

contents

preface 9

biblical texts 17

The Letter of Paul to the Romans, chapters 12 and 13

The Revelation to John, chapter 13

chapter one 23

The Vocation of Political Authority

The Vocation of the Word of God

Creation, Fall, and the Significance of Vocation

The Lordship of Christ in Fallen Creation

chapter two 35

The Problem of Political Legitimacy

The Ambiguity of Legitimacy

The Meaning of Political Authority

The Constantinian Status Quo

chapter three 55

Anarchy, Apocalyptic Reality, and the Antichrist

Political Authority and Empirical Anarchy

The Scope of Human Sin

Bombast and Blasphemy

chapter four 75

The Second Advent of the Lord

The Significance of the Two Advents

The Impending Devastation of Political Authority
The Imminence of the Second Advent chapter five 89

The Vocation of the Church as the Holy Nation

Trusting the Judgment of the Word of God

The Biblical Witness as Advocacy

The Nationhood of the Church

epilogue 109

A Homily on the Significance of the Defeat of the Saints