

Contents

PREFACE	xxxi
INTRODUCTION: THE NATURE AND TASK OF THEOLOGY	1
The Theological Task	1
The Historical Development of Theology	2
Developments in the Meaning of the Term	2
The Need for Theology in the Church	4
The Task of Theology and the Church	6
The Relationship of Theology to Other Concepts	8
Theology and Faith	8
Theology and Religious Studies	9
Theology and the Sciences	10
Theology and Truth	10
The Ongoing Nature of the Theological Task	12
Dangers in the Theological Enterprise	12
Substitution	13
Dogmatism	13
Intellectualism	13
Theological Method	13
The Sources for Theology	14

The Reformation Debate	14
Contextualization and Experience	14
The Threefold Norm of Theology	16
The Integrative Motif of Theology	20
Representative Alternatives	21
The Kingdom of God	22
The Community of God	23
The Eschatological Community	24
The Structure of the Theological System	24
Theology and Ethics	25

PART 1
THEOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF GOD

1. THE GOD WHO IS

THEOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF GOD	27
1. THE GOD WHO IS	29
The Reality of God in an Era of Atheism	30
In the Era of the Bible: Which God?	30
The Rivalry of the Gods	31
The Universality of God	32
In the Christian Era: Does God Exist?	32
The Ontological Argument	33
The Cosmological and Teleological Arguments	34
The Moral Argument	35
The Rise of Intellectual Atheism	36
The Critique of the First Cause	36
The Critique of the Concept of God	37
The Elimination of the Idea of God	38
Theology and the Modern Situation	38
The Assertion of the Uniqueness of Christianity	38
The Reformulation of the Proofs	39
The Appeal to Anthropology	40
Christian Faith in the Contemporary Context	41

Knowledge of God in an Era of Agnosticism	43
The Claim to Know God and Intellectual Agnosticism	43
Epistemological Agnosticism	43
Logical Positivism	44
Agnosticism and the Incomprehensible God	45
The Means to Knowledge of God	45
Knowledge of God through Reason	45
Knowledge of God through Religious Experience	47
Knowledge of God through God's Self-Revelation	48
Knowing God	49
Knowing God as Subject	49
Knowing God in History	50
Knowing God and the Concept of Community	51
2. THE TRIUNE GOD	53
Trinitarian Doctrine in Theological History	54
The Situation of the First Christians	54
The One God	54
Jesus' Lordship	55
The Spirit's Presence	55
Historical Development of Trinitarian Doctrine	56
The Deity of Jesus	56
The Deity of the Spirit	59
Formulating Trinitarian Doctrine	60
Trinitarian Doctrine in Post-Cappadocian Theology	61
Eastern and Western Conceptions	61
The Filioque Controversy	62
Decline of the Doctrine	63
Recovery of the Doctrine	64
The Formulation of Trinitarian Doctrine	65
The Content of Trinitarian Doctrine	66
God Is One	66
God Is Three	66
God Is a Diversity	66

God Is a Unity	67
The Filioque and the Relational Trinity	69
Analogies to the Trinity	71
The Theological Implication of Trinitarian Doctrine	71
Love as the Essence of God	71
Love and the Inner Dynamic of God	72
Love as the Fundamental Divine Attribute	72
Love and the Divine Holiness, Jealousy, and Wrath	72
Love and the Other Moral Attributes	74
Trinitarian Doctrine and Christian Life	74
Trinitarian Prayer	74
Trinitarian Ethics	76
3. THE RELATIONAL GOD	77
The Nature of the Relational God	78
God as (a) Being	78
God as Transcendent and Immanent	80
God as Spirit	81
Hegel's Conception of "Spirit"	82
The Biblical Conception of "Spirit"	82
Theological Implications	83
God as Person	83
The Philosophical Concept of "Person"	84
Personhood and God's Relationship to the World	84
Personhood and God	85
The Name of God	86
The Divine Attributes	88
The Attributes and the Divine Substance	88
The Medieval Debate	88
The Doxological Position	89
The Division of the Attributes	90
The Eternal God	91

