

SYNOPSIS OF CONTENTS

DIVISION A

THE GOSPELS VIEWED SYNTHETICALLY

Part I—General

	PAGE
1 KEY PLAN OF READING Thirty-four Studies	35
2 EMPERORS OF ROME to A.D. 180	37
3 CHURCH FATHERS to A.D. 430	38
Questions and Literature	44
4 HISTORICAL AND RELIGIOUS BACKGROUND OF THE GOSPEL STORY	45
World Powers—Sects and Parties: Priests, Levites, Scribes, Rulers, Pharisees, Sadducees, Herodians, Galileans, Samaritans—The Diaspora—Proselytes—The Synagogue—The Septuagint—The Sanhedrin
Questions and Literature	52
5 GEOGRAPHICAL SETTING OF THE GOSPEL STORY	53
Palestine: Names, Distinction, Smallness, Fertility, Seclusiveness, Centrality—Four Great Regions: Maritime Plain, Central Range, Jordan Valley, Eastern Range—Features: Mountains, Plains, Valleys, Seas, Rivers—Places mentioned in the Gospels (alphabetically arranged)
Questions and Literature	60
6 PERSONS MENTIONED IN THE GOSPELS	61
In the Two Genealogies of Matthew and Luke—Old Testament Characters—Persons associated with Christ: Women, Apostles, Others, Unnamed
Questions and Literature	67
7 HARMONISTIC READING SYLLABUS OF THE GOSPELS	68
The Thirty Years of Preparation—The Opening Events of Jesus' Ministry—The Early Judæan Ministry—The Samaritan Ministry—The Galilean Ministry: Period I, Period II, Period III—The Later Judæan Ministry—The Peræan Ministry—The Closing Events of Jesus' Ministry—The Forty Days of Confirmation
Questions and Literature	82

	PAGE
8 THE SYNOPTIC PROBLEM	83
Statement of the Problem—Hypotheses concerning it: Oral Tradition, Mutual Use, Documents—Reasons for the Documentary Theory—Certainty of an Oral Gospel—The Q material in Luke—Papias on Matthew's Logia —Syllabus of Q passages in Luke—Nature and social references in Q.
Questions and Literature	94
9 DIAGRAMMATIC VIEW OF THE GOSPELS	95
10 THE OLD TESTAMENT IN THE GOSPELS	96
Sources, introduction, and number of these references—The Old Testament an organic part of Divine revelation—Christ's estimate and interpretation of the Old Testament
Questions and Literature	101
11 THE AUTHORIZED AND REVISED VERSIONS	102
Necessity for the Revised Version—Gains of the Revised Version illustrated by: the Definite Article—Prepositions (apo, ek, anti, dia, eis, en, epi, peri, para)—Tenses: present, imperfect, perfect, aorist—More faithful rendering—Obscurities clarified—Errors corrected—An illustration of comparative study
Questions and Literature	113
12 THE JEWISH CALENDAR	114
13 THE TWELVE APOSTLES	116
Lists—Surnames, or appellations—Parents—Homes—Occupations—Relations—Writings—Ministry, and End
Questions and Literature	121
14 THE HERODIAN FAMILY	122
Diagram—References—Notes

Part II—Particular

1 KEY PLAN OF READING. Twelve Studies	127
2 THE WRITINGS	128
3 DESIGNATION	128
4 CHARACTER	129
Matthew and the Jews—Mark and the Romans—Luke and the Greeks—John and the Church

