

CONTENTS

LECTURE I. — Prefatory, and Existence of God.

Theol. what? Its Divisions. Is Nat. Theol. a Science? Two Args. for God's Existence. Arg. of S. Clarke, of J. Howe, of Breckenridge. Teleological Arg. pp 5-14.

LECTURE II. — Existence of God, (continued.)

Teleological Arg. applied in instances. Ethical Arg. Consensus Populorum. Universe a Singular effect. Atheistic theory of Infin. Series. Pantheism. pp 15-26.

LECTURE III. — Evolution.

Theory stated. Tendency Atheistic. Theory not proved. Does not weaken Teleological Arg. pp. 26-38.

LECTURE IV. — Divine Attributes.

How many does Reason infer? Eternity. Unity. Spirituality. Simplicity. Immensity. Infinitude. Immutability. pp. 38-45.

LECTURE V. — Divine Attributes, (continued.)

Reason infers also Omnipotence, Omniscience, Rectitude, Goodness. Optimism. Man's Duties to God. pp. 46-54.

LECTURE VI. — Materialism.

Attempted Use of Doctrine of "Correlation of Forces." Theory of Phys. Basis of Life. Connection between Materialism and Atheism. Moral Results of the latter. pp. 55-64.

LECTURE VII. — Immortality of the Soul and Defects of Natural Religion.

Testimony of Consciousness, of Reason, of Conscience, of Nat. Theol. Natural Analogies for Pardon doubtful. Nat. Theol. Deficient for Warrant and Guarantee. Necessity of a Revelation. pp. 64-78.

LECTURE VIII. — Sources of our Thinking.

Important to Theol. Question of Innate Ideas. Primitive Ideas must be Granted. Metaphysical Skepticism. Tests of a Primary Truth. Axioms are Such. Spirituality, Identity, Reality of the Objective, Cause for every Effect are Intuitively seen. Belief not Derived from Association, or Experience. True Doctrine of Causation. The Final Cause. pp. 78-94.

LECTURE IX. — Sources of our Thinking, (continued.)

All Judgments Intuitive and Necessary, if Valid. Origin of our Moral Judgments. Selfish System of Hobbes. Utilitarian Ethics. Selfish System of Paley. Sentimental Theory of Dr. A. Smith. pp. 94-110.

LECTURE X. — Ethical Theories (concluded.)

True Theory of Moral Distinction and Obligation. Moral Judgments are Rational. The Moral Emotion. Schemes of Hutcheson, Jouffroy and Brown. Supremacy and Authority of Conscience. Essentials to Moral Responsibility. pp. 111-119.

LECTURE XI. — Free Agency and the Will.

Man's Free Agency denied by Theological Fatalists and Sensualistic Necessitarians. Freedom and Necessity defined. Theory of Indifference of the Will. Theory of Certainty, and Efficiency of Motives. Motives Defined. True Doctrine Sustained and Objections Answered. pp. 120-132.

LECTURE XII. — Responsibility and Province of Reason in Religion.

Moral Character of Dispositions and Desires. Responsibility for Beliefs. Province of Reason in Revealed Theol. Protestant System. Rationalism. Prelatic System. pp. 133-144.

LECTURE XIII. — Revealed Theology. God and His Attributes.

Names and Titles applied to God. God's Attributes, Defined, Classified. Scriptural evidences of God's Unity, Spirituality, Simplicity, Immensity, Eternity and Immutability. pp. 144-154.

LECTURE XIV. — Divine Attributes, (continued.)

Scriptural account of Knowledge and Wisdom. Meaning of His Simple, His Free, and His Mediate Knowledge. Free Knowledge of the Future Acts of Free Agents. Scriptural Evidence of His Will and Power. Omnipotent over Free Agents. Distinction between Decretive and Preceptive Will. Antecedent and Consequent Will. His Will Absolute. Is God's Will the sole source of Moral Distinctions? pp. 154-164.

LECTURE XV. — God's Moral Attributes.

