

Contents

Foreword

Introduction

Prologue: Colson Gets 1- to 3-Year Term	15
1 Who Speaks for God?	20
2 A President and a Nun	23
3 A Movement, Not a Monument	27
4 On Christianity and Magic Wands	30
5 In Search of Self	34
6 The Problem of Power	38
7 Vigilante Violence: Looking for Heroes & Villains	42
8 Watergate Revisited	46
9 A Church in Need of Healing	50
10 Is There Evidence of the Resurrection?	54
11 Crown Him Lord of All	58
12 God Isn't Dead, Just Sick and Feeble	62
13 A Case of Moral AIDS	66
14 "The Church Should Mind Its Own Business"	69
15 The Locked Door	72

16	The Stink of Sin	76
17	Apathy and “Capital Punishment”	80
18	“But, Lord...”	84
19	The Contest for Men’s Hearts and Minds	87
20	The Contest for Men’s Hearts and Minds—Part II		91
21	The Contest for Men’s Hearts and Minds—Part III		94
22	Law and Order and Romans 7	98
23	Human Life: Dignity or Dust?	102
24	Struggling for Men’s Hearts	106
25	Charity and Freedom	110
26	Moslem Justice in South Carolina	113
27	“Soft” On Crime?	117
28	“Forgive Us Our Sins...”	121
29	As We Forgive Others	124
30	Crown Him Lord of Prime Time	128
31	The Trivialization of Sin	132
32	The Terrifying Truth: We Are Normal	136
33	Into the Looking Glass	140
34	In Search of the Evil Empire	143
35	“The Punishment Of Sin...”	146
36	Can Revival Save America?	150
37	Can Revival Save America? Part II	153
38	Can Revival Save America? Part III	156
39	A Tale of Two Cities	159
40	Religion and Politics: The Hidden Peril	163
41	Christ or Culture? Lessons From Abroad	166
42	Beware of “Politics As Usual”	170
43	The Political Illusion	173
44	Reflections on a Conversion	177
45	Preaching and Caring	182
46	Called to Faithfulness	186
	Index	189	