

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

BOOK I.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT GOD.

CHAPTER I.—GOD AS SPIRIT, - - - - - 13

God is spirit—What is spirit?—The manifestation of God in visible form—The Angel of Jehovah.

CHAPTER II.—THE UNITY OF GOD, - - - - - 18

Jehovah our God is one Jehovah—A multiplicity of persons in the one God—How can God be three and one at the same time?

CHAPTER III.—THE ETERNITY OF GOD, - - - - - 21

God is eternal; His existence has no beginning and no ending—God is unchangeable—How does the unchangeable God repent—God self-existent; not only exists from eternity, but exists from Himself.

CHAPTER IV.—THE OMNIPRESENCE OF GOD, - - - - - 23

God is everywhere—God is in some places in a sense that He is not in other places.

CHAPTER V.—THE PERSONALITY OF GOD, - - - - - 25

God is a "living God," sees, hears, knows, feels, wills, acts; is a person—Personality distinguished from corporeity—God as creator, sustainer, governor of the world—God's care for and ministry to His creatures.

CHAPTER VI.—THE OMNIPOTENCE OF GOD, - - - - - 30

God can do all things, nothing too hard for Him—Nature, men, angels, Satan, all subject to His will and word—The exercise of God's omnipotence limited by His own wise and holy and loving will.

CHAPTER VII.—THE OMNISCIENCE OF GOD, - - - - - 32

God knows all things—Knows everything in nature, in man, in human history and experience—His knowledge extends to the minutest particulars—Knows from all eternity what shall be to all eternity—Knows from the beginning what each individual man will do.

CHAPTER VIII.—THE HOLINESS OF GOD, - - - - - 36

God is absolutely holy—The meaning of holy—The holiness of God the fundamental truth of the Bible, both O. T. and N. T.—How the holiness of God is manifested—The need of atonement before a sinful man can approach a holy God—The holiness of God manifested in the punishment of the sinner—The holiness of God manifested in an infinite sacrifice to save others from sin to holiness—Practical inferences from the holiness of God: Must draw nigh to God with awe, the blackness of our sin as seen in the white light of His holiness, the wonderfulness of the love of a holy God to sinful men.

CHAPTER IX.—THE LOVE OF GOD, - - - - - 42

God is love—What does "love" mean—Whom does God love—His love to sinners and to saints compared—How the love of God is manifested.

CHAPTER X.—THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OR JUSTICE OF GOD, 48

God is righteous—What does righteous mean—The ordinary conception of the righteousness of God unbiblical—How the righteousness of God is manifested—The righteousness of God in its relation to the protection of His people more prominent in the Bible than His righteousness in relation to the punishment of sinners.

CHAPTER XI.—THE MERCY OR LOVING-KINDNESS OF GOD, 53

"Mercy" and "loving-kindness" different translations of the same word—Primary meaning of the word—God is plenteous in mercy—Toward whom the mercy of God is manifested—How the mercy of God is manifested.

CHAPTER XII.—THE FAITHFULNESS OF GOD, - - - - - 58

God is faithful—What faithful means; etymology and usage of the Hebrew and Greek words translated "faithful"—The extent of God's faithfulness—How the faithfulness of God is manifested.

BOOK II.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT JESUS CHRIST.

CHAPTER I.—THE DEITY OF JESUS CHRIST, - - - - - 68

Sixteen names clearly implying Deity used of Christ—Five or more distinctively Divine attributes ascribed to Jesus Christ—Seven distinctively Divine offices predicated of Jesus Christ—Very many statements, which in the O. T. are distinctively made of Jehovah God, taken in the N. T. to refer to Jesus Christ—The name of Jesus Christ coupled again and again with that of God the Father in a way in which it would be impossible to couple the name of any finite being with that of the Deity—Divine worship to be rendered to Jesus Christ by angels and men—The awful guilt of rejecting the Divine Christ.

CHAPTER II.—THE SUBORDINATION OF THE SON TO THE FATHER, - - - - - 85

The Father greater than Jesus Christ the Son—The Father begat Jesus Christ the Son—The Son can do nothing independently of the Father—The Son sent by and receiving all His authority from the Father—Jesus Christ shall ultimately deliver up His kingdom to the Father—God the Father, not Jesus Christ the Son, the ultimate goal—God the Father is Jesus Christ's God—Jesus Christ is, and eternally shall be, subordinated to God the Father.

