justification	334
	7. Conclusion: First-Century Judaism	338
	PART IV The First Christian Century	339
11	The Quest for the Kerygmatic Church	341
	1. Introduction	341
	2. Tasks and Methods	345
	3. Fixed Points: History and Geography	346
	4. Filling in the Gaps: Literature in Search of Setting	357
12	Praxis, Symbol and Questions: Inside Early Christian Worldviews	359
	1. Introduction	359
	2. Praxis	359
	3. Symbols	365

4. Questions	369
13 Stories in Early Christianity (1)	371
1. Introduction	371
2. Luke and his Stories	373
(i) A Strange Comparison?	373
(ii) The Form of Luke's Story	378
3. The Scribe and the Plot: Matthew's Story	384
4. 'Let the Reader Understand': The Story of Mark	390
5. Synoptic Gospels: Conclusion	396
6. Paul: From Adam to Christ	403
7. The Narrative World of the Letter to the Hebrews	409
8. The Story of John	410
14 Stories in Early Christianity (2)	418
1. Introduction: Form Criticism	418
2. Towards a Revised Form Criticism	427
(i) Introduction	427
(ii) Prophetic Acts	429
(iii) Controversies	431
(iv) Parables	433
(v) Longer Units	434
(vi) Conclusion	435
3. Stories but no Story? Q and Thomas	435
15 The Early Christians: A Preliminary Sketch	444
1. Introduction	444
2. Aims	444
3. Community and Definition	447
4. Development and Variety	452
5. Theology	456
6. Hope	459
7. Conclusion	464
PART V Conclusion	465
16 The New Testament and the Question of God	467
1. Introduction	467
2. Jesus	468
3. The New Testament	469
4. The Question of God	471
Appendix: Chronological Chart of Second-Temple Jewish History and of Early Christianity	477
Bibliography	481
Abbreviations	481
A Primary Sources	482
B Secondary Sources	485
Indexes	511

A Index of Ancient Sources	511
1. Old Testament	511
2. Apocrypha	514
3. Pseudepigrapha	515
4. Qumran	516
5. Josephus	517
6. Philo	518
7. Rabbinic Works	518
8. New Testament	519
9. Other Early Christian Works	522
10. Gnostic Sources	523
11. Pagan Sources	523
B Index of Modern Authors	525
C Index of Selected Topics	530