Eternality and Our Experience of Time	91
Attributes Related to God's Eternality	92
The Good God	93
Holiness	93
Compassion	94
God as the Moral Standard	95
The Practical Importance of the Attributes	95
4. THE CREATOR GOD	98
God as the Creator of the World	98
The Creation of the World as the Act of God	99
The Free Act of Creation	99
The Loving Act of Creation	101
The Creation of the World as a Trinitarian Act	101
The Role of the Father	102
The Role of the Son	103
The Role of the Spirit	105
The Act of Creation and the Sovereign Creator	106
Present and Final Sovereignty	106
De Jure and De Facto Sovereignty	108
God's Future	109
The Time of Creation	109
Creation as Past	109
Creation as Future	110
Creation and Essence	111
God as the Providential Administrator of the World	112
"Community" as God's Purpose for Creation	112
The Doctrine of Providence in Recent Theology	115
The Classical Position	116
Providence in Liberal Theology	118
The Destruction of Providence	118
God's Administration of His World	119
Preservation	119

Concurrence	121
Government	122
PART 2
ANTHROPOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF HUMANITY	125
5. THE HUMAN IDENTITY AND OUR ORIGIN IN GOD	127
Our Place in Creation	128
Humankind and the Cosmos in Changing Cultural Contexts	128
The "Premodern" Answer	128
The Modern Answer	129
Christian Faith and the Insights of Anthropology	129
The Concept of "Openness to the World"	130
The Theological Significance of the Concept	131
"Openness to the World" and General Revelation	132
The Question of General Revelation in Theology	133
The Meaning of General Revelation	133
The Place of General Revelation in Theological History	134
The Theological Importance of General Revelation	137
Revelation in the Human Person	137
Revelation in Nature	138
The Limit of General Revelation	138
God as Our Origin	139
The Existential Significance	140
God as the Ground of Personal Existence	140
God as Universal Father	141
The Essential Significance	142
Our Temporal Origin	144
The Question of the "First Human"	144
The Traditional Position	144
The Mythical View	144
The Underlying Hermeneutical Question	145
The "First Human" and Evolution	146

Considerations in the Evolution Debate	146
Adam as a Historical Person	148
Anthropology and Our Temporal Origin	148
The Temporal Beginning of Humankind	149
The Temporal Beginning of Each Person	149
The Unity of Humankind	149
6. OUR NATURE AS PERSONS DESTINED FOR COMMUNITY	151
Our Ontological Nature	152
Autonomy versus Determinism	152
The Focus on Autonomy	152
The Focus on Essence	152
The Christian Perspective	154
Human Substances	155
The Idea of Substantial Entities	155
The Trichotomist and Dichotomist Viewpoints	156
Substantial Entities and Modern Theology	158
The Contemporary Wholistic Alternative	160
Death and the Whole Person	163
The Origin of the Soul	164
Traditional Alternatives	164
The Classical Debate and the Contemporary Context	166
The Soul and Our Ontological Nature	167
Humans as the Image of God	168
The Image of God in Theological History	168
The Structural View	169
The Relational View	170
The Dynamic View	172
The Image of God in the Bible	173
The Divine Image in the Genesis Creation Narratives	173
The Divine Image Elsewhere in Genesis	176
The Image of God in the New Testament	176
The Theological Significance of the Image of God	177

The Divine Image as a Special Standing	177
The Divine Image as a Special Fellowship	178
The Divine Image as an Eschatological Reality	178
The Divine Image as a Special Community	178
7. SIN: THE DESTRUCTION OF COMMUNITY	181
The Nature of Sin	182
Biblical Terms for Sin	182
Old Testament Words for Sin	182
New Testament Words for Sin	183
Sin and the Human Person	184
Sin Infects the Core of Our Being	184
Sin Perverts Goodness	185
Sin Is Universal	185
The Essence of Sin	186
Sin as Failure	186
Sin as Disruption of Community	187
Sin as Revealed in the Gospel	188
Original Sin	189
The Fall of Humankind — the Fall of Adam	190
The Garden	190
The First Sin	191
Consequences of the First Sin	192
The First Sin and the Sin of Humankind	193
Historical Suggestions	194
The Reality of the Fall	197
Original Sin and Guilt	198
The Question of Guilt in Theological History	199
The Biblical Basis for the Reformed View	202
The Reality of Original Sin	205
The Results of Sin: Our Human Situation	207
Alienation	207
Condemnation	208