Absolute and Relative, Distributive and Punitive Justice Defined and Proved from Scripture. God's goodness. Its Relations to His Love, His Grace and His Mercy. Scriptural Proofs. Truth and Faithfulness Defined and Established. God's Holiness. Defined and Proved. God's Infinitude. Proofs. pp. 165-174.

LECTURE XVI. — The Trinity.

The Terms, Trinity, Essence, Substance, Subsistence, Person; Derived and Defined. Three Tendencies of Opinion on Trinity; the Patripassian, Sabellian and Arian Schemes Stated and Refuted. Orthodox Doctrine of the Trinity Stated and Defended. Rationalistic Explanations of the Greek Scholastics, of Th. Aquinas. Proof of Trinity from Revelation. pp. 174-182.

LECTURE XVII. — Divinity of Christ.

Argued from His Pre-existence. In the Old Test. Theophanies, and Angel of the Covenant. Augustine's Difficulty answered. Divine Names, Attributes, Works and Worship given to Christ. pp. 183-193.

LECTURE XVIII. — Divinity of the Holy Ghost, and of the Son.

History of the Doctrine of Holy Ghost. The Orthodox Doctrine. Personality of the Holy Ghost, and the Divinity of the Holy Ghost argued from Scripture. Objections answered. Controversy on the Procession of Holy Ghost examined. Divinity of second and third Persons proved by offices in Redemption. pp. 193-201.

LECTURE XIX. — Personal Distinctions in the Trinity.

Son's Generation and Filiation; Orthodox, Arian, and Socinian Views of. Ante-Nicene Greek Speculations on. Eternal Generation Proved. Procession of Holy Ghost. pp. 202-211.

LECTURE XX. — Decrees of God.

His Acts Classified. Decree Proved by God's Intelligence, His Power. Different from Fate. Distinction between permissive and efficacious. Properties of the Decree; Unity, Eternity, Universality (including creatures' acts). Efficiency, Unconditionality, Freedom and Wisdom. Objections answered. pp. 211-223.

LECTURE XXI. — Predestination.

Definition. Proposition, a Definite Election of Individual Men to Salvation, Proved, from Decree, from Original Sin, from Scripture Testimonies, by Providence. Evasions Considered. Predestination Eternal, Efficacious, Unchangeable, etc. Objections. Predestination of Angels, Different from that of Man. Schemes of the Sublapsarian and Supralapsarian Examined. pp. 223-234.

LECTURE XXII. — Predestination, (concluded.)

Hypothetic Scheme Examined. Arminian Scheme Stated and Refuted. God's Decree of Preterition. Its Grounds. Proved. Predestination Consistent with Justice, with Holiness, and with Benevolence of God. Practical Effects of the Doctrine. pp. 235-246.

LECTURE XXIII. — Creation.

Terms Defined. Creation out of Nothing. The Atomic, Pantheistic and Platonic Schemes Refuted. Proofs from Scripture, from Reason; and Objections to the Eternity of the Universe and Matter. No Creature can be Enabled to Create. The Creative Week. Theories of Modern Geologists concerning the Age of the Earth. Their Grounds and modes of Reconciling them with Mosaic History. pp. 247-256.

Appendix. Geologic Theories and Chronology.

Must concern Theologian. How to be treated by him. Burden of Proof against Revealed Facts lies on the Geologist. His a posteriori Argument Circumstantial. Hence Invalid against Credible "Parole" Evidence. When pushed to extreme, Atheistic. pp. 256-263.

LECTURE XXIV. — Angels.

Existence and Personality of Angels. Their Qualities. Their First Estate, Probation and Issue thereof. Offices of the Good Angels. Personality and Headship of Satan. Powers of Bad Angels. Witchcraft. Demoniical Possessions. Temptations. Personal Christian Duties Resulting. pp. 264-275.

LECTURE XXV. — Providence.

