

Contents

Preface	x
Acknowledgments	xvi
1. Introduction to Church History and Related Disciplines	1
Preliminary Definition of Terms	4
The Emergence of Critical Church Historiography	11
Methods and Models in the History of Doctrine	26
The General/Special Pattern	27
The Special or Diachronic Model	29
The Great Thinker Model	30
The Integral, Synchronic, or Organic Model	31
2. Perspective and Meaning in History	33
The Problem of the Past	33
Historical Sources — Their Use and Assessment	39
The Problem of Objectivity in Historical Study	48
Meaning in History	53
Understanding the Past	55
History and Self-Understanding	58
The Importance of History	60

3. The Initial Stages of Research and the Use of Bibliographic and Reference Sources	63
Selecting and Narrowing a Topic	63
Current Research Techniques and New Bibliographic Databases in Church History and Theology	73
Church History and Theology: Research in Secondary Sources	76
Dissertations and Theses	76
Periodical Directories and Abstracts	81
Computerized Databases of Secondary Literature	84
Scholarly Journals	89
Handbooks, Bibliographical Guides, and General Surveys	91
Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	92
Linguistic Tools: Dictionaries and Paleographic Aids	92
Biographical Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	94
Theological and Church-Historical Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	95
Historical Atlases and Guides to Historical Geography	98
4. Research in Primary Sources and the Use of Text Databases and Materials in Microform	100
Church History: By Period	101
Early Church	101
The Medieval Church	103
Reformation and Post-Reformation	105
Sixteenth- through Eighteenth-Century British Sources	106
American Church History	108
Computerized Databases and Primary Research	109
The New Sources in Microform	114
Research in Archives	120

5. The Practice of Research and the Craft of Writing	126
Evaluating Resources and Materials	127
Taking Notes	129
Collating Notes: The Preliminary Outline	131
Survey of Secondary Literature and Paradigms: Writing the First Paragraph	133
Writing the First Chapter	136
Writing the Last Paragraph	137
Footnoting	139
Bibliographies	143
Research with Computers	144
Word Processing the Dissertation	148
6. Preparing Lectures and Writing Monographs and Articles	152
Course Outline and Lecture Preparation	152
Lecturing and Teaching	157
Preparing the Dissertation for Publication	160
Ongoing Research: Articles and Book-Length Projects	164
BIBLIOGRAPHY:
Selected Aids to the Study of Church History and Historical Theology	167
I. CHURCH HISTORY: REFERENCE AND RESEARCH TOOLS	167
A. Dissertations and Theses	167
B. Periodical Directories and Abstracts	169
C. Scholarly Journals	170
D. Handbooks, Bibliographical Guides, and General Surveys	171
E. Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	174

1. Linguistic Tools: Dictionaries and Paleographical Aids	174
2. Biographical Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	176
3. Dictionaries of Anonyms and Pseudonyms	176
4. Theological and Church-Historical Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	177
F. Historical Atlases and Guides to Historical Geography	180
G. Guides to Archives	182
II. CHURCH HISTORY: BY PERIOD	183
A. Early Church	183
1. Guides, Manuals, and Encyclopedias	183
2. Bibliographies	184
3. Editions of Texts and Concordances	185
B. Medieval and Renaissance	186
1. Surveys	186
2. Guides, Indices, and Concordances	186
3. Periodical Guides	188
4. Bibliographies	189
5. Editions and Series of Texts and Translations	190
6. Studies in Series	191
C. Reformation and Post-Reformation Europe	191
1. Bibliographies and General Surveys	191
2. Collections of Sources	195
III. MODERN BRITISH SOURCES	196
A. Bibliographical Guides and Handbooks	196
B. Periodicals and Newspapers: Guides and Indexes	198
C. National Bibliography and Guides to Sources	198
D. Biographical Dictionaries	200
E. Atlases and Dictionaries	200
F. Guides to Archives and Manuscripts	201
G. Recent Historiography	201

IV. AMERICAN CHURCH HISTORY	202
A. Bibliographical Guides and Handbooks	202
B. Periodical Guides and Indexes	203
C. Newspaper Guides	204
D. General Reference and Research Tools	205
1. National Bibliography and Sources	205
2. Denominations	206
3. Specialized	207
4. Bibliographies of Bibliographies	208
E. Biographical Dictionaries and Directories	208
F. Encyclopedias and Atlases	209
G. Archives and Manuscripts	209
H. Recent Historiography	210
V. HISTORIOGRAPHY AND HISTORICAL METHOD	211
VI. GENERAL REFERENCE WORKS FOR THE PROFESSION	213
APPENDIX:
Computer Applications in Research and Writing and New Sources in Microform	215
I. ONLINE NETWORK DATABASES	216
II. ONLINE PUBLIC ACCESS CATALOGS	216
III. SCHOLARLY PROJECTS, SERVICES, AND DATABASES ON CD-ROM	218
IV. MATERIALS IN MICROFORM	220
A. Major Microfilm, Microfiche Collections	220
B. Microform Guides and Sources	228
V. SPECIALIZED RESEARCH TECHNIQUES	229
VI. SOFTWARE PRODUCTS AND COMPANIES	230
VII. GUIDES TO WORD PROCESSING	230
Index of Names	232