

Contents

Thesis Eleven: The Bible as the Authoritative Norm
1.	The Modern Revolt against Authority . . . . .	7
2.	Divine Authority and the Prophetic-Apostolic Word . . . . .	24
3.	Modern Reductions of Biblical Authority . . . . .	41
4.	Divine Authority and Scriptural Authority . . . . .	68
5.	Is the Bible Literally True? . . . . .	103
Thesis Twelve: The Spirit as Communicator and Interpreter
6.	The Meaning of Inspiration . . . . .	129
7.	The Inerrancy of Scripture . . . . .	162
	Supplementary Note: Barth on Scriptural Errancy . . . . .	196
8.	The Meaning of Inerrancy . . . . .	201
	Supplementary Note: The Chicago Statement on Biblical Inerrancy . . . . .	211
9.	The Infallibility of the Copies . . . . .	220
10.	The Meaning of Infallibility . . . . .	243
11.	The Spirit and the Scriptures . . . . .	256
12.	The Spirit as Divine Illuminator . . . . .	272
	Supplementary Note: Calvin on the Spirit's Work of Illumina- tion . . . . .	290
13.	Are We Doomed to Hermeneutical Nihilism? . . . . .	296
14.	The Fallibility of the Exegete . . . . .	316
15.	Perspective on Problem Passages . . . . .	353
16.	The Historic Church and Inerrancy . . . . .	368
17.	The Uses and Abuses of Historical Criticism . . . . .	385
18.	The Debate over the Canon . . . . .	405
19.	The Lost Unity of the Bible . . . . .	450
	Supplementary Note: Scripture as Functional Authority . . . . .	470

20.	The Spirit and Church Proclamation . . . . .	476
	Thesis Thirteen: The Spirit, the Bestower of New Life
21.	God's Graven Image: Redeemed Mankind . . . . .	494
22.	The New Man and the New Society . . . . .	522
	Thesis Fourteen: The Church as the New Society
23.	Good News for the Oppressed . . . . .	542
24.	Marxist Exegesis of the Bible . . . . .	555
25.	The Marxist Reconstruction of Man . . . . .	578
	Thesis Fifteen: God and the End of All Ends
26.	The Awesome Silences of Eternity . . . . .	593