

CONTENTS

Introduction: a Christian world?

GEOFFREY BARRACLOUGH

PAGE 17

The Ancient World

PAGE 31

1. Christianity in the Roman Empire

WILLIAM H. C. FREND

Professor of Ecclesiastical History, University of Glasgow

PAGE 45

2. The rise of Christian art

JOACHIM GAEHDE

Sidney and Ellen Wien Professor of History of Art, Brandeis University

PAGE 61

A Conquering Mission

PAGE 75

3. The conversion of the barbarian peoples

IAN N. WOOD

Lecturer in Medieval History, University of Leeds

PAGE 85

The Eastern Church

PAGE 99

4. The Greek church and the peoples of eastern Europe

STEVEN RUNCIMAN

Fellow of the British Academy

PAGE 109

The Age of Faith

PAGE 123

5. Medieval Christendom

COLIN MORRIS

Professor of Medieval History, Southampton University, and Fellow of Pembroke College, Oxford

PAGE 133

The Religion of the People

PAGE 147

6. Popular religious movements in the Middle Ages

MARGARET ASTON

Sometime Research Fellow of Newnham College, Cambridge

PAGE 157

Christianity at the Crossroads

PAGE 171

7. The age of the Reformation

HANS HILLERBRAND

*Professor of History, The City University,
New York*

PAGE 185

8. The social impact of Puritanism

J. WILLIAM T. YOUNGS

Professor of History, Eastern Washington University

PAGE 201

Counter-Reformation Europe

PAGE 215

9 · Religion in the age of the Baroque

JUDITH HOOK

Senior Lecturer in History, University of Aberdeen

PAGE 225

The Crisis of the Nineteenth Century

PAGE 239

10 · Christianity and industrial society

OWEN CHADWICK

Regius Professor of Modern History, University of Cambridge

PAGE 249

The American Experience

PAGE 263

11 · Religion at the grass-roots

PAUL A. CARTER

Professor of History, University of Arizona

PAGE 273

Modernity and Change

PAGE 287

12 · Christianity in the contemporary world

ADRIAN CUNNINGHAM

Lecturer in Religious Studies, University of Lancaster

PAGE 297

Select bibliography

PAGE 313

Sources of illustrations

PAGE 318

Index

PAGE 321

IN PRINCIPIO ERAT VERBUM . . .

'In the beginning was the Word'. The opening of the Gospel according to St John. Adapted from the Codex Aureus or Golden Gospel of Echternach, 10th century.