CHAPTER III.—THE HUMAN NATURE OF JESUS CHRIST, 89

Human names, Son of Man, etc.—Human physical nature—Human parentage—Human limitations, physical, intellectual and moral—Subject to all the intellectual and moral limitations essential to human nature—Limitations of power—Human relation to God—Human in all things; in every respect a real man—How reconcile the Bible doctrine of the true Deity of Jesus Christ with the Bible doctrine of the real human nature of Christ.

CHAPTER IV.—THE CHARACTER OF JESUS CHRIST, - 97

Section I. The Holiness of Jesus Christ: Jesus Christ is holy, absolutely holy, the Holy One—How the holiness of Jesus Christ manifests itself—Witnesses to the holiness of Jesus Christ.

Section II. The Love of Jesus Christ to God the Father: The one thing that Jesus Christ desired the world to know about Himself was that He loved the Father—How the love of Jesus Christ to the Father manifested itself.

Section III. The Love of Jesus Christ to Men: Whom among men did Jesus Christ love—His general love and His special love—How the love of Jesus Christ to men has manifested itself, is manifesting itself, and will manifest itself "in the ages to come."

Section IV. Jesus Christ's Love for Souls: The purpose of His coming into the world—His watch for and pursuit of the lost—His joy over souls saved—His grief over lost souls that refused to be saved—His sacrifice to save souls.

Section V. The Compassion of Christ: The objects of Christ's compassion—The way in which the compassion of Christ was manifested.

Section VI. The Prayerfulness of Jesus Christ: Jesus Christ was a man of prayer—When Christ prayed—Where Christ prayed—With whom Christ prayed—In whose behalf Christ prayed—How Christ prayed—The effect of Christ's prayers.

Section VII. The Meekness and Gentleness of Jesus Christ: What is meekness—How the meekness of Christ was manifested.

Section VIII. The Humility of Jesus Christ: Ten ways in which the humility of Christ manifested itself.

CHAPTER V.—THE DEATH OF JESUS CHRIST, - - - - - 144

The importance of His death—The purpose of His death—For whom Christ died—The results of Christ's death: (1) In relation to men in general, (2) In relation to believers, (3) In relation to the Devil and his angels, (4) In relation to the material universe—The purging of the heavenly things by the atoning blood of Christ—The immense sweep of the atonement.

CHAPTER VI.—THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST, - 166

The Resurrection of Christ the Gibraltar of Christian evidences and Waterloo of Rationalism and Infidelity—The conclusive and unanswerable proof that Jesus was raised from the dead—Admissions of Strauss, Baur, Schenkel and Renan—The doctrinal importance of the Resurrection of Christ—The manner of the Resurrection—The results of the Resurrection.

CHAPTER VII.—THE ASCENSION OR EXALTATION OF JESUS CHRIST, - - - - - 187

The fact of the Ascension—The manner of the Ascension and Exaltation—The purpose of the Exaltation of Jesus Christ—The results of the Exaltation.

CHAPTER VIII.—THE COMING AGAIN OF JESUS CHRIST, 193

The fact of His coming again—Have the promises concerning Christ's coming again been fulfilled, in the coming of the Holy Spirit, the destruction of Jerusalem, the death of the individual believer, or any other event or series of events that have already come to pass—The importance of the doctrine of the coming again of Jesus Christ—The manner of Christ's coming again—Stages or steps in the coming again of Jesus Christ—The purpose of Christ's coming again—The results of Christ's coming again: (1) As regards God, (2) As regards the Church, (3) As regards Israel, (4) As regards the (Gentile) nations and unregenerate individuals, (5) As regards human society as a whole, (6) As regards the Anti-Christ and the Devil, (7) As regards the physical universe—The time of Christ's coming again—Is it pre-millennial or post-millennial—Is the world getting better?

BOOK III.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT.

CHAPTER I.—THE PERSONALITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, - 225

The importance of the doctrine—The fact of the personality of the Holy Spirit—The use of personal pronouns in speaking of the Holy Spirit—Personal qualities ascribed to the Holy Spirit—Personal offices predicated of the Holy Spirit—Personal treatment predicated of the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER II.—THE DEITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, - 230

Divine Attributes—Divine Works—Statements which refer to Jehovah in the O. T. applied to the Holy Spirit in the N. T.—The way in which the name of the Holy Spirit is coupled with that of the Father and the Son—The Divine Name applied to the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER III.—THE DISTINCTION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT FROM THE FATHER AND FROM HIS SON, JESUS CHRIST, 234

A clear distinction drawn between the Holy Spirit and the Father and the Son—The Son prays to the Father, and the Father sends a third person, the Spirit, in answer to the prayers of the Son—Is the doctrine of the Trinity in the Bible?