Enslavement	210
Depravity	211
8. OUR SPIRITUAL CO-CREATURES	213
The Nature of the Spiritual Realities	214
Angelology in Christian Theology	214
The Middle Ages: Speculative Angelology	214
The Reformation: Biblical Angelology	215
The Enlightenment: Rejection of Angelology	216
Contemporary Theology: A Renewed Interest	217
A Biblical Theology of Angels	219
Definition	219
Angels in the Old Testament	219
Angels in the New Testament	221
A Biblical Theology of Demons	222
Definitions	222
Demons in the Old Testament	223
Demons in the New Testament	224
A Biblical Theology of Satan	225
Names Related to Satan	225
Satan in the Old Testament	225
Satan in the New Testament	226
Angelology and Structures of Existence	228
The Structures of Existence	228
The Function of the Structures	228
The Existence of Structures	230
Structures of Existence and the Bible	231
Structures and Spiritual Beings	231
Structures and the "Powers"	231
Structures and Governance	232
A Theology of the Structures	232
God's Intent for the Structures	232
The Evil Manipulation of Structures	233

Structures and Christ	235
The Demonic and Superstition	235
Superstition and the Old Testament	236
The Old Testament Opposition to Superstition	236
The Presence of Superstition in Israel	236
Superstition and Idolatry	237
The Status of the Powers Lying behind Superstition	238
The Reality of the Powers	238
The Powers as Unreal	239
A Christian Stance toward Superstition	240
PART 3
CHRISTOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF CHRIST	243
9. THE FELLOWSHIP OF JESUS THE CHRIST WITH GOD	245
Foundations: Jesus, the Divine One	246
Development of the Affirmation of Jesus' Deity	246
Christological Controversy in the Second Century	246
The Arian Controversy	248
The Basis of Christology	249
The Foundation of Our Christological Affirmation	251
Jesus' Sinlessness	252
Jesus' Teaching	253
Jesus' Death	253
Jesus' Claim	254
Jesus' Resurrection	256
Jesus' Claim and His Resurrection	260
The Historical Foundation and Faith	260
Implications: Jesus as One with God	262
Jesus' Unity with God	262
Function versus Ontology	262
Jesus as the Revealer of God	264

Jesus' Fellowship with the Father	266
Jesus' Compassion	266
Jesus' Special Fellowship with God	267
270
Jesus' Lordship	270
The Cosmic Lord	270
Our Personal Lord	270
The Lord of History	271
10. THE FELLOWSHIP OF JESUS THE CHRIST WITH HUMANKIND	272
Jesus as a Human	273
Development of the Affirmation of Jesus' Humanity	273
Apollinarianism	274
The Council of Constantinople	275
Jesus as Sharing in True Humanness	275
Jesus and the Conditions of Human Existence	275
Jesus and Human Growth	278
Implications of Jesus' Humanness	278
279
Jesus as the True Human	279
The Foundation for Affirming Jesus as the True Human	279
The Foundation in Jesus' Earthly Life	279
The Foundational Importance of the Resurrection	281
Jesus' Claim to Uniqueness	281
The Content of Our Affirming Jesus as the True Human	282
Jesus and the Resurrection	282
Jesus and Community	283
Jesus and the Upward Fall	284
285
Jesus as the New Human	285
286
Jesus as the Universal Human	286
Jesus and the Marginalized	286
288
Jesus and Women	288
292
Jesus and the Individual	292

11. THE FELLOWSHIP OF DEITY AND HUMANITY IN JESUS	294
Jesus as Divine and Human	295
The Historical Debate concerning Jesus' Person	295
The Nestorian Controversy	296
The Eutychian Controversy	297
Christology after Chalcedon	297
The Reformation Debate	298
The Foundation for Affirming the Unity	299
Jesus as the Word	300
Jesus as the Son	302
The Relationship between Deity and Humanity in Jesus	303
Jesus and Revelation	303
Jesus and Community	305
The Incarnation	305
The Incarnation in Theological History	306
The Kenosis Theory	306
Modifications to the Kenosis Theory	307
The Incarnation as the Paradox of Grace	307
The Critique of Incarnational Christology	308
Criticisms of the Traditional Understanding	309
Significance of the Incarnation	309
Jesus' Preexistence	311
The Problem of Preexistence	311
The Meaning of Preexistence	312
Jesus and Preexistence	313
The Virgin Birth	314
The Historical Context of the Modern Debate	315
Affirmations of the Virgin Birth	315
Reinterpretations of the Virgin Birth	316
Current Debate about the Virgin Birth	317
Protestants and the Virgin Birth	317
Roman Catholics and the Virgin Birth	318