	PAGE
5 AUTHORSHIP	130
Matthew : The Problem, traditional belief, modern belief—Mark in Matthew: testimony of the Church Fathers—Was the canonical Gospel written in Aramaic, or in Greek?—Statement of Papias—Suggested solution— Mark : Statement of Papias that Mark was Peter's 'interpreter'—Testimony of the Church Fathers— Luke : Witness of the Church Fathers—The Gospel and the Acts by the same writer— John : Problems of authorship, and of historicity—Controversy as to authorship; conservative, mediating, and partition theories—External and internal evidence of Apostolic authorship—The author was a Jew, a Palestinian, an eye-witness, an Apostle, John
6 DATE AND PLACE OF WRITING	138
7 ORIGIN	139
Points largely agreed upon—Use of Sources is characteristic of the Scriptures
8 INSPIRATION	141
Individuality of the writers—Variety of report—Natural means of information—Canonical and Apocryphal Gospels
9 GENUINENESS	142
Testimony of the Church Fathers
10 NUMBER	143
Why Four Gospels?—Testimony to the Four in the second century—Attempts to answer the question: Harmonists, Allegorists, Rationalists—The answer of Historical Criticism: the design of each Gospel—These Records answer to the needs of Judaism, Imperialism, Hellenism, and Christianity
11 RELATIONS	145
Relation of the Gospels to the Old Testament, the Apostolic Writings—Relation of the Synoptic Gospels to the Fourth—Relation of the Synoptic Gospels to each other: General Harmony, detailed Agreement in all Three: in Matthew and Mark, in Mark and Luke, in Matthew and Luke—Passages peculiar: in Matthew, in Mark, in Luke—Points of difference: in the matter of context, in the recording of events, in the order of material which they have in common, in the amount of material which they have in common—Verbal differences
Questions and Literature	157

DIVISION B

THE GOSPELS VIEWED ANALYTICALLY

St. Mark

1 KEY PLAN OF READING Fifty-four Studies	164
2 THE AUTHOR	167
References to Mark in the New Testament

	PAGE
3 FOR WHOM WRITTEN	168
For Gentile, and especially Roman readers—Old Testament quotations—Interpretation of Aramaic words—Explanation of Jewish customs—Use of Latin words—General tone of the Gospel
4 DATE OF WRITING	170
The Earliest of the Four Gospels—Date in relation to the dates of Luke's Writings—Date in relation to the death of Peter
5 PLACE OF WRITING	171
Egypt?—Antioch?—Cæsarea?—Rome?
6 GENUINENESS AND AUTHENTICITY	171
Meaning of these terms—Testimonies to the Genuineness of Mark's Gospel: from the end to the middle of the second century, from the middle of the second century to the Apostolic age—The testimony of Papias to the Authenticity of this Gospel—The authorship of chap. xvi. 9-20: the Short, the Intermediate, and the Long Endings
7 MARK AND PETER	177
Mark's connection with the Apostle: External evidence—Internal evidence
8 MARK'S GOSPEL AND THE OTHER SYNOPTICS	179
The question of priority—Mark represents the Oral Gospel of Apostolic preaching—Matthew and Luke use Mark
9 MARK'S GOSPEL IN THE EARLY CHURCH	180
Comparatively neglected—Few references to it in Sub-apostolic Writings—Its place in ancient Catalogues and Manuscripts—Mark and the Cherubim—Mark not an abridgment of Matthew—Mark in Matthew and Luke—Present-day appreciation of the importance of Mark
10 MARK'S SOURCES	182
The Preaching of Peter—Testimony from the second to the end of the fourth centuries—Occurrence of Peter's name in Mark—Mark's Gospel and Peter's sermon at Cæsarea—Mark and Q—Mark's other contacts, and his recollections
11 MARK'S DESIGN	184
Not a 'tendency-writing'—Mark and Roman Christians
12 OMISSIONS IN MARK'S GOSPEL	186
What we would have lost if we had had Mark's Gospel only—The reason for the omissions
13 MATERIAL PECULIAR TO MARK'S GOSPEL	189
Westcott's comparisons—Various estimates of the amount that is peculiar—Sixty-five verses—Passages which appear in greater detail in Mark than in Matthew or Luke