CHAPTER IV.—THE SUBORDINATION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT TO THE FATHER AND THE SON, - 236

Sent by the Father and the Son—Called "the Spirit of God," "the Spirit of Christ," and "the Spirit of Jesus"—Speaks not from Himself—His work to glorify Christ.

CHAPTER V.—THE NAMES OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, - 238

Significance of name "The Spirit"—"The Spirit of Jesus Christ"—"The Holy Spirit"—"The Holy Spirit of Promise"—"The Spirit of Truth"—"The Spirit of Life"—"The Spirit of Grace"—"The Spirit of Glor."—"The Eternal Spirit"—The Paraclete.

CHAPTER VI.—THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, - 245

The work of the Holy Spirit in the universe: Creation, preservation, evolution by the Spirit's power—The work of the Holy Spirit in man in general—The work of the Holy Spirit in the believer—Regeneration and the indwelling Spirit—The Holy Spirit setting the believer "free from the law of sin and death"—The Holy Spirit strengthening the believer—The witness of the Spirit—The fruit of the Spirit—Guiding into all the truth—Bringing to remembrance—Revealing "the deep things of God," and interpreting His own revelation—Imparting power to impart to others the truth taught to us—Teaching to pray—Inspiring thanksgiving—Inspiring and guiding in acceptable worship—Calling men to work—The Holy Spirit's practical guidance in daily life.

CHAPTER VII.—THE BAPTISM AND FILLING WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT, - 269

What is the Baptism with the Holy Spirit—Results of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit—The necessity of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit—For whom is the Baptism with the Holy Spirit—The refilling with the Holy Spirit—How the Baptism with the Holy Spirit may be obtained.

CHAPTER VIII.—THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN .PROPHETS AND APOSTLES, - 281

Differs from His work in other believers—Truth that could not be discovered by the unaided processes of human reasoning, revealed to prophets and apostles in the Spirit—The revelation made to prophets independent of their own thinking—The prophets spake from God—The Holy Spirit the real speaker—The Holy Spirit taught the words which prophets and apostles uttered, as well as the concept—How account for variations in diction and style.

CHAPTER IX.—THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN JESUS CHRIST, - 287

Begotten of the Holy Spirit—Lived a holy life in the power of the Spirit—Anointed for service by the Holy Spirit—Led by the Spirit—Taught by the Spirit—Wrought His miracles in the power of the Spirit—Was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit.

BOOK IV.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT MAN.

CHAPTER I.—MAN'S ORIGINAL CONDITION, - 293

Created in the image of God, after His likeness—To what does the image and likeness of God refer—Man's great intellectual capacity as he came from the hands of his Maker—Created without sin.

CHAPTER II.—THE FALL, - 296

The First Man fell—Steps in the fall—Through the one man's disobedience the many made sinners.

CHAPTER III.—THE PRESENT STANDING BEFORE GOD
AND CONDITION OF MEN OUTSIDE OF THE REDEMPTION
THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS, 298

No distinction, all sinners—Every mouth stopped—All under a curse—Children of the Devil—Darkened in understanding, deceitful in heart, the entire moral and intellectual nature corrupted by sin—Lost.

CHAPTER IV.—THE FUTURE DESTINY OF THOSE WHO REJECT THE REDEMPTION THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS, 303

Where Christ has gone they cannot come—A resurrection to judgment—Eternal destruction from the presence of the Lord—The eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels—The lake that burneth with fire and brimstone—Is the fire literal—Is the lake of fire a place of continued conscious torment, or a place of annihilation of being, or a place of non-conscious existence—Biblical usage of "death" and "destruction"—Is the condition of torment absolutely endless—Meaning of "eternal" and of "for ever and ever"—Is there another opportunity for those who never heard of Christ in this life—Objections considered—Shallow views of sin and of God's holiness and of Christ's glory and His claims, at the bottom of weak theories of the doom of the impenitent—What about our impenitent friends—How to preach the doctrine.

CHAPTER V.—JUSTIFICATION, 315

What does justify mean—How are men justified before God—The extent of justification—The time of justification—The results of justification

CHAPTER VI.—THE NEW BIRTH, 324

What is the New Birth—The results of the New Birth—The necessity of the New Birth—How men are begotten again.

CHAPTER VII.—ADOPTION, 336

What is Adoption—Etymology and usage of the word so translated—The origin and ground of Adoption—Who receive the grace of Adoption—When does Adoption occur—The proof of our Adoption—The results of Adoption.

CHAPTER VIII.—SANCTIFICATION, 340

What does Sanctification mean—Three Biblical uses of the word "sanctify"—How are men sanctified—When does Sanctification take place—The results of Sanctification.