Points of Debate concerning the Virgin Birth	319
Theological Arguments	320
Historical Arguments	322
Textual Arguments	323
The Virgin Birth and Christology	324
12. THE MISSION OF JESUS	326
The Vocation of the Earthly Jesus	327
Fulfilling the Old Testament Hope	328
Jesus as the Prophet	328
Jesus as the Messiah	329
Heralding the Divine Reign	333
The Centrality of the Kingdom	333
Jesus as the Son of Man	333
The One Sent to Die	335
Jesus' Consciousness of His Death	336
Jesus as the Suffering Servant	336
Jesus' Self-Consciousness	338
The Atonement and the Mission of Jesus	339
The Atonement in Theological History	340
Dynamic Imagery	340
Objective Imagery	342
Subjective Imagery	343
Modifications to Anselm's Theory	344
The Significance of Jesus' Death in the New Testament	345
Jesus' Death as Our Example	345
Jesus' Death as Our Ransom	345
Jesus' Death as Our Expiation	346
Jesus Is Our Reconciliation	347
Jesus' Death and Us	348
The Atonement and the Human Predicament	349
Our Reception of Christ's Atonement	349
The Atonement and Community	350

Christ's Substitution	352
The Ongoing Work of Christ	354
The Exaltation	354
Jesus' Present and Future Ministry	354
Jesus' Present Ministry	354
Jesus' Ongoing Ministry	355
Implication of Jesus' Ongoing Ministry for Prayer	355

PART 4PNEUMATOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT 357*13. THE IDENTITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT 359

The Spirit in Salvation History	360
The Holy Spirit and the Old Testament Era	361
The Spirit of God in the Old Testament	361
Functions of the Spirit of God in the Old Testament	362
Eschatological Direction of Old Testament Pneumatology	364
The Holy Spirit and the Christ	365
Jesus — the Bearer of the Spirit	365
Jesus' Promise concerning the Coming Spirit	366
Pentecost — the Fulfillment of Jesus' Promise	367
The Spirit and the Community of Christ	370
The Significance of Pentecost	370
The Holy Spirit and the Risen Lord	371
The Spirit in the Trinitarian Life	372
The Foundation of Pneumatology in the Immanent Trinity	373
The Basic Identity of the Spirit	373
The Deity and Personhood of the Spirit	374
The Holy Spirit and the Economic Trinity	375
A Basic Understanding	375
Aspects of the Spirit's Identity as the Power of God	376
His Identity as the Eschatological Creator Spirit	376

14. THE SPIRIT AND THE SCRIPTURES	379
The Spirit as the Foundation of Scripture	380
Inspiration and Illumination	380
The Concept of Inspiration	381
The Concept of Illumination	382
The One Act of the Spirit	383
Functional and Canonical Approaches	383
The Development of Scripture in the Community	386
The Risk of Subjectivism	387
The Task of the Spirit Speaking through Scripture	388
Scripture as the Source of Spiritual Sustenance	388
The Constitutional Role of Scripture	389
The Bible and Revelation	392
The Concept of Revelation	392
Barth's Proposal	392
Revelation in the Bible	393
Revelation and Scripture	394
The Bible as Revelation	396
The Bible as Derivative Revelation	396
The Bible as Functional Revelation	396
The Bible as Mediate Revelation	397
Biblical Authority	397
The Trustworthiness of Scripture	397
Verbal, Plenary Inspiration	398
An Infallible, Inerrant Bible	398
Biblical Authority and the Authority of the Spirit	402
The Extent of Biblical Authority	403
Our Sole Authority	403
Our Authority in All of Life	403
15. THE DYNAMIC OF CONVERSION	405
The Individual Aspect of Conversion	406
Repentance	406

Faith	408
Our Response: Repentance and Faith	409
The Divine Aspect of Conversion	411
The Spirit's Activity in the Conversion Process	411
Conviction	412
Call	413
Illumination	414
Enablement	414
Conversion and the Baptism of the Spirit	415
Modern Pentecostalism	415
Pentecostal View of Spirit Baptism and Tongues	418
An Evaluation of the Pentecostal Position	419
Spirit Baptism, Conversion, and Spirit Filling	422
The Community Aspect of Conversion	423
The Role of the Community in Conversion	423
Proclamation of the Gospel	423
Incorporation into a New Community	424
Conversion and Church Initiation Rites	427
Historical and Contemporary Positions	427
The New Testament Teaching	428
Conversion as Faith Expressed through Baptism	429
16. INDIVIDUAL SALVATION: THE WIDER PERSPECTIVE	432
The Process of Salvation	433
Conversion	433
Conversion and the Human Predicament	433
Conversion and the Establishment of Community	438
Sanctification	440
The Concept of Sanctification in the Bible	440
The Theological Concept of Sanctification	442
The Sanctification Process	443
Perfectionism	444
Glorification	446

