

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Preface to the CPT Press Edition	x
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	1
Chapter 1
Reading, Interpreting, and Applying Luke–Acts	4
1. Reading Luke–Acts	5
2. Interpreting Luke–Acts	9
3. Applying Luke–Acts	19
Chapter 2
Jesus: The Prophet Mighty in Word and Deed (Luke 1–24)	28
1. Jesus: The Anointed Prophet	29
2. Jesus: The Eschatological Prophet	30
3. The Infancy Narrative: The Restoration of Prophecy	32
4. The Prophetic Ministry of Jesus	34
Chapter 3
The Disciples: A Company of Spirit-Baptized Prophets (Acts 1.12–2.41)	48
1. The Theophany of Pentecost	49
2. The Promise of Pentecost	53
3. Inaugurating the Prophethood of All Believers	60
Chapter 4
The Acts of the Community of Prophets (Acts 2.42–6.7)	66
1. The Community of Prophets Becomes a Nation	66
2. Programmatic Summary: Characteristics of the Prophetic Community (2.42–47)	70

Chapter 5

The Acts of Five Charismatic Prophets (Acts 6.8–12.24)	81
1. The Acts of Stephen: A Charismatic Deacon (6.8–7.60)	82
2. The Acts of Philip: A Charismatic Deacon (8.1–40)	87
3. The Acts of Barnabas: A Charismatic Prophet	90
4. The Acts of Agabus: A Charismatic Prophet	91
5. The Acts of Peter: A Charismatic Apostle	92
6. Parallels between Jesus and Stephen	96

Chapter 6

The Acts of Paul: A Charismatic Prophet (Acts 12.25–28.31)	98
1. Paul: A Charismatic Apostle	100
2. The Acts of Paul	101
3. Paul and Peter	105
4. Paul's Churches: Prophetic Communities	108

Chapter 7

The Prophethood of All Believers: A Synthesis	111
1. Jesus Is the Eschatological Anointed Prophet	111
2. Jesus' Followers Are the Eschatological Community of Prophets	112
3. The Community of Prophets Is Empowered for Witness	113
4. The Community of Prophets Is Extended	116
5. The Spirit of Prophecy or Soteriological Spirit?	119
6. Additional Functions and Effects of the Spirit	120
7. The Prophethood of All Believers: Contemporary Relevance	120

Bibliography	123
Index of Biblical (and other ancient) References	129
Index of Authors	136