

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	7
Foreword	9
I. The Problem	11
II. The Return to Jesus from the Primitive Church	23
1. The Translation of the Parables into Greek	25
2. Representational Changes	26
3. Embellishment	27
4. Influence of the Old Testament and of Folk-Story Themes	31
5. The Change of Audience	33
6. The Hortatory Use of the Parables by the Church	42
7. The Influence of the Church's Situation	48
a. The Delay of the Parousia	48
b. The Missionary Church	63
c. Regulations for the Leadership of the Church	66
8. Allegorization	66
9. Collection and Conflation of Parables	90
a. Double Parables	90
b. Collections of Parables	92
c. Fusion of Parables	94
10. The Setting	96
a. Secondary Context	96
b. Situations and Transitions Created by the Redactor	97
c. Introductory Formulae	100
d. The Conclusion of the Parables	103
III. The Message of the Parables of Jesus	115
1. Now is the Day of Salvation	115
2. God's Mercy for Sinners	124
3. The Great Assurance	146
4. The Imminence of Catastrophe	160
5. It May Be Too Late	169
6. The Challenge of the Hour	180

7. Realized Discipleship	198
8. The Via Dolorosa and Exaltation of the Son of Man	219
9. The Consummation	221
10. Parabolic Actions	227
IV. Conclusion	230
Index of Authors	231
Index of Biblical and Apocryphal Passages	235
Index of Synoptic Parables	247