The Eternal Context of Salvation	447
Divine Election	448
The Controversy over the Five Points of Calvinism	448
The Decrees of God	451
Election to Community	452
The Ordo Salutis	455
Historical Perspective	455
Representative Positions	456
The Order of Salvation and the Future Community	458
PART 5
ECCLESIOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH	461
17. THE CHURCH — THE ESCHATOLOGICAL COVENANT COMMUNITY	463
The Church as a Covenant People	464
Ekklesia	464
The Nation, the Body, and the Temple	465
The Nation of God	466
The Body of Christ	466
The Temple of the Spirit	467
The Church as Mystical, Universal, and Local	467
The Marks of the Church	468
The Classical Alternatives	468
Biblical Consideration	470
Balanced Congregationalism	471
The Church as the Sign of the Kingdom	472
The Biblical Conception of the Kingdom	472
Old Testament Teaching about the Kingdom	472
The Kingdom and Jesus	473
The Biblical Drama of the Kingdom	475
The Kingdom and the Church	477
Church and Kingdom in Christian Thought	477

The Church in the Kingdom	478
Ecclesiological Implications	478
The Church as Community	479
The Basis in the Covenant and the Kingdom	480
The Community of the Covenant	480
Community and the Divine Purpose	481
Community and the Divine Nature	482
The Church as the Image of God	483
The Church and the Spirit	483
18. THE MINISTRY OF THE COMMUNITY	486
The Purpose of the Church	486
The Church in God's Purposes	487
The Church and the Purpose of Creation	487
The Church and the Glory of God	488
God's Purpose in Glorification	488
The Mandate of the Church	490
Worship	490
The Focus of Worship	491
The Means of Worship	492
Edification	496
Aspects of Edification	496
The Church as a Praying People	497
The Church as Community to Its Believers	498
Outreach	502
Outreach as Evangelism	502
Outreach as Service	505
19. COMMUNITY ACTS OF COMMITMENT	511
Acts of Commitment and the Church	512
The Function of Acts of Commitment	512
Sacrament or Ordinance	512
The Meaning of "Ordinances"	515
Commitment Acts and Community	517

The Number of Commitment Acts	518
The Historical Question	518
Two Acts of Commitment	519
Baptism: The Seal of Our Identity	520
Background and History	520
The Meaning of Baptism	521
The Symbolic Significance of Baptism	521
The Eschatological Orientation of Baptism	522
Baptism and the Community	523
The Impact of Baptism	523
The Working of Baptism	524
Baptism as a Divine Act	524
Baptism as a Human Act	526
Baptism as a Divine-Human Act	526
The Subjects of Baptism	527
Baptism and Faith	527
Infant versus Believer's Baptism	528
The Mode of Baptism	530
The Lord's Supper: Reaffirming Our Identity	531
The Presence of the Lord in the Celebration	532
The Development of Transubstantiation	532
The Protestant Reaction	533
The Meaning of the Lord's Supper	536
The Question of Terminology	536
The Orientation to the Past	536
The Orientation to the Future	537
The Orientation to Community	538
Our Presence at the Lord's Supper	539
The Importance of Our Presence	540
The Presence of Others at the Table	540

20. THE ORGANIZATION FOR COMMUNITY LIFE	542
Membership in the Community	543
Community Membership in the First Century	543
Baptism and Community Membership	544
The Legacy of the Reformation	544
The Pure Church Ideal	545
Initiation into the Community	546
Baptism after the First Century	547
Sectarianism versus Denominationalism	547
Beyond Denominationalism	548
Community Structures	549
The Government of the Community	549
Models of Government	549
New Testament Considerations	551
Balancing Autonomy with the Associational Impulse	552
Government within the Communities	553
The Congregationalist Dilemma	553
The Foundation of Democratic Congregationalism	554
The Democratic Congregational Ideal in Practice	556
Leadership for the Community	557
Offices in the Communities	557
Church Offices in the New Testament	558
Church Offices in the Ecclesiastical Tradition	560
New Testament Offices and Today's Church	560
Offices of the Community	561
The New Testament Background	562
The Pastoral Office	562
Ordination by the Community	563
The Basis for the Practice of Pastoral Ordination	564
The Biblical Foundation for Ordination	564
The Theological Foundation for Ordination	565
The Significance of Ordination	567
The Meaning of the Act	567

