

Contents

Introduction: Divine Revelation: Fifteen Theses	7
Thesis One: A Supernatural Initiative
1. The Awesome Disclosure of God	17
Thesis Two: For Man's Benefit
2. A Place in God's Kingdom	30
3. Not by Good Tidings Alone	38
Thesis Three: Divine Transcendence
4. The Hidden and Revealed God	47
5. Self-Transcendence and the Image of God	58
Thesis Four: Coherent Disclosure
6. The Unity of Divine Revelation	69
Thesis Five: An Amazing Variety
7. The Varieties of Divine Revelation	77
8. Divine Revelation in Nature	91
9. The Rejection of Natural Theology	104
10. The Image of God in Man	124
11. Recent Conjectural Views of Revelational Forms	143
Thesis Six: God Names Himself
12. Divine Revelation as Personal	151
13. The Names of God	167

4. God's Proper Names: Elohim, El Shaddai	184
5. God's Proper Names: Yahweh	210
6. Jesus: The Revelation of the New Testament Name	226

Thesis Seven: Historical Revelation

7. Divine Revelation in History	247
8. The Leveling of Biblical History	257
19. Faith, Tradition and History	267
20. Revelation and History: Barth, Bultmann and Cullmann	281
21. Revelation and History: Moltmann and Pannenberg	294
22. Revelation and History in Evangelical Perspective	311
Bibliography	335
Person Index	351
Scripture Index	356
Subject Index	364