

Contents

CHAPTER	PAGE
List of Tables	9
Preface	11
Introduction	13
Authorship and Date	19
1. Revelation 1: Basic Chronological Orientation	21
Six Basic Approaches	23
Critical	23
Allegorical	24
Preterit	24
Historical	27
Topical	32
Futuristic	36
2. Revelation 2-3: The Chronological Problem of the Seven Churches	50
3. Revelation 4-5: The Chronological Problem of the Throne Scene	72
4. Revelation 6-19: Are the Seals, Trumpets, and Bowls Contemporaneous or Successive?	83
Part A. Introductory Observations	83
Part B. Succession within Each Series	86
Part C. Are the Seals, Trumpets, and Bowls Successive?	94
Part D. Objections to the Succession View	108
Part E. Conclusion	123

5. Revelation 6-19: The Chronological Placing of the Insets	127
The 144,000 sealed (Rev 7:1-8)	128
The great multitude (Rev 7:9-17)	130
The angel and the little book (Rev 10:1-11)	132
The two witnesses (Rev 11:1-13)	132
The woman and the Dragon (Rev 12)	136
The Beast (Rev 13)	141
The 144,000 upon Zion (Rev 14:1-5)	144
The harvest (Rev 14:14-20)	147
The destruction of Babylon (Rev 17-18)	149
The marriage of the Lamb (Rev 19:1-10)	156
The revelation of Christ (Rev 19:11-21)	160
6. Revelation 20-22: The Chronology of the Millennium and the Eternal State	164
Conclusion	178
Selected bibliography	182

List of Tables

NUMBER	PAGE
1. Albert Barnes's Historical Interpretation of Revelation 6-19	28
2. The Seven Year Tribulation Period in the Scriptures	38
3. A Comparison Between Daniel's Fourth Beast and the Beast of the Revelation	45
4. A Comparison Between the Chronology of the Seven Year Tribulation Period and Five Chronological Specifications from the Apocalypse	46
5. Reasons for Accepting the Futuristic Approach	49
6. Philip Schaff's Outline of the Periods of Church History	57
7. The Chronological Pattern of the Unloosing of the Judgments	98
8. Thunders, Voices, Lightnings, Earthquakes, and Hail as Found in Revelation 4-19	122
9. The Chronology of the Tribulation	162