	PAGE
14 THE OLD TESTAMENT IN MARK'S GOSPEL	190
Various estimates of the number of Old Testament references in this Gospel—Sixty-three references tabulated, with parallels, when they exist, in Matthew or (and) Luke—Ten Old Testament references peculiar to Mark—Books of the Old Testament quoted from, or alluded to—Old Testament references which the Lord makes
15 CHRIST'S WORDS IN MARK'S GOSPEL	192
Number of verses which record His words—Chart of the number in each chapter—Chart of Christ's words in each of the Gospels
16 MARK'S STYLE AND DICTION	193
Individuality of the Evangelists in their Gospels—The Characteristics of the Four—Words which characterize Mark's Gospel—Negatives—Colloquialisms—Brevity and Expansion—Double words—Mark's tenses: Historic Present, Imperfect—Words peculiar to Mark—Mark's references to the familiar things of life
17 MIRACLES IN MARK'S GOSPEL	202
Two miracles peculiar to Mark—Miracles in Mark and in the other Synoptics—Miracles not specified in detail—Words used to describe the works of Jesus: 'Wonder,' 'Sign,' 'Power'—Westcott's classification of the miracles—The two-fold value of the miracles, temporal and eternal—Miracles which Mark does not record
18 PARABLES IN MARK'S GOSPEL	206
Figures of Speech—Parables in Mark—Parables which Mark does not record
19 DISCOURSES IN MARK'S GOSPEL	211
One major discourse—Talks on various subjects—The teaching of the parables—Mark's record of the Olivet Discourse compared with Matthew's and Luke's
20 MARK'S PLAN	217
21 MARK'S GEOGRAPHY	218
Northern and Southern Geography—Places mentioned—Indefinite references
22 FEATURES OF MARK'S GOSPEL	220
The Looks of Jesus—Gesture ^s of Jesus—Emotions of Jesus—Details of time, place, numbers—Diminutives—Minute descriptions—Incidents and circumstances recorded by Mark only—Jesus' retirements
23 ANALYSIS OF MARK'S GOSPEL	222
Diagrammatic survey—Opening Events of Christ's Ministry—The Galilean Ministry: three periods—The Peræan Ministry—Closing Events of the Ministry—Appearances and Ascension of Christ
Questions and Literature	235

St. Matthew

	PAGE
1 KEY PLAN OF READING Fifty-two Studies	242
2 THE AUTHOR Matthew and Levi—Customs Officer—His Call—The Feast— The Logia —His references to money—The method and precision of his Gospel	246
3 FOR WHOM WRITTEN Testimony of Irenæus, Origen, Eusebius—Why placed first in order of the Gospels—The Genealogy of Jesus traced to Abraham through David—Jewish complexion of the Writing	248
4 DATE OF WRITING Before or after A.D. 70?—Probable date—Dr. C. C. Torrey's statement	248
5 PLACE OF WRITING In Syria or Judæa	249
6 CANONICITY Meaning of 'canon'—Testimonies in the second century to the canonicity of Matthew—Its canonicity implies its genuineness and integrity	249
7 LANGUAGE IN WHICH WRITTEN Matter is part of the Synoptic Problem (which see)—No evidence that the canonical Matthew was ever written in Aramaic—The Jews bilingual—Papias' reference to Matthew's Logia — The Gospel according to the Hebrews	250
8 MATTHEW'S SOURCES Matthew's Gospel a compilation—Shorthand an ancient art, and probably Matthew used it—By the Logia is probably meant a collection of Jesus' Sayings—Of the Synoptics, Matthew's is the Gospel of the Discourses—The formula at the end of five dis- courses—These may well be from the Logia or Q—The Testi- monies , a Manual of fulfilled Messianic prophecy—Matthew's 'that it might be fulfilled'—Matthew's use of Mark's Gospel— Material peculiar to Matthew—Matthew's own recollections of Christ's sayings and doings—Oral tradition	251
9 MATTHEW'S DESIGN To convince the Jews of Jesus' Messiahship—This shown by certain expressions: the Genealogy, the Discourses, Old Testament references	254
10 MATTHEW'S PLAN Order of events not chronological—Six parts of narrative and discourse—The six great discourses—Matthew's Sermon on the Mount scattered throughout Luke's Gospel—Themes of chaps. v-vii—The groups of nine (or ten) miracles—Purpose and use of the grouping plan—The case of Theophilus	255

