

THE GOSPELS AND ACTS

| | | | |
|--|-----|--|-----|
| How to use this book | vii | Truth in both views? | 52 |
| | | Why were the Gospels written? | 52 |
| | | Why these Gospels? | 54 |
| | | Some issues for today | 55 |
| | | Essay topics | 55 |
| | | Further reading | 55 |
| A. SETTING THE SCENE | | 4 Where did the Gospels come from? | 57 |
| 1 The historical context of Jesus and the New Testament | 3 | Luke 1:1-4 | 57 |
| From the Persian period to the Jewish war | 3 | Using a Gospels synopsis | 58 |
| Sources of information | 3 | Source criticism | 58 |
| Old and New Testaments | 3 | Form criticism | 70 |
| Jewish sources | 3 | Redaction criticism | 74 |
| Greek and Roman historians | 5 | And now? | 79 |
| Before the Romans | 6 | Essay topics | 80 |
| The Greeks | 7 | Further reading | 80 |
| The Maccabees versus the Seleucid empire | 7 | | |
| The Hasmonean dynasty | 10 | 5 Understanding the Gospels today | 81 |
| The Romans | 13 | Tools for interpreting the Gospels | 81 |
| The Herod family | 13 | Narrative criticism | 84 |
| Pontius Pilate | 18 | Social-scientific approaches | 88 |
| After Pilate | 19 | Rhetorical criticism | 89 |
| Jesus' context | 21 | Reader-response approaches | 90 |
| Essay topics | 23 | 'Ideological' approaches | 91 |
| Further reading | 23 | Structuralism | 92 |
| 2 Judaism in first-century Palestine | 25 | Post-structuralism and deconstruction | 93 |
| Five key marks of second temple Judaism | 25 | An approach to exegesis of the Gospels | 94 |
| One true God | 25 | The process of study | 94 |
| God has chosen Israel | 28 | Pull the ideas together | 97 |
| God has provided a way to live | 29 | Presentation | 98 |
| God has given the people a land, focused in the temple | 34 | Essay topics | 99 |
| Hope for the future | 36 | Further reading | 99 |
| Parties and groups within first-century Judaism | 37 | Methods of interpretation: parables, miracles, apocalyptic | 100 |
| Pharisees | 39 | The parables of Jesus | 100 |
| Sadducees | 40 | The miracles of Jesus | 104 |
| Essenes | 42 | Apocalyptic imagery | 108 |
| The 'fourth philosophy': the revolutionaries | 42 | Essay topics | 110 |
| Common Judaism | 43 | Further reading | 111 |
| Further reading | 44 | The historicity of the Gospels | 111 |
| | | A subjective issue | 111 |
| B. APPROACHING THE GOSPELS | | What sort of documents? | 113 |
| 3 What are the Gospels? | 47 | What sources of information did they have? | 113 |
| What does 'gospel' mean? | 48 | | |
| The Gospels as like other ancient literature | 49 | | |
| The Gospels as unlike other ancient literature | 51 | | |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Doubts about the historicity of the contents | 114 |
| Arguments for historicity from the contents | 116 |
| Essay topics | 120 |
| Further reading | 120 |
| Using the Gospels today | 120 |
| What are we to make of four different Gospels? | 120 |
| What about teaching and using the Gospels today? | 122 |
| An example: how to 'preach' Jesus and the Gospels | 122 |

C. UNDERSTANDING JESUS

| | |
|--|-----|
| 6 The quest for the historical Jesus | 127 |
| Individuals and movements | 127 |
| Rationalism and Hermann Samuel Reimarus | 127 |
| H. G. Paulus and miracles | 128 |
| David Strauss and myth | 128 |
| The liberal lives of Jesus | 129 |
| A. Schweitzer and the eschatological Jesus | 129 |
| Rudolf Bultmann, myth and existentialism | 130 |
| The new quest | 131 |
| The Jesus Seminar | 131 |
| The third quest | 132 |
| Other modern views of Jesus | 132 |
| Issues | 133 |
| Presuppositions and subjectivity | 133 |
| Miracles | 133 |
| Sources | 134 |
| The religious context | 134 |
| Criteria and method | 135 |
| History matters | 140 |
| Essay topics | 140 |
| Further reading | 140 |
| 7 The life of Jesus in the light of history | 143 |
| Birth and beginnings | 143 |
| John the Baptist | 145 |
| Galilee | 147 |
| The road to Jerusalem | 149 |
| Last days in Jerusalem | 150 |
| Essay topics | 153 |
| Further reading | 153 |
| 8 The teaching and aims of Jesus | 155 |
| Why did Jesus die? | 155 |
| Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem | 156 |
| Jesus' demonstration in the temple | 156 |
| The final steps | 158 |
| Jesus' perspective | 158 |
| Jesus and the kingdom of God | 160 |
| God's reign in the OT and Judaism | 160 |
| Jesus and the kingdom | 161 |
| God's reign in Jesus' ministry | 161 |
| God's coming reign | 163 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| The character of the kingdom | 166 |
| Welcome for 'sinners' | 166 |
| The kingdom of the Father | 168 |
| The response required | 168 |
| Jesus' ethics and his view of the torah | 169 |
| Jesus' teaching about the torah | 169 |
| Jesus' criticism of the torah | 171 |
| Was Jesus consistent? | 172 |
| Who did Jesus think he was? | 174 |
| Jesus as Israel | 174 |
| Jesus, his disciples and the renewed Israel | 176 |
| Jesus' reshaping of Israel | 177 |
| The aims of Jesus | 178 |
| Jesus as Messiah | 179 |
| Jesus as the Son of God | 181 |
| Jesus as the Son of Man | 183 |
| Summing up: Jesus and the purposes of Yahweh | 184 |
| Some issues for today | 185 |
| Essay topics | 186 |
| Further reading | 186 |

