

CONTENTS

PREFACE	ix
INTRODUCTION	xi

PART ONE: BACKGROUND

I. METHOD	3
1. A Preliminary Notion	4
2. The Basic Pattern of Operations	6
3. Transcendental Method	13
4. The Functions of Transcendental Method	20
2. THE HUMAN GOOD	27
1. Skills	27
2. Feelings	30
3. The Notion of Value	34
4. Judgments of Value	36
5. Beliefs	41
6. The Structure of the Human Good	47
7. Progress and Decline	52
3. MEANING	57
1. Intersubjectivity	57
2. Intersubjective Meaning	59
3. Art	61
4. Symbols	64
5. Linguistic Meaning	70
6. Incarnate Meaning	73
7. Elements of Meaning	73
8. Functions of Meaning	76

CONTENTS

9. Realms of Meaning	81
10. Stages of Meaning	85
4. RELIGION	101
1. The Question of God	101
2. Self-Transcendence	104
3. Religious Experience	105
4. Expressions of Religious Experience	108
5. Religious Development Dialectical	110
6. The Word	112
7. Faith	115
8. Religious Belief	118
9. A Technical Note	120
5. FUNCTIONAL SPECIALTIES	125
1. Three Types of Specialization	125
2. An Eightfold Division	127
3. Grounds of the Division	133
4. The Need for Division	136
5. A Dynamic Unity	138
6. Conclusion	144
PART TWO: FOREGROUND
6. RESEARCH	149
7. INTERPRETATION	153
1. Basic Exegetical Operations	155
2. Understanding the Object	156
3. Understanding the Words	158
4. Understanding the Author	160
5. Understanding Oneself	161
6. Judging the Correctness of One's Interpretation	162
7. A Clarification	165
8. Stating the Meaning of the Text	167

CONTENTS

8. HISTORY	175
1. Nature and History	175
2. Historical Experience and Historical Knowledge	181
3. Critical History	185
9. HISTORY AND HISTORIANS	197
1. Three Handbooks	198
2. Data and Facts	201
3. Three Historians	203
4. Verstehen	208
5. Perspectivism	214
6. Horizons	220
7. Heuristic Structures	224
8. Science and Scholarship	233
10. DIALECTIC	235
1. Horizons	235
2. Conversions and Breakdowns	237
3. Dialectic: The Issue	245
4. Dialectic: The Problem	247
5. Dialectic: The Structure	249
6. Dialectic as Method	251
7. The Dialectic of Methods: Part One	253
8. The Dialectic of Methods: Part Two	257
9. The Dialectic of Methods: Part Three	262
10. A Supplementary Note	265
11. FOUNDATIONS	267
1. Foundational Reality	267
2. The Sufficiency of the Foundational Reality	269
3. Pluralism in Expression	271
4. Pluralism in Religious Language	276

CONTENTS

5. Categories	281
6. General Theological Categories	285
7. Special Theological Categories	288
8. Use of the Categories	292
12. DOCTRINES	295
1. Varieties	295
2. Functions	298
3. Variations	300
4. Differentiations of Consciousness	302
5. The Ongoing Discovery of Mind: Part One	305
6. Ongoing Contexts	312
7. The Ongoing Discovery of Mind: Part Two	314
8. The Development of Doctrines	319
9. The Permanence of Dogmas	320
10. The Historicity of Dogmas	324
11. Pluralism and the Unity of Faith	326
12. The Autonomy of Theology	330
13. SYSTEMATICS	335
1. The Function of Systematics	335
2. Closed Options	340
3. Mystery and Problem	344
4. Understanding and Truth	347
5. Continuity, Development, Revision	351
14. COMMUNICATIONS	355
1. Meaning and Ontology	356
2. Common Meaning and Ontology	356
3. Society, State, Church	358
4. The Christian Church and Its Contemporary Situation	361
5. The Church and the Churches	367
INDEX	369