	PAGE
11 OMISSIONS IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL	258
12 MATERIAL PECULIAR TO MATTHEW'S GOSPEL About 410 verses—Details of particulars which Matthew alone gives	260
13 MARK IN MATTHEW The substance of 606 of Mark's 661 verses—Matthew's chief source—Tabular analysis of Mark in Matthew—Mark not Matthew's only source (see under 'Sources')	261
14 MATTHEW'S USE OF MARK What Matthew omits—He does not follow Mark's order— Frequently abbreviates Mark's record—Many of Mark's vivid details are omitted by Matthew—Often amplifies Mark—Mat- thew's and Mark's references to Christ compared—Matthew's and Mark's references to the Apostles	263
15 THE OLD TESTAMENT IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL About 130 citations and allusions—Lists of these references— Taken from 25 of the Old Testament Books: mostly from Deuter- onomy, Psalms, Isaiah—Books not referred to—Old Testament references made by our Lord—Use of the Septuagint Version— Obscure quotations—Use made of Old Testament passages	267
16 CHRIST'S WORDS IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL Chart of His words in each of the chapters—Detailed references	272
17 MATTHEW'S STYLE AND DICTION Words found in this Gospel only—Money words, reflecting Matthew's former occupation—Characteristic words and phrases: 'that it might be fulfilled,' 'which was spoken,' 'this was done that . . .,' 'consummation of the age,' 'kingdom of heaven,' 'Father,' etc.	273
18 PARABLES IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL The parabolic material in Matthew—The subjects of these parables—Parables peculiar to Matthew—Teaching of the parables in Matthew—The parables of judgment—Double parables— Figures employed in the parables—Parables of the 'Kingdom of Heaven'	278
19 MIRACLES IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL Groups of unspecified miracles—The twenty miracles in Matthew, of which three are peculiar—The miracles which Matthew omits—The miracles which Matthew and others record—The miracles in chaps. viii-ix—The miracles classified—The moral and spiritual interpretation of the miracles—Christ the greatest Miracle	286

	PAGE
20 DISCOURSES IN MATTHEW'S GOSPEL	291
'The Didactic Gospel'—Proportion of Christ's words in Matthew—Matthew's Logia —Six discourses; five of them with a concluding formula— The Sermon on the Mount in Luke's Gospel—Other scattered sayings—(Matthew collects in groups Sayings which are scattered in Mark and Luke)—Jesus' sententious Sayings—Outlines of the Sermon on the Mount —Outline of the Charge to the Twelve — The Parables of the Kingdom of Heaven analysed and expounded—Christ's teaching on Greatness , and on Forgiveness —Summary of The Great Apocalypse —This Discourse expounded
21 FEATURES OF MATTHEW'S GOSPEL	311
Numerical Groups: twos, threes, fives, sevens—Its limited and universal Scope—The particularistic element: to Jews—The catholic element: to Gentiles—Contrasts—Angles and Aspects
22 ANALYSIS OF MATTHEW'S GOSPEL	317
Diagrammatic Survey—General summary—Detailed Outline—The Coming of the Messiah and His Preparation for Ministry—The Ministry of the Messiah in Word and Deed: in and around Galilee—The Messiah's Instruction of His Apostles in view of the Cross—The Final Events of the Messiah's Earthly Ministry: chiefly in Jerusalem
Questions and Literature	324
St. Luke
1 KEY PLAN OF READING Forty-two Studies ..	332
2 THE AUTHOR	334
New Testament references to Luke—His Nationality, Birthplace, Conversion, Education, Profession, Paul's Companion, Versatility—Conjectures
3 FOR WHOM WRITTEN	337
For Gentiles in general, and Greeks in particular—Explanations of Jewish customs and places—The Genealogy of Jesus traced to Adam—Little said of fulfilment of prophecy—Luke's choice of words, and fondness for some of them—Expressions likely to attract Gentiles—Noticeable absence of Aramaic words—The dedication to Theophilus
4 DATE AND PLACE OF WRITING	339
Three main theories—Probable date, between A.D. 58 and A.D. 62—Reason for this derived from the close of the 'Acts' in A.D. 63—Written at Cæsarea or Rome, or commenced at the one, and finished at the other
5 CANONICITY	340
Marcion's Gospel—Witnesses to the genuineness and authenticity of Luke's Gospel widespread in and after the second century

