

Table of Contents

Foreword: David Flusser	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii

PART I:

The Historical Development and the Theological Significance of Parables in Judaism and Christianity

1. Introduction: Gospel and Rabbinic Parables	3
---	---

PART II:

Jewish Prayer and the Parables of Jesus

2. The Contemptible Friend and the Corrupt Judge	41
--	----

PART III:

Parables of Grace in the Gospels and Their Theological Foundations in Ancient Judaism

3. The Fair Employer: Jewish Grace in Jesus' Parables	69
4. The Talents: God's Gracious Gifts	82

PART IV:

Teaching in Parables: The Theology of Reconciliation between God and Humanity in Both Judaism and Christianity

5. The Samaritan: Love Your Enemies	101
6. The Merciful Lord and His Unforgiving Servant	119
7. The Father of Two Lost Sons	130
8. The Two Debtors	158

PART V:

The Disciple's Call: A Life of Learning and Doing

9. The Urgent Invitation	171
10. The Search	187
11. The Find	199
12. The Decision	222
13. The Unjust Steward	232

PART VI:

Torah Learning and God's Reign

14. Four Types of Hearers	251
15. Death and Eschatology: A Theology of Imminence	277
Epilogue	297
Bibliography	299
Index of Parables and Illustrations	319
Index of Names and Subjects	322
Index of Ancient Sources	327