Definitions. Theory of Epicurean, of General Providence. Of Pantheist. Concern of Providence in Phys. Causes and Laws. A Special argued from a General Providence. Doctrine Proved, from God's Perfections, Man's Moral Intuitions, Course of Nature and Human History, Dependence of Creatures; from Scriptures. Objections Answered. Relation of Providence to Rational Acts of Free Agents. God's Agency in Man's Spiritual Acts; in Man's Sins. Doctrine of an Immediate Concursus. The True Doctrine Sustained. pp. 276-291.

LECTURE XXVI. — Man's Estate of Holiness, and the Covenant of Works.

Man's Origin. Man's Person, Body and Spirit. In the "Image of God." Man's Original Righteousness. Concreated. Views of Pelagians and Socinians, and of Romanists Refuted. The True View Established. Natural Relation of Man to God's Will. Covenant of Works, Proof of its Institution and Extent to Posterity. The Condition and Seal of the Covenant. Probation Temporary. pp. 292-305.

LECTURE XXVII. — The Fall, and Original Sin.

Sin and Guilt Defined. Adam's First Sin. Effects of Sin in Adam. The Tempter. Sentence on Him. Effects of Adam's Fall on His Posterity, According to Pelagian; Lower Arminian; Wesleyan; and Calvinistic Theory. Origin of Souls. History of Opinions. Args. of Traducianists and Creationists examined. pp. 306-321.

LECTURE XXVIII. — Original Sin, (continued.)

Defined. Depravity Total. Its Existence in the Race proved, from Experience; from Scripture. Imputation of the Guilt to Posterity, Defined and Proved. pp. 321-332.

LECTURE XXIX. — Original Sin, (concluded.)

Objections to Args. for Native Depravity Considered. Objections to Imputation, from Scriptures; from Absence of consent to Adam's Representation; from its Supposed Injustice; from God's Goodness, Answered. Theories of Mediate and Immediate Imputation Examined and Correct View Sustained. Importance of the Doctrine from its Connection with other Doctrines of Redemption. pp. 332-351.

LECTURE XXX. — The Decalogue.

Definitions. Moral Distinction Intrinsic and Eternal. Of Moral Obligation. Uses of Law under the Covenant of Grace. Origin and Divisions. Rules of Interpretation. The Law Perfect. pp. 351-357.

LECTURE XXXI. — The First Table. — (1st, 2nd and 3rd Commandments.)

Scope of the 1st Commandment. Romish Idolatry. Args. against Saint, Angel and Relic Worship. Scope of 2nd Commandment. Image Worship. Excuses of Rome Examined. Scope of 3rd Commandment. Lawful Oaths and Vows. pp. 358-365.

LECTURE XXXII. — First Table. — (4th Commandment.)

Diversity in the Observance. Opinion of Papists, Lutherans, Socinians, the Anglican Church, Calvin, and the Arminians each Examined. True Doctrine, Westminster Assembly. Sabbath Command Moral and Perpetual, Proved by Decalogue, by Tradition, New Test. Arg. Anti-Sabbatarian View. The Lord's Day the Christian Sabbath. Practical Arg.. . . . pp. 366-397.

LECTURE XXXIII. — Second Table. — (5th and 6th Commandments.)

Scope of 5th Commandment. Parents represent all Superiors. Extent of the Promise. Scope of 6th Commandment. Animal Life, Capital Punishment, Defensive War, Moral Character of Dueling. pp. 398-406.

LECTURE XXXIV. — Second Table. — (7th and 8th Commandments.)

Scope of 7th Commandment. Adultery and its Punishment. Divorce. Polygamy. Limits of Consanguinity. Celibacy. Scope of 8th Commandment. Origin of Right of Private Property. Usury. Buying and Selling under the Law of Charity. pp. 406-418.

LECTURE XXXV. — Second Table. — (9th and 10th Commandments.)

Scope of 9th Commandment. Grounds of Duty of Veracity. Its practical importance. Evil Speaking. Are all Deceptions Lies? Scope of 10th Commandment, Romish Division of it. The Decalogue only from God. What does every Sin deserve? pp. 419-429.

LECTURE XXXVI. — The Covenant of Grace.