	PAGE
6 LUKE'S SOURCES	341
Sources of which Luke speaks in his Preface—His use of Mark—Material from the Logia or Q—Material of a Hebrew complexion, derived, perhaps, from Jesus' mother—A Herodian source—A source for passages in the two 'Interpolations'—Philip the Evangelist a possible source
7 LUKE'S DESIGN	344
Immediate, and ultimate—Luke wrote with the need of Greeks in view
8 LUKE'S PLAN	345
Analysis of his Preface, i. 1-4
9 LUKE'S STYLE AND DICTION	346
Greek and Hebrew—Richness of vocabulary—About 250 words are peculiar to Luke in all the New Testament, and 61 more peculiar to his Gospel and 'Acts'—Examples of the richness of Luke's Greek
10 MATERIAL PECULIAR TO LUKE'S GOSPEL	349
List of 'peculiar' passages—Events which Luke alone records—Six miracles which occur nowhere else—The fourteen miracles which Luke shares with Matthew, or Mark, or both—Nineteen parables which occur nowhere else—The sixteen parables which Luke shares with the other Synoptists
11 OMISSIONS IN LUKE'S GOSPEL	353
He uses Mark; yet of the latter's 120 sections, he omits 41—A list of the omitted passages—'The Great Omission,' Mark vi. 45-viii. 26—What we would have lost if we had had Luke's Gospel only—What we would have lost if we had not had Luke's Gospel
12 MARK IN LUKE	356
Nearly half of Mark is in Luke, and 53% of Mark's actual words—Table showing what Luke has, and has not, of Mark's Gospel
13 LUKE'S USE OF MARK	358
Mark not Luke's primary source—Proto-Luke—The Marcan and Non-Marcan passages in Luke alternate—Diagram—Hawkins' theory in explanation of why Luke omits Mark vi. 45-viii. 26
14 LUKE AND PAUL	360
The Apostle's influence on the Evangelist—Ideas which both emphasize: faith, grace, repentance, mercy, forgiveness—Statements on Luke and Paul by Tertullian and Irenæus—Comparison of words in each of the Synoptics and Paul only—Table showing the similarity between Paul's thought and language, and Luke's—Some of the words used by Paul and Luke only
15 THE OLD TESTAMENT IN LUKE'S GOSPEL	363
Approximate number of references—Classification of the references—Direct citations—Direct references, but not citations—Echoes of Old Testament passages

A GUIDE TO THE GOSPELS		PAGE
18
16	CHRIST'S WORDS IN LUKE'S GOSPEL More than half the Gospel: in 586 of Luke's 1149 verses (R.V.)	366
17	FEATURES OF LUKE'S GOSPEL Comprehensiveness—Universalism—The Individual—Sympathy —Forgiveness—Prayer—Songfulness—Social Life—Poverty and Wealth—Women—Children—Characters—Medical Terms—Con- trasts—Angels—Doublets—Dean Farrar on this Gospel	366
18	ANALYSIS OF LUKE'S GOSPEL Diagrammatic Survey—General Summary—Detailed Outline— Advent of the Son of Man—Preparation of the Son of Man— Ministry of the Son of Man: In the Light of the Cross, On the Way to the Cross—Triumph of the Son of Man	382
	Questions and Literature	390
St. John
I	KEY PLAN OF READING Fifty Studies	396
2	JOHN THE APOSTLE The Apostle John—(For the problem of authorship see Division A, Part II, Section 5)—His home and occupation—His discip- ship and service-life—References to him in the history of the Church—Portrait of him derived from tradition—His character reflected in his Writings—His place in the Apostolic Age	398
3	FOR WHOM WRITTEN For the Church as a whole, and for the world at large—The witness of the Church Fathers	400
4	DATE AND PLACE OF WRITING The other Gospels assumed—Events recorded which the Synop- tists omit, and omitted which they record—Maturity of the teaching of this Gospel—Most probable date of writing, about A.D. 95—Written probably at Ephesus	401
5	CANONICITY Recognized from the middle of the second century—Witness of Church Fathers	403
6	JOHN'S SOURCES John had no need of Sources—Ninety-two per cent of his material is 'peculiar'	404
7	JOHN'S DESIGN Polemical—Anti-docetic—Doctrinal—Supplemental—John's own declaration of design: chap. xx. 30, 31, Experimental	405
8	JOHN'S PLAN There are few more perfect literary structures—Three ideas con- stitute the plan: revelation , issuing in rejection , or reception — These notes dominate the seven parts of the Gospel. (See Analysis)	407

