

Contents

Abbreviations	ix
Preface	xii
Introduction: A Hospitable and Inviting Methodological Vision	1
Constructive Theology as a Dialogue and “Conversation”	1
PART I: TRIUNE REVELATION	7
1. On the Conditions of the Doctrine of Revelation	9
Is There a Revelation in Christian Religion?	9
The Doctrine of Revelation on Both Sides of Modernity	12
The Widening Horizon of the Discourse on Revelation and Scripture in a Pluralistic World	14
2. Triune Revelation	18
Loving Father and the Cruciform Revelation	19
Incarnated Son and Embodied Revelation	22
Life-Giving Spirit and Living Revelation	26
3. Revelation as Historical-Eschatological Word of Promise	30
Theology of History	30
Revelation in History	32

Revelation as History and as Word	37
An Eschatological-Historical Promise	39
4. Liberating Word	44
"The Biblical Texts as Furthering Life"	44
Inclusive Word	45
Revelation as Liberation	48
The Liberating Power of Translation	54
"Reading the Bible in Spanish"	58
5. God's Word in Human Words	61
Inspiration of Scripture: Divine-Human Dynamic	61
Scripture as the Word of God and Human Testimony	66
A Truthful Encounter	70
The Revelatory Power of Metaphors and Symbols	74
The Category of Myth and Mysticism	79
6. Scripture, Community, and Tradition	83
Which Use of the Bible? Whose "Authorship"?	83
Scripture as the Ultimate Norm of Theology	89
Scripture and Church	95
Living Tradition and "Closed Canon"	101
Tradition, Identity, and Context	104
7. Natural Theology as Christian Theology	108
Natural Knowledge of God Is "Natural"	108
How Natural Theology Became "Unnatural"	110
Natural Theology as Trinitarian Christian Theology	115
Wisdom as Revelation	120
8. Revelation and Scripture among Religions	123
The Challenge and Complexity of Interfaith
Engagement of Scriptures	123
Hindu Scriptures and Authority in a Christian Perspective	129
Is There Revelation in Buddhist Traditions?	145
The Qur'an and the Bible	160
The First and the Second Testaments	169

Common Scripture Reading as a Form of Interfaith Theologizing	175
--	-----

PART II: TRIUNE GOD

	179
9. On the Conditions and Contours of God-Talk	181
The Doctrine of God in a New Environment	181
God in a Secular Age	182
Objections against God-Talk	186
The Atheistic Rebuttals of Faith in God	194
The Re-turn of Metaphysics	206
The "Traces" of God in the Created Reality	215
10. "Classical Panentheism"	226
For Orientation: Classical Theism, Panentheism, or "Classical Panentheism"?	226
Classical Theism: A Generous Assessment	228
Panentheism: A Seasoned Embrace	232
Contemporary Resources for a Reconceived Doctrine of God	244
11. One God as Communion of Persons	250
The Role of the Trinity in Christian Theology and Doctrine of God	250
One God as Father, Son, and Spirit	258
The Unity of the Tripersonal God	267
God and World: Economic and Immanent Trinity	271
Do the Christian East and West Confess the Same Trinitarian Faith?	277
12. The Relational God and the Divine Attributes	283
How to Speak of God's Attributes — or Whether to Speak of Them	283
God as Spirit and "Person"	290
Eternal God	294
The God of Love	303
13. Divine Hospitality	310
God the Giver and Gift	310

	Hospitality as Inclusion	312
	God as Communion: A Theological Account of Equality, Justice, and Fairness,
	Hospitality and Violence	320
	Hospitality as Advocacy	324
	Hospitality and Human Flourishing	331
		335
14.	The Failing Promises of Theo-Logical Pluralisms	340
	For Orientation: Various “Turns” in the Christian Theology of Religion	340
	The “First Generation” Pluralisms	341
	The “Turn” to Trinitarian Ways of Constructing Pluralistic Theologies	347
	Trinity and Religious Pluralism: Some “Trinitarian” Rules	356
15.	The Triune God among Religions	363
	For Orientation: A Dialogical and Confessional Pursuit of God	363
	Allah and the Father of Jesus Christ	365
	Brahman and the Trinitarian God	386
	Sunyata and Personal God	405
	Epilogue	418
	Bibliography	421
	Index of Authors	464
	Index of Subjects	468