

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	11
Introduction	13
1. Matthew: ministry in a divided church	18
The ministry of wise instruction
Matthew and his readers	18
Church and ministry in Matthew: the wide perspective	22
Ministry in Matthew: his specific contribution	25
The challenge of the scribe	32
The temptations of the scribe	35
Conclusion	36
2. Mark: ministry in an oppressed culture	38
The ministry of kingdom emissaries
The ministry of Jesus	40
The ministry of the disciples	44
Conclusion	52

3. Luke: ministry in a graceless world	54	Other teachers	142
The ministry of apostolic compassion		Conclusion	145
Jesus: the model	56
The disciples: the sent ones	64
Conclusion	69
4. John: ministry in a spiritual desert	70	8. Paul: ministry in an aging church	146
The ministry of the good shepherd		The ministry of the elder statesman
John and the church	70	The role of Paul	147
John's varied imagery	72	Paul and church leaders	149
The spiritual desert	77	Charisma versus institution	157
The good shepherd	80	Conclusion	160
Conclusion	84
5. Acts: ministry in an emerging church	86	9. Hebrews: ministry in a faltering church	162
The ministry of community formation		The ministry of a reflective practitioner
The nature of church	87	Hebrews as reflective practice	163
Who were the leaders?	89	Church and leadership in Hebrews	170
The appointment of leaders	98	Conclusion	173
The function of leaders	99
Paul's address to the elders at Ephesus (20:17-38)	103	10. James: ministry in a half-hearted church	175
Conclusion	104	The ministry of transparent wisdom
		James's pastoral approach	176
6. Paul: ministry in an infant church	107	James's pastoral context	179
The ministry of a founding father		James's theological depth	181
Approaching Paul	107	James's ecclesiastical perspective	183
Paul as church planter and pastor: common themes	109	Conclusion	184
Paul as church planter and founding father: distinctive themes	113
Community formation	122	11. 1 Peter: ministry in a despised church	185
Other leaders: a briefer comment	124	The ministry of a seasoned elder
Conclusion	125	Leadership in the church (5:1-4)	185
		Priesthood of all believers (2:4-10)	190
7. Paul: ministry in a maturing church	127	The elder's pastoral strategy	192
The ministry of an apostolic teacher		Conclusion	196
Paul's appointment as apostle and teacher	128
Paul as teacher in Romans, Ephesians and Colossians	130	12. John's letters: ministry in a compromised church	197
Paul's educational method	139	The ministry of experienced truth
		The elder	198
		The church as family	199
		Compromise and boundaries	200
		The theology of experienced truth	203
		Conclusion	206

13. Jude, 2 Peter: ministry in an endangered church	208
The ministry of pastoral polemics
Common issues	208
Jude	212
2 Peter	216
Conclusion	220
 14. Revelation: ministry in a hostile world	 222
The ministry of prophetic proclamation
The church in Revelation	223
An overview of prophecy in Revelation	225
The relationships of the prophet	227
Prophets as pastors and teachers	228
Conclusion	232
 15. Unity and diversity in New Testament ministry	 234
What are the implications for the unity of the New Testament?	235
What are the implications for the individual minister?	238
What are the implications for denominational understanding of ministry?	242
What are the implications for an ecumenical understanding of ministry?	244
Conclusion	245
 Bibliography	 247
Index of Scripture references	258
Index of names and subjects	271