SYNOPSIS OF CONTENTS		PAGE
9	JOHN'S CHRONOLOGY John's notes of time, and historical sequence—Records Jesus' visits to Jerusalem for the national feasts—The three Passovers— Chronological Tables	408
10	JOHN'S GEOGRAPHY In chaps i. 1-iv. 54; iv. 54-xi. 16; xi. 16-xxi. 25	410
11	JOHN'S STYLE AND DICTION John's limited vocabulary—Greek language, but Hebrew thought —Brief sentences—Negative and positive expression of ideas— His use of the particles 'that' and 'then'—Repetition of words and sentences—Hebrew parallelism—John's dominating words—Sharp antitheses—Words peculiar to John—Words which this Evangelist does not use—Notable phrases—His style described	411
12	CHRIST'S WORDS IN JOHN'S GOSPEL	418
13	MIRACLES IN JOHN'S GOSPEL There are eight, of which six are 'peculiar'—Designation of miracles in the Gospels—Classification of the miracles in this Gospel, relative to their spiritual significance—Westcott on the significance of there being eight miracles only—Unspecified miracles	418
14	DISCOURSES IN JOHN'S GOSPEL Problem of the Discourses—Sayings of Jesus here which appear in the Synoptics—Considerations which show that these dis- courses could have been written at the close of the first century —John's style in Jesus' discourses—Fourteen discourses in this Gospel, divisible into Public Instruction, and Private Instruction —The Discourses analysed	421
15	THE OLD TESTAMENT IN JOHN'S GOSPEL The number of references, and those who make them—The Old Testament Books quoted from and alluded to—Lists of quotations and allusions—Subjects of the references—What the fact of such references teaches	426
16	RELATION TO THE SYNOPTIC RECORDS Parallels : wherein John and the Synoptists agree—At least twenty-six lines of Synoptic parallel in the Fourth Gospel: the subjects and references, with notes— Omissions : seven great events: the Birth, Baptism, Temptation, and Transfiguration of Christ, Institution of the Supper, the Agony in the Garden, and the Ascension—Reasons for this, and notes— Material peculiar to John, ninety-two per cent.: events, miracles, discourses	430
17	JOHN AND LUKE The theory that John's materials are Luke's omissions—All the material of the two Gospels shown in parallel columns, with chronological notes; 163 sections—Harnack's view—Thirty words which are found only in the Writings of Luke and John—Words found only in John and the 'Acts'—Other evidence of a con- nection between John and Luke	437

A GUIDE TO THE GOSPELS		PAGE
20
18	FEATURES OF JOHN'S GOSPEL	446
	Fragmentariness and Unity—Imagery—Symbolism—Characters—The Messiah—History and Dogma—The Author's Comments
19	THE JOHANNINE WRITINGS	454
	The Gospel and the First Epistle —Similar words and phrases—Ideas expressed both positively and negatively—Emphasis of truth by repetition—Words much used in this Gospel and the First Epistle which occur far less frequently in the Synoptics—Similar Prologues—Both contemplate the Parousia—Three categories of characteristics— The Gospel and the Second-Third Epistles —Common ideas and words—The writer of these two Epistles wrote the First, and the writer of the First Epistle wrote the Gospel—Dr. Bernard's verdict— The Gospel and the Revelation —Author of the Revelation—Differences between the Gospel and the Revelation—Affinities of the Gospel and First Epistle with the Revelation are many—Detailed evidence of common authorship—Synthesis of John's Writings
20	ANALYSIS OF JOHN'S GOSPEL	461
	Diagrammatic Survey—General Summary—Detailed Outline—Prologue—Beginnings of Faith and Unbelief—Development of Unbelief in Israel—Development of Faith in the Disciples—Consummation of Unbelief in Israel—Consummation of Faith in the Disciples—Epilogue
	Questions and Literature	467

