

CONTENTS

I.	Introduction: The Significance of the Western Development	11
II.	The Religious Origins of Western Culture: The Church and the Barbarians	26
III.	The Monks of the West and the Formation of the Western Tradition	44
IV.	The Barbarians and the Christian Kingdom	67
V.	The Second Dark Age and the Conversion of the North	84
VI.	The Byzantine Tradition and the Conversion of Eastern Europe	101
VII.	The Reform of the Church in the Eleventh Century and the Medieval Papacy	120
VIII.	The Feudal World: Chivalry and the Courtly Culture	140
IX.	The Medieval City: Commune and Guild	161
X.	The Medieval City: School and University	181
XI.	The Religious Crisis of Medieval Culture: The Thirteenth Century	199
XII.	Conclusion: Medieval Religion and Popular Culture	218
	Appendix: Notes on Famous Medieval Art	225
	Index	231