

Contents

Preface	vii
1. Postmodernity	1
The Nature of Change / 1
The Premodern and Modern Ages / 2
The Postmodern Experiment / 5
Characteristics of Postmodernity / 6
2. Parables: A Window of Truth for Postmoderns	9
Definition of Parable / 9
Relationship of Jesus' Parables to the Hebrew Tradition / 11
The Purpose of the Parable / 14
Characteristics of the Parables of Jesus / 15
Interpreting the Parables for Preaching / 18
Steps in Developing the Homiletical Text / 22
Preaching Parables to a Postmodern Age / 25
3. A Study of Parables for Sermon Preparation	31
Parable One: The Sower (Matthew 13:1-23) / 34
Parable Two: The Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:21-35) / 44
Parable Three: Laborers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16) / 54
Parable Four: Talents (Matthew 25:14-30) / 66
Parable Five: The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37) / 75
Parable Six: The Friend at Midnight (Luke 11:1-13) / 88
Parable Seven: The Rich Fool (Luke 12:13-34) / 98
Parable Eight: The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:1-32) / 108
Parable Nine: The Persistent Widow (Luke 18:1-8) / 121
Parable Ten: The Pharisee and the Tax Collector (Luke 18:9-14) / 133
Conclusion / 146

4. Four Sermons	149
Sermon One: The Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:21-35) /	149
Sermon Two: Talents (Matthew 25:14-30) /	158
Sermon Three: The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37) /	167
Sermon Four: The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32) /	177
 Notes	 187
Bibliography	191
Index	197