DIVISION C

THE GOSPELS VIEWED CHRISTOLOGICALLY

1	KEY PLAN OF READING. Seventy Studies	473
2	PREPARATION FOR CHRIST'S ADVENT	476
	The Process twofold: direct and positive in Judaism, indirect and negative in Heathenism—These ideas developed
	Questions and Literature	478
3	PROPHECIES OF THE MESSIAH	479
	Kinds of prophecy—Subjects of predictive prophecy—Classification of Messianic prophecy—Indirect or Topical, with illustrations—Direct or Literal—New Testament declarations that Christ had long been predicted—Christ in the Old Testament: His Human Pedigree, His Redemptive Programme, His Divine Person; with tabular analysis of predictions and fulfilments—A. T. Pierson's canons by which true prophecy can be tested
	Questions and Literature	487

SYNOPSIS OF CONTENTS		PAGE
4	CHRONOLOGY OF CHRIST'S LIFE	488
	A.U.C., and A.D. reckonings—Chronology intricate and uncertain—Date of the Nativity—Date of the Baptism—Duration of the Ministry—Date of the Crucifixion—A Summary of events with Dates
	Questions and Literature	491
5	DIAGRAM OF THE MESSIAH'S MINISTRY	491
	Questions and Literature	493
6	SYLLABUS OF THE GOSPEL STORY	495
7	THE TWO GENEALOGIES	505
	Matthew's and Luke's—Problem of harmonizing them—A Table comparing and contrasting the two accounts—Notes on the names and numbers—Three alternative views—The Genealogies and the Virgin Birth—Features of the Genealogy in Matthew
	Questions and Literature	511
8	THE BIRTH OF CHRIST	512
	Meaning of 'Virgin Birth'—The event believed and disbelieved—Chief Objections—The Gospel Witnesses—Narrative Sources—Alleged Silence in Mark's and John's Gospels, and in Paul's Writings—Practical value of belief in the Virgin Birth
	Questions and Literature	518
9	THE NAMES AND TITLES OF CHRIST	519
	Table showing these and the number of their occurrences in each of the Gospels—Notes on the principal Titles: Son of Man, Son of God, Messiah
	Questions and Literature	524
10	THE PERSON OF CHRIST	525
	What Biblical Christology includes—No formulation of the doctrine in the Bible, but the materials for such formulation are supplied—Factors necessary for a complete conception of Christ's Person— Controversies of the Church —ON CHRIST'S HUMANITY—Docetism—Apollinarianism—ON CHRIST'S DIVINITY—Ebionism—Arianism—ON THE UNITY OF CHRIST'S PERSONALITY—Nestorianism—ON THE TWO NATURES IN THE PERSON OF CHRIST—Eutychianism—Monothelitism— Councils and Creeds —Nicæa: condemning Arianism—CONSTANTINOPLE: condemning Apollinarianism—EPHESUS: condemning Nestorianism—CALCEDON: condemning Apollinarianism, Nestorianism, and Eutychianism— Christology of the Gospels —Paul not the originator of the doctrine of Christ's Person—Not the humanity, but the Deity of Christ is the critical question—The witness of the latest to the earliest documents: John, Luke, Matthew, Mark, Q—Doctrine of Christ's real humanity and true Divinity equally clear in the Fourth Gospel, the Synoptic Records, and the Primitive Tradition—Reference summary of the doctrine
	Questions and Literature	545