God's Remedy. Terms defined. Covenant of Redemption, Proof of. How related to the Covenant of Grace. The Original Parties to the Covenant. Motives of God to the Covenant. Conditions Pledged, by Christ; by the Father. Instrumental Condition required of Men. Faith the only condition. pp. 429-439.

LECTURE XXXVII. — Covenant of Grace, (continued.)

One in all Ages. Opinion of Socinians, of Anabaptists, of Remonstrants thereon. Two Dispensations, why? The Gospel Preached to Adam. The Development of Grace. A Mediator. Sacrificial Types. Additional Revelations to Patriarchs, Eternal Life Promised. pp. 440-452.

LECTURE XXXVIII. — Covenant of Grace, (concluded.)

Covenant of Sinai, not a Covenant of Works. True Nature of this Covenant. Difference of Old Dispensation from New. No Limbus Patrum. Old Testament Saints Redeemed at Death. pp. 452-463.

LECTURE XXXIX. — Mediator of the Covenant of Grace.

Mediator what? Why Needed in the Covenant of Grace. Jesus the Mediator of Old Testament. Hypostatic Union, Views of Gnostics, Eutychians, Nestorians and Orthodox thereon; the Ground of Efficacy of Christ's Work. Impeccability of Christ. Does Christ Mediate in both Natures? Necessity of each. Necessity of Christ's Prophetic Work, Socinian view of. . . . pp. 464-477.

LECTURE XL. — Mediator, (continued.)

Christ the Only Mediator. Arg. of Rome refuted. Angelic Mediation. Christ's Anointing. Christ's Offices Three, Why? His Prophetic Work, its Modes and Periods. pp. 477-484.

LECTURE XLI. — Mediator, (concluded.)

Christ the True Priest. Functions of the Priesthood. Its Peculiarities. Necessity of Satisfaction Proved against Socinians, etc. God's Motive Satisfying His own Justice. False Theories of Penalty Refuted. Title to Penalty Correlative to Title to Reward. pp. 485-499.

LECTURE XLII. — Nature of Christ's Sacrifice.

Redemption Foreshadowed in Providence. Intervention Costs a Penalty. Substitution Unusual among Men. Why? Terms Defined. The very Penalty. Theory of Christ's Death as held by Socinians, Theory of Moral Influence, and Theory of Governmental Influence Stated and Refuted. Christ's Proper Substitution and Vicarious Sacrifice Proved. Conditions of Efficacy of this Atonement. pp. 500-512.

LECTURE XLIII. — Nature of Christ's Sacrifice, (continued.)

Socinian and Semi-Pelagian Objections to Doctrine of Vicarious Satisfaction considered. Design of God therein and Extent of that Design. Theories of Pelagians, Wesleyans, Hypothetic Universalists (Amyrant), Calvinists. Proofs of latter and former refuted. Difficulties of the Subject. Christ's Satisfaction not Commercial. The Design and Result Co-extensive. God's Volitions from a Complex Motive. Objections Solved. pp. 513-535.

LECTURE XLIV. — Results of Christ's Sacrifice, as to God's Glory and other Worlds.

Penance and Purgatory. History of. Romish Doctrines Stated, with their Args. and Replies. pp. 536-545.

LECTURE XLV. — Christ's Humiliation and Exaltation.

Did He Descend into Hell? Calvin's View. Exaltation, Session at Father's Right-hand. Resurrection of Christ Proved. Its Importance. Christ's Priestly Intercession, its Grounds, Objects, Mode, Duration. Christ's Kingdom, the Extent of His Powers, its Duration. pp. 546-553.

LECTURE XLVI. — Effectual Calling.

Application of Redemption by Holy Ghost. Sin Necessitates the Call. Common and Effectual Calling. Designs of God in Common Call; His Sincerity therein. Scripture Arg. Objections considered. pp. 553-559.

LECTURE XLVII. — Effectual Calling, (continued.)

Agent and Instrument of Regeneration. Pelagian and Semi-Pelagian View of Regeneration. Correct View Sustained. Is the Operation of the Spirit Mediate? Dick's View. Definition of Doctrine. Argument. How Moral Opinions Arise. pp. 560-579.

