

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECTION I. INTRODUCTION .....	1
This section deals with anti-supernaturalism and archaeology. Both topics relate to the Documentary Hypothesis and Form Criticism. Therefore they are treated at the beginning instead of under each of the two following sections.
Chapter 1. THE PRESUPPOSITION OF ANTI-SUPERNATURALISM .....	3
An explanation of the basic presupposition of both the Documentarians and the Form Critics. Often the alleged objective historical conclusions are molded by a subjective world view.
Chapter 2. ARCHAEOLOGY AND CRITICISM .....	17
A discussion of the contributions and influence of archaeology to criticism.
Bibliography .....	22
SECTION II. DOCUMENTARY HYPOTHESIS .....	25
The discipline of literary criticism applied to the Pentateuch is examined along with evidence for Mosaic authorship.
Chapter 3. INTRODUCTION TO THE DOCUMENTARY HYPOTHESIS ....	29
What is the Documentary Hypothesis? What are the JEDP documents?
Chapter 4. INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL CRITICISM .....	35
Biblical criticism defined and the different critical schools explained.
Chapter 5. INTRODUCTION TO THE PENTATEUCH .....	39
The purpose and importance of the first five biblical books.
Chapter 6. DEVELOPMENT OF THE DOCUMENTARY HYPOTHESIS .....	43
A description of the various documentary theories and their modern revisions.
Chapter 7. GROUND RULES .....	47
The ancient oriental environment provides various principles to apply to the Old Testament.
Chapter 8. DOCUMENTARY PRESUPPOSITIONS .....	51
An investigation of the four basic documentary assumptions:
(1) Priority of source analysis over archaeology;
(2) Natural view of Israel's religion and history;
(3) No writing in Israel at Moses' time;
(4) Legendary view of patriarchal narratives.
Chapter 9. CONSEQUENCES OF RADICAL HIGHER CRITICISM .....	85
A discussion of the results of Israel's history being unhistorical, fraudulent and naturalistic.
Chapter 10. EVIDENCE FOR MOSAIC AUTHORSHIP .....	91
The internal and external testimony for Moses' authorship of the Pentateuch.

Chapter 11. THE PHENOMENON OF DIVINE NAMES .....	117
The various uses of the divine names (Elohim, Yahweh, etc.) are put in their right perspective.
Chapter 12. THE REPETITION OF ACCOUNTS AND ALLEGED CONTRADICTIONS .....	133
Certain stories in the Pentateuch are said to be repeated twice and others to have contradictory details.
Chapter 13. THE INCONGRUITIES .....	153
The writing in the third person and the record of Moses' death is said to be incongruous with Mosaic authorship.
Chapter 14. THE INTERNAL DIVERSITIES .....	155
A discussion of the assumed difference of subject matter, style, and diction.
Chapter 15. THE CONCLUSION TO THE DOCUMENTARY HYPOTHESIS . . .	163
Bibliography .....	169
SECTION III. FORM CRITICISM .....	179
The basic tenets of Form Criticism are examined. Practical answers are given to the basic assumptions and conclusion.
Chapter 16. INTRODUCTION TO FORM CRITICISM .....	183
Form Criticism is defined and its purpose and proponents discussed.
Chapter 17. DEFINITION OF TERMS .....	195
A glossary as an aid to the study of Form Criticism.
Chapter 18. ORAL TRADITION .....	199
The assumption that before the Gospels were written there was a period of oral transmission.
Chapter 19. PERICOPES .....	209
Basic to the form critical method is the concept that the gospel material first circulated in small, independent units.
Chapter 20. CLASSIFICATION ACCORDING TO THE FORM .....	217
The listing, defining and explanation of various forms.
Chapter 21. THE CREATIVE COMMUNITY .....	239
The assumption that vital factors which gave rise to and preserved the various forms are to be found in the practical interests of the Christian community.
Chapter 22. NO BIOGRAPHICAL INTEREST .....	253
The assumption that the gospels have no biographical, chronological or geographical value.
Chapter 23. LAWS OF TRADITION .....	259
Through discovering various laws of tradition it is assumed the original form of a tradition can be discovered.
Chapter 24. HISTORICAL SKEPTICISM .....	269
The cause and extent of the reliability of the record of the historical Jesus is examined.

Chapter 25. THE MESSIANIC SECRET THEORY .....	277
The conclusion