D. GETTING INTO THE FOUR GOSPELS

| | |
|--|-----|
| 9 Mark | 191 |
| Structure | 191 |
| A walk through Mark | 191 |
| Some key themes | 202 |
| Christology | 202 |
| Discipleship | 203 |
| Background and purpose | 204 |
| Authorship and date | 205 |
| Some issues for today | 206 |
| Essay topics | 206 |
| Further reading | 207 |
| 10 Matthew | 209 |
| A look into the Gospel | 209 |
| How the Gospel is structured | 211 |
| Style | 213 |
| Theological themes | 214 |
| Jesus fulfils the OT story | 214 |
| Jesus fulfils the law and brings the higher righteousness | 215 |
| Practical obedience and judgement | 216 |
| Jesus brings good news to the world: Jesus, Gentiles and the church | 217 |
| The church | 219 |
| Kingdom and Christology | 219 |
| Sources of Matthew's Gospel | 220 |
| The two source theory | 220 |
| Background and purpose | 222 |
| Authorship and date | 223 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Some issues for today | 224 |
| Essay topics | 225 |
| Further reading | 225 |
| 11 Luke | 227 |
| Luke-Acts: a two-volume work | 227 |
| Structure | 227 |
| Journeying with Jesus in Luke's Gospel | 228 |
| Some key themes | 235 |
| Salvation | 235 |
| Salvation for all | 236 |
| The Holy Spirit | 237 |
| Prayer and praise | 237 |
| Luke's sources | 238 |
| Luke's readers, purpose and authorship | 239 |
| Some issues for today | 239 |
| Essay topics | 240 |
| Further reading | 240 |
| 12 John | 243 |
| A walk through the Gospel | 243 |
| Style | 244 |
| Theological themes | 245 |
| Jesus as Jewish Messiah | 245 |
| Jesus as divine Son | 246 |
| Reasons for believing: signs and witnesses | 247 |
| Is Jesus human in John? | 248 |
| The death of Jesus: how does it work? | 249 |
| Eternal life | 251 |
| The Holy Spirit | 253 |
| Future hope? | 254 |
| Believing | 254 |
| The sources of the Gospel | 255 |
| Dislocations in the text | 255 |
| A signs source | 256 |
| Theological variation | 256 |
| The synoptic Gospels | 256 |
| The background and purpose of John's Gospel | 257 |
| Possible explanations of the differences | 257 |
| Authorship and date of the Gospel | 262 |
| In favour of the traditional identification | 262 |
| Against the traditional identification | 262 |
| Some issues for today | 263 |
| Essay topics | 264 |
| Further reading | 264 |

E. THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

| | |
|---|-----|
| 13 Acts | 267 |
| Acts as Luke's volume two | 267 |
| What kind of book is Acts? | 268 |
| Style and presentation | 270 |
| Parallelism | 270 |
| Prophecy and fulfilment | 270 |
| Structure | 271 |
| A reading of Acts | 271 |
| Setting the scene | 271 |
| Mission in Jerusalem | 272 |
| Three big men | 273 |
| The gospel spreads in Syria-Palestine | 274 |
| Paul begins to travel; The Jerusalem meeting | 275 |
| Paul's second and third journeys | 276 |
| To Jerusalem and then Rome | 281 |
| Acts and history | 285 |
| Titles and geography | 285 |
| Time and dates | 285 |
| A chronological outline of Acts | 286 |
| Acts and Galatians | 287 |
| Speeches | 288 |
| Acts and theology: some major themes | 290 |
| God | 290 |
| Jesus | 291 |
| The Holy Spirit | 292 |
| Mission and the church | 293 |
| Luke's readers and purpose | 294 |
| Readers | 294 |
| Why did Luke write? | 295 |
| Authorship and date | 295 |
| Who is Luke? | 295 |
| When did Luke write? | 297 |
| Reading Acts today | 297 |
| Some issues for today | 298 |
| Essay topics | 299 |
| Further reading | 299 |

| | |
|-----------------|-----|
| Glossary | 301 |
|-----------------|-----|