LECTURE XLVIII. — Arminian Theory of Redemption.

Five Points of the Remonstrants. Wesleyan View of Original Sin. Doctrine of Common Sufficient Grace Refuted. Grace in Regeneration Invincible. The Soul Passive in its Quickening. No Salvation for the Heathen without Scripture Instrumentality. pp. 579-588.

LECTURE XLIX. — Arminian Theory of Redemption, (concluded.)

Conditional Decrees Implied in Synergism. The Result Conditioned and not the Decree. Arg. True Nature of the Will Stated, Calvinistic View Agreeable, Arminian Inconsistent thereto. Motive and Disposition Defined. Free-Agency of the Natural Will, though decisively Determined to Carnality. Inability does not supersede Responsibility. Regeneration Perfects Free-Agency. Hence Responsibility in both States. pp. 589-599.

LECTURE L. — Faith.

Kinds of Faith. Temporary and Saving, Different. Christ the Special Object of Saving Faith. Implicit or Intelligent? View of Romanists refuted, of Protestants sustained. Elements in Saving Faith. Sin of Unbelief. Historical Faith Distinguished. Faith the Fruit of Regeneration. Objections and Answers. Fides Formata of Rome, Distinction. Assurance of Faith Distinguished. The Suitable Organ of Justification. pp. 600-612.

LECTURE LI. — Union to Christ.

By what similitudes described? Its results to believers. Its instrumental and essential bond. How it resembles and differs from the union of the Father and the Son—and that of the divinity and humanity of the Son. It is not merely that of a Leader and his followers. It is not a partaking of the substance of the Godhead. Indwelling of the Holy Ghost in this union. The union indissoluble. . . . pp. 612-617.

LECTURE LII. — Justification.

Importance of correct views of the doctrine. Scripture idea of. Romish view. Justification not by inherent grace and its works. Both pardon and adoption. Both Christ's active and passive obedience is the ground of it. What is adoption? . . . pp. 618-627.

LECTURE LIII. — Justification, (continued.)

Works cannot justify. James reconciled to Paul. Christ's work was not to lower the Law. Faith not our Imputed Righteousness. But Justification only on account of Christ's merit. . . . pp. 628-640.

LECTURE LIV. — Justification, (concluded.)

Imputation. Justification an Act. How related to the Judgment Day? Faith only instrument of Justification. How related to Sanctification? To good works? Antinomian result rejected. . . . pp. 640-650.

LECTURE LV. — Repentance.

Repentance of two kinds. Legal and Evangelical Repentance. Author of True Repentance. It follows new birth. How related to Faith. Yet no Satisfaction for Guilt. Fruits meet for Repentance. . . . pp. 651-660.

LECTURE LVI. — Sanctification and Good Works.

Sanctification Defined. How related to New Birth and Justification. Agent and Means. Never Perfect in this life. Wesleyan view. . . . pp. 660-674.

LECTURE LVII. — Sanctification and Good Works, (concluded.)

Sanctification is of the whole man; and progressive. Evangelical good work what? Merit what? Congruous and Condign. None in Believer's works. Nor Natural Man's. Concilia Perfectionis rejected. Supererogation refuted. Standards of Sanctification. Value of Christ's Example therefor. . . . pp. 674-687.

LECTURE LVIII. — Perseverance of the Saints.

Differing views of. Perseverance Defined and Proved. Objections to reconciled. Tendency of the Doctrine. . . . pp. 687-698.

LECTURE LIX. — Assurance of Grace and Salvation.

Distinguished by Confession from Faith. Doctrine of Rome, and of first Reformers, touching. Not of the Essence of Saving Faith. The Grace attainable. Means: Self-examination, asserted. Objections: as, e.g., Fostering carnal security. The Witness . . . pp. 698-713.

LECTURE LX. — Prayer.