The Ordaining Body	568
The Ordaining Event	569
PART 6
ESCHATOLOGY: THE DOCTRINE OF LAST THINGS	571
21. THE CONSUMMATION OF PERSONAL EXISTENCE	573
The Significance of Death	574
The Problem of Death	574
The Problem of Definition	574
Death and the Meaning of Life	575
The Biblical Trajectory	576
The Old Testament: Death as Ambiguous	576
The New Testament: Hope in the Face of Death	578
The Theological Significance of Death	580
Death and the Biological Realm	580
Death as Loss of Community	580
Death's Loss of Ultimacy	582
Overcoming Death in the Resurrection	583
The Nature of Culminated Personal Life	583
Contemporary Visions of the Culmination of Life	583
The Christian Hope	586
The Possibility of the Resurrection	587
Hope in the Face of Death	589
Competing Visions of Life after Death	589
Death as the Entrance into Eternity	589
Soul Sleep	590
Conscious Existence of the Soul	591
Biblical Insight into the Intermediate State	592
The Old Testament Concept of Sheol	592
The New Testament Basis for an Intermediate State	593
The Biblical Conception of Life beyond Death	595
The Situation of the Righteous beyond Death	596

The Foundation: Hope for Resurrection	596
The Realm beyond Death	597
22. THE CONSUMMATION OF HISTORY	599
The Meaning of History	600
Christian Hope in a Changed Context	600
From Optimism to Pessimism	601
The Challenge of a Pessimistic World	603
Corporate Eschatology and the Biblical Message	603
The Prophetic Vision	603
The Apocalyptic Vision	605
The Significance of History	606
The Basic Characteristics of History	606
History as God at Work Establishing Community	608
The Presence of Community in and beyond History	609
History's Goal as "Already"	609
History's Goal as "Not Yet"	611
The End as Grace	611
The End as Judgment	611
The Climax of History	612
Apocalyptic and Millenarianism	612
The Millennium in Christian Theology	613
Postmillennialism	614
Amillennialism	615
Premillennialism	615
The Deeper Issue of Millennialism	617
Postmillennial Optimism	617
Premillennial Pessimism	618
Amillennial Realism	619
Our Ultimate Hope	619
The Era of the Imminent End of History	620
The Biblical Understanding of Our Age	620
The Eschatological Timetable	621

23. THE CONSUMMATION OF GOD'S COSMIC PROGRAM	623
The Transition from Creation to New Creation	624
The Judgment of the Cosmos	624
The Certainty of Cosmic Judgment	624
The Purpose of Cosmic Judgment	625
The Judgment of Humankind	626
The Certainty of Our Judgment	626
The Time of Our Judgment	628
The Basis for Judgment	629
Our Presence at the Judgment	630
The Nature of the Judgment	631
Eternal Rewards	632
The Dark Side of the Judgment	634
Universalism	634
The Place of Universalism in the Church	634
The Foundation of Universalism	635
Difficulties with Universalism	637
Conditional Immortality	638
Its Presence in the Church	638
The Foundation of Annihilationism	638
Difficulties with Annihilationism	639
The Reality of Hell	641
The Foundation of the Doctrine	641
Hell: The Eternal Tragedy	642
The New Creation	644
The New Creation as the Renewal of the Cosmos	645
Renewal as the Completion of Creation	645
The Relationship of the New to the Old	645
The Implication of Cosmic Renewal	646
The New Creation as Fullness of Community	646
A Place Where God Is Present	647
A Place of Fellowship	647
A Place of Glorification	648

24. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ESCHATOLOGY	650
Eschatology as Insight into the Present	651
Eschatology as God's Call in the Present	652
The Foundation for God's Eschatological Call	652
The Biblical Precedence	653
The Implications for Theology	653
Aspects of God's Eschatological Call	653
A Call to Evangelism	654
A Call to Holiness	654
A Call to Steadfastness	655
Eschatology as Insight for Living	655
Eschatological Living as Hopeful Involvement	656
Eschatological Living as Realistic Engagement	657
Our Actions as Effective	657
Our Actions as Penultimate	657
Eschatological Living in the Light of the Eternal	658

INDEXES

Subject Index	661
Name Index	671
Scripture Index	679