

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To Jerry Marrello, Sunday School Teacher, Church of the Open Door...who in teaching from the book of Revelation in the Bible, sparked a renewed interest in my life in writing a book on God's prophecy in a clear, easy-to-read style.

To Mrs. Eileen Kirban, who painstakingly typed the original manuscript from reels of dictated tape.

To Bill Goggins, artist, who was able to capture the central message of God's prophecy for these Last Days and graphically portray them in easy-to-read charts.

To Dr. Gary G. Cohen, Professor of New Testament at Faith Theological Seminary, Elkins Park, Pennsylvania, who carefully checked the final manuscript to assure its accuracy to the Scriptures.

To Dr. Paul R. Ehrlich, whose book THE POPULATION BOMB brought to sharp focus one of the critical problems the world now faces.

To Edward Edelson and Fred Warshofsky, whose book POISONS IN THE AIR, made me aware of the growing danger air pollution is bringing to our country.

As in a war, everyone remembers the General but few recall the privates...so it is often in Acknowledgments. I want to especially acknowledge those who indirectly had a major part in this book...those who served me coffee breaks while I scanned daily newspapers for news events vitally related to prophecy:

Eleanor Grove, Sophi Kasper, Lillian Lamon, and Doris Taylor of The Hot Shoppes...

Max and Bea Stroll and Ginny Burns of TALLY HO.

How IT ALL BEGAN

It was just a little missionary church in Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania. Services were held in a rented room on the second floor of a quaint building in the center of town. Rev. Pryce was the pastor. Here my brother Lafayette, my sister Elsie and I were brought to church each Sunday.

The photograph above was taken at the annual church picnic at Covey's Farm in Clarks Summit. I am indebted to Mrs. Lulu D. Thomas for sending me this picture. It was taken about 1938. I am that little boy in the circle on the front row. I can remember vividly at this picnic the various church members discussing the book of Revelation and prophecy.

And this discussion was the first spark that kindled a flaming desire for me to understand God's prophetic promises better. This was really how GUIDE TO SURVIVAL began.