Definition and Parts. Proper Objects. Grounds of Duty. Objections to, from God's Perfections, and Stability of Natural Law. Rule of Prayer. Extent of warrant for. Secret, Social, etc. Model of. Physical Prayer. Test. . . . pp. 713-725.

LECTURE LXI. — The Sacraments.

Definition. Sacraments are Seals. Parts of Sacraments. Qualities of Elements. Sacramental Union what? Sacraments only Two: Under each Dispensation. Spurious Romish Sacraments. . . . pp. 726-736.

LECTURE LXII. — The Sacraments, (continued.)

Doctrine of Intention. Opus Operatum. Are they Necessary to Salvation? By whom Administered? The Indelible Character Rejected. . . . pp. 737-748.

Appendix.

Apostolic Succession and Sacramental Grace shown to be a Blunder. . . . pp. 748-757.

LECTURE LXIII. — Baptism.

A Permanent Ordinance. Signification of Baptismal Regeneration. Formula. John's Baptism. Baptism of Christ, for what? Mode of Baptism and Meaning of Words. . . . pp. 758-767.

LECTURE LXIV. — Baptism, (continued.)

Mode of for all Ages and Climates. Mode best Suited to Significance. Analogy of Figurative Baptisms. Mode of New Testament Cases. Ecclesiastical Results of Immersionists' Dogma. Primitive Mode. . . . pp. 768-777.

LECTURE LXV. — Subjects of Baptism.

Proper Subjects, Who? Baptism of Infants not Unreasonable. Argued from Infant Membership and Abrahamic Covenant. Argued from Unlikelihood of their Exclusion. From Great Commission. . . . pp. 777-788.

LECTURE LXVI. — Subjects of Baptism, (concluded.)

Proselyte Baptism Implies Infant Baptism. Baptism of Houses. Infants Addressed as in the Church. Historical Argument. Infant Baptism does not Corrupt Church. Relation of Baptized to Church. . . . pp. 789-799.

LECTURE LXVII. — The Lord's Supper.

Definition, Names and History. Elements and Sacramental Acts. Doctrine of Real Presence. Transubstantiation. Consubstantiation. . . . pp. 800-808.

LECTURE LXVIII. — The Lord's Supper, (concluded.)

Doctrine of Calvin as to Real Presence compared with that of Zwinglius and Westminster. Supper not a Sacrifice. Private Communions Disapproved. Laity should have the Cup. Proper Administration. Sacramental Efficiency, what? . . . pp. 809-817.

LECTURE LXIX. — Death of Believers

Why Death befalls the Justified. Souls Immortal. Benefits received by Justified at Death. Sanctification then complete. No Intermediate Place. Sleep of Souls rejected. . . . pp. 817-829.

LECTURE LXX. — The Resurrection.

Speculations on. Doctrine Defined. Qualities and Identity of Resurrection bodies. Objections dissolved. Doctrine proved from Scripture. How related to Christ's. Two Resurrections and Pre-Adventism. . . . pp. 829-841.

LECTURE LXXI. — General Judgment and Eternal Life.

Purposes of such Judgment. Proofs of Time, Place, etc. The Judge Christ. Saints Assessors. Who Judged? Rule? Sentences. Nature of Saints' Blessedness. Place of. . . . pp. 842-852.

LECTURE LXXII. — Nature and Duration of Hell-Torments.

The Punishment of Wicked, what? Speculations as to Duration. Universalism. Objections of to Scripture Doctrine. Meaning of Bible Words. Everlasting punishments proved. . . . pp. 852-862.

LECTURE LXXIII. — The Civil Magistrate.

True theory of Civil Government. Social Contract Theory. Civil and Natural Liberty, what? Equality. Objects and Limits of civil Powers. Higher Law, and Private Judgment. Passive Obedience. Right of Revolution. . . . pp. 862-872.

LECTURE LXXIV. — Religious Liberty and Church and State.

Religious Liberty and Private Judgment Established. Persecutions for opinions rejected. High Theory of Church Establishments rejected. Chalmers' Theory considered. Proper Relations of Church and State. Civil Powers over. . . . pp. 873-887.