	PAGE
11 THE WORK OF CHRIST	546
Difference between His being 'born,' and His 'coming'—Christ's view of the purpose of His Advent—His use of the words 'work,' and 'works'—The proportions of the Gospels devoted to the record of the Passion Week
12 THE METHOD OF CHRIST'S TEACHING	548
What He claimed for His utterances—The impression made on people by His utterances—His use of Imagery —Natural phenomena—Animate nature—Human life—History— Parables —Full lists of these—Difference between interpretation and application of the parables—Christ in His parables—Representations of men in the parables—Contrasted parables—The Second Advent in the parables—Judgment in the parables—The Kingdom in the parables—Themes of the parables— Miracles : Unparticularized miracles—Details of miracles recorded in one, two, three, and four Gospels—Boundaries of the miracles—Values of the miracles— Discourses : Table of Christ's discourses, with references—Parabolic discourses
Questions and Literature	558
13 THE SUBSTANCE OF CHRIST'S TEACHING	560
Numerous themes—Prominent subjects detailed: God—The Holy Spirit—Christ Himself—Christ's Death—Man—Sin—Righteousness—Salvation—Forgiveness—The Kingdom—Love—Prayer
Questions and Literature	567
14 THE DAY OF THE CRUCIFIXION	569
The traditional view challenged—The 'three days and three nights'—The happenings between the death and the burial of Jesus—The weekly, and the 'high day' Sabbath—Exod. xii. 3-8—Lev. xxiii. 6—Programme from the 9th to the 17th of Nisan—Confirmation of the view that Jesus died on Tuesday-Wednesday, 14th Nisan—The words Sindōn and Othonion —The view that the death was on Wednesday-Thursday, 15th Nisan
Questions and Literature	577
15 THE SEVEN SAYINGS ON THE CROSS	578
Their Significance, Number, Order—The Time of them—Their Roots—Analysis of them—Diagrammatic Survey—Notes on the Sayings
Questions	588
16 THE DEATH OF CHRIST	589
Importance of the subject—Two views of Christ's attitude towards His death: the historical , and the dogmatic , which are irreconcilable—The evidence of what Christ thought of His death: In the Synoptic Gospels —The 'cup,' the 'baptism,' the 'covenant,' the 'ransom'—Christ's death was violent and voluntary—In the Fourth Gospel —The pronouncements of at least eighteen passages—Notes on these
Questions and Literature	600

	PAGE
17 THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST	602
The Idea—The Evidence—Necessitated by the Lord's nature, and His work—Jesus predicted it—Witness of the empty tomb—Primitive belief—The Appearances—The testimony of Paul—The Christian Church is witness—The power of the Christian Message—The experience of Christians
Questions and Literature	607
18 THE APPEARANCES OF CHRIST	608
Between Passover and Pentecost—Record of the Appearances—The Number—The Witnesses—The Scenes—The Times—The Manner—The Teaching
Questions and Literature	617
19 THE ASCENSION OF CHRIST	618
References to it—Manner of it—Necessity for it
Questions and Literature	622
20 THE RETURN OF CHRIST	623
Words which set forth some sort of a Coming—Words indicative of Time—Other words which look towards a universal crisis—Christ's teaching on His Return; parabolic and plain—The Manner, Time, and Purpose of Christ's Return—Words of Thomas Chalmers
Questions and Literature	633

INDICES

INDEX I - - -	SUBJECTS - - -	635
INDEX II - - -	PERSONS - - -	639
INDEX III - - -	BIBLIOGRAPHY - - -	642
INDEX IV - - -	GREEK AND OTHER WORDS - - -	654

APPENDICES

A. MIRACLES IN LUKE'S GOSPEL	662
B. MIRACLES OMITTED BY LUKE	662
C. PARABLES IN LUKE'S GOSPEL	663
D. PARABLES OMITTED BY LUKE	664
E. DISCOURSES IN LUKE'S GOSPEL	664
F. PARABLES OMITTED BY MATTHEW	664

MAPS

						FACING PAGE
I	PALESTINE: Blank	—	—	53
II	PALESTINE: Dimensions	—	..	61
III	GALILEE	85
IV	SAMARIA	—	..	149
V	JUDÆA	—	..	213
VI	THE RIVER JORDAN	364
VII	TRANSJORDAN	..	—	—	—	508
VIII	PLAN OF JERUSALEM	..	—	—	—	580

FEATURES

ARTICLES	..	—	..	NINETY
STUDIES	—	—	..	THREE HUNDRED AND FOURTEEN
QUESTIONS	..	—	..	SEVEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-EIGHT
BOOK LISTS	..	—	—	THIRTY, and INDICES III, IV