

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-------|
| Dedication | vii |
| Introduction | ix |
| Cornelius Van Til | |
| PART ONE—MY CREDO | 1 ↗ |
| PART TWO—LETTERS FROM THREE CONTINENTS | 23 |
| Hendrik G. Stoker | |
| I. Reconnoitering the Theory of Knowledge of Prof. Dr. Cornelius Van Til | 25 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 71 |
| Herman Dooyeweerd | |
| II. Cornelius Van Til and the Transcendental Critique of Theoretical Thought | 74 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 89 |
| PART THREE—ESSAYS IN THEOLOGY AND THEOLOGICAL METHOD | 129 |
| Philip Edgcumbe Hughes | |
| III. Crucial Biblical Passages for Christian Apologetics | 131 ↗ |
| J. I. Packer | |
| IV. Biblical Authority, Hermeneutics, and Inerrancy | 141 ↗ |
| Jack B. Rogers | |
| V. Van Til and Warfield on Scripture in the Westminster Confession | 154 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 165 |
| Cornelius Trimp | |
| VI. The Witness of the Scriptures | 172 |
| John A. Witmer | |
| VII. What Think Ye of Christ? | 185 |
| G. C. Berkouwer | |
| VIII. The Authority of Scripture (A Responsible Confession) | 197 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 203 |
| S. U. Zuidema | |
| IX. Existence and the Content of Revelation in the Theological Hermeneutics of Rudolf Bultmann | 205 |

Paul K. Jewett

- | | |
|--|-----|
| X. Concerning Christ, Christians, and Jews | 221 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 226 |

Richard B. Gaffin, Jr.

- | | |
|---|-----|
| XI. Geerhardus Vos and the Interpretation of Paul | 228 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 237 |

Herman Ridderbos

- | | |
|---|-----|
| XII. Tradition and Editorship in the Synoptic Gospels | 244 |
|---|-----|

William L. Lane

- | | |
|--|-----|
| XIII. The Speeches of the Book of Acts | 260 |
|--|-----|

PART FOUR—ESSAYS IN PHILOSOPHY AND APOLOGETICSRobert D. Knudsen

- | | |
|--|-----|
| XIV. Progressive and Regressive Tendencies in Christian Apologetics | 275 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 298 |

J. P. A. Mekkes

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| XV. Knowing | 306 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 319 |

Gilbert B. Weaver

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| XVI. Man: Analogue of God | 321 |
|---------------------------------|-----|

C. Gregg Singer

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| XVII. A Philosophy of History | 328 |
|-------------------------------------|-----|

Rousas John Rushdoony

- | | |
|--|-----|
| XVIII. The One and Many Problem—The Contribution of Van Til | 339 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 348 |

Gordon R. Lewis

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| XIX. Van Til and Carnell—Part I | 349 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 361 |

Charles M. Horne

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| XX. Van Til and Carnell—Part II | 369 |
|---------------------------------------|-----|

John Warwick Montgomery

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| XXI. Once Upon an A Priori | 380 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 392 |

W. Stanford Reid

- | | |
|---|-----|
| XXII. Subjectivity or Objectivity in Historical Understanding | 404 |
|---|-----|

CONTENTS

Clark H. Pinnock

- | | |
|--|-----|
| XXIII. The Philosophy of Christian Evidences | 420 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 426 |

Arthur F. Holmes

- | | |
|--|-----|
| XXIV. Language, Logic, and Faith | 428 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 438 |

Frederic R. Howe

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| XXV. Kerygma and Apologia | 445 |
| Response by C. Van Til | 452 |

- | | |
|----------------------------|-----|
| Notes and References | 453 |
|----------------------------|-----|

- | | |
|----------------------------|-----|
| List of Contributors | 489 |
|----------------------------|-----|

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| Writings of Cornelius Van Til | 492 |
|-------------------------------------|-----|