

CONTENTS

Series Preface	xi
Author's Preface to the New Edition	xii
Author's 1968 Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xix
Abbreviations	3
Introduction to Victor Paul Furnish, Theology and Ethics in Paul , by Richard B. Hays	7
I. The Sources of Paul's Ethical Teaching	25
Introduction	25
1. The Old Testament and Judaism	28
a. The Old Testament
b. The Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha
c. Rabbinic Judaism
d. Summary and results
2. The Hellenistic World	44
a. Hellenistic terminology and style
b. Hellenistic concepts
c. Summary and results
3. The Teaching of Jesus	51
a. Paul's citations of "the Lord"
b. Other alleged "allusions" to Jesus' teaching
c. Paul and the "law of Christ"
Conclusion	65

II. The Pauline Exhortations	68
Introduction	68
1. The Use of Traditional Material	69
a. The concern to be concrete and relevant
b. The concern to be inclusive
c. The concern to be persuasive
2. The Assimilation of Traditional Material	81
a. Selection and integration
b. The vice lists
c. Lists of "virtues"
d. The Pauline context
3. The Varied Modes of Exhortation	92
4. The Problem of "Kerygma" and "Didache"	98
a. The letter to the Romans
b. "Kerygma," "didache," and "paraclesis"
III. The Themes of Paul's Preaching	112
Introduction	112
1. This Age and the Age to Come	115
a. The powers of this age
b. The "transcendent power" of God
c. Salvation and "the new creation"
d. The "first fruits" of salvation, the "guarantee" of hope
2. The Law, Sin, and Righteousness	135
a. Sin and its "reign" through the law
b. Righteousness and justification
c. The law as an instrument of God
3. The Event of Grace: Death and Resurrection	162
a. Jesus Christ as "crucified" and as "Lord"
b. Dying and rising with Christ
c. Belonging to Christ
d. Summary
4. Faith, Love, and Obedience	181
a. Faith as obedience
b. The "will of God"

c. The "law of faith"
d. Romans 6:12ff.
e. Obedience in love
f. The "household of faith"
IV. The Character of the Pauline Ethic	207
Introduction	207
1. The Theological Structure of the Ethic	208
a. Is there a "Pauline ethic"?
b. Three basic motifs of the Pauline ethic
c. Indicative and imperative in Pauline theology
2. Problems of Ethical Action	227
a. Discerning God's will
b. Doing God's will
Appendix: A Survey of Nineteenth- and Twentieth- Century Interpretations of Paul's Ethic	242
Bibliography of Major Works Cited	280
Index of Biblical References	295
Index of Subjects and Authors	297