INTRODUCTION

There is in the world today a secretive group of powerful men who are in every respect conspirators. Ruthless and determined, these men are utterly consumed by their lust for power and control and obsessed with an intensely passionate greed for money. I call these men The Lords of Money, or simply, The Order.

In Millennium I unmask the men of The Order, shine heavenly light on their ungodly activities, and expose the monstrous and cruel conspiracy which these men have, up to now, so masterfully orchestrated.

We are told in I Timothy 6:10 that "the love of money is the root of all evil." The men of The Order seek money not for its own sake but because of the power and influence that the possession of money allows them to wield. To them, money is a tool and a weapon. It buys influence within elitist circles, insures cooperation of reluctant officials, and--when necessary--strangles opposition.

The super-rich of The Order operate unsuspected in America, Canada, Europe, South America, Japan, and in practically every other nation on earth. Their combined wealth is mind-boggling. The members of The Order hold vast stores of currency, gold, and real estate. They control the largest banks on earth and supervise gigantic corporate empires spread across America and the globe. Still, their greedy appetites continue to be insatiable.

It is said that absolute power corrupts absolutely, and these evil men are, without question, supremely and
