

CONTENTS

1.	The conception of evil and satan in Jewish traditions in the pre-Christian period P.J. Nel	1
2.	Demonology in New Testament times A.G. van Aarde	22
3.	The problem of evil in Africa. A survey of African views on witchcraft and of the response of the Christian church D.J. Bosch	38
4.	The interpretation of and reaction to demonic powers in indigenous churches G.C. Oosthuizen	63
5.	The development in Biblical times of belief in demons and devils and the theological issue raised by such a development B. Gaybba	90
6.	Better the devil you know? Seeking a Biblical basis for the societal demension of evil and/or the demonic in the Pauline concept of the "powers" H.I. Lederle	102
7.	Multiprofessional case representation: the case of David H. A.H. Potgieter M.G.S. Pierides A.E. de la Porte A.D. Geel	121
8.	Satanism, witchcraft and the occult: a psychiatrist's view W. Bodemer	132
9.	Pastoral counselling and demonology J.T. de Jongh van Arkel	141
10.	Some aspects of the ministry of deliverance from evil forces J.P.J. Theron	147

11.	Demonic powers from an evangelical perspective R.B. Codrington	162
12.	Pentecostal perspectives on the activity of demonic powers F.P Möller	173
13.	Demonic powers from a high church perspective G. Ashby	192
14.	Demonic bondage J.S. du Plessis	197
15.	Theological response to Ashby, Codrington, Gaybba and Möller A. König	200