CHAPTER IX.—REPENTANCE, 352

The importance of the subject—What is Repentance—Etymology and usage of words so translated—How Repentance is manifested—The results of Repentance—How Repentance is effected.

CHAPTER X.—FAITH, 362

Meaning of "Faith" in general—Meaning of "Faith" when used in connection with prayer—Meaning of "Faith" when used in connection with God—Meaning of "Faith" when used in connection with Jesus Christ—Saving Faith—The Character of Saving Faith, or how we must believe in order to be saved—The Contents of Saving Faith, or what we must believe in order to be saved—How Faith is manifested—The results of Faith—How to get Faith.

CHAPTER XI.—LOVE TO GOD, 384

The importance of Love to God—How Love to God is manifested—Results of Love to God under both covenants—How to get Love to God

CHAPTER XII.—LOVE TO CHRIST, 388

Its importance—How Love to Christ is manifested—Results of Love to Christ—How can we attain unto Love to Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.—LOVE TO MAN, 393

What is Love—Objects of Christian Love—Characteristics of Christian Love—How Love to man is manifested—The importance of Love to man—The blessings that result from Love to man—How Love to man is obtained.

CHAPTER XIV.—PRAYER, 408

Who can pray so that God will hear—To whom to pray—For whom to pray—When to pray—For what to pray—Prayers relating to God, to ministers of the word, spiritual blessings, temporal blessings—How to pray—Hindrances to prayer—The results of prayer.

CHAPTER XV.—THANKSGIVING, 456

The duty of giving thanks—To whom to give thanks—Who can offer up acceptable thanksgiving—For what to give thanks—When to give thanks—How to give thanks.

CHAPTER XVI.—WORSHIP, 471

What is worship—Prayer and thanksgiving not worship—Whom to worship—The duty of worship—God seeking worshippers—Saved to worship—When to worship—How to worship—Four blessed results of true worship.

CHAPTER XVII.—THE BELIEVER'S ASSURANCE, 479

The believer in Christ may know that he has eternal life—How we may know that we have eternal life—The testimony of the Word, of the Spirit, of the life itself—The testimony of the Spirit, what is it—How to obtain Assurance.

CHAPTER XVIII.—THE FUTURE DESTINY OF BELIEVERS, 485

"He that doeth the will of God abideth forever"—Never see death—Sleeping in Jesus—Absent from the body at home with the Lord—The resurrection body—A body like unto the body of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ—Characteristics of the resurrection body—Caught up to meet the Lord in the air—Ever with the Lord—Where shall we be—Rest—Beholding the glory of the Lord—Like Christ—Manifested in glory—The glory of the Lord Jesus ours also—Sharers in God's glory and kingdom—Enter "thou into the joy of thy Lord"—Three crowns—Given a kingdom—Character of the kingdom—The rewards of the overcomer—All tears wiped away, no death, mourning, crying nor pain any more—Unreprovable before God, a glorious church, not having spot nor wrinkle nor any such thing—An inheritance incorruptible, undefiled and that fadeth not away.

BOOK V.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT ANGELS.

CHAPTER I.—ANGELS: THEIR NATURE, POSITION, NUMBER AND ABODE, - - - - - 501

Their nature and position—The number of the Angels—The abode of the Angels.

CHAPTER II.—THE WORK OF ANGELS, - - - - - 506

Their work in behalf of the heirs of salvation—The law given through Angels—Their presence with the Lord Jesus at His coming—The executors of God's wrath toward the wicked.

BOOK VI.—WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT THE DEVIL, OR SATAN.

CHAPTER I.—THE DEVIL: HIS EXISTENCE, NATURE, POSITION AND CHARACTER, - - - - - 513

The Devil and demons—The existence of a personal Devil—The position and nature of Satan—The prince of the power of the air, prince of this world—Satan's power—Satan's cunning—Satan's wickedness—Satan's malignity—Satan's cowardice.

CHAPTER II.—EZEKIEL XXVIII, - - - - - 520

To whom does the passage refer—The Anti-Christ and Satan—Satan's original condition—The Garden of God—The anointed cherub that covereth—The stones of fire.

CHAPTER III.—THE ABODE AND WORK OF SATAN, - - - - - 526

Satan in heaven—Satan on earth—Satan the author of sin, sickness and death—Satan the tempter—Satan and the word of God—Satan and his messengers—Satan and the servants of God.

CHAPTER IV.—OUR DUTY TOWARDS SATAN AND HIS DESTINY, - - - - - 532

Our duty—Satan has no share in redemption—The eternal fire prepared for him and his angels—Already brought to naught—Satan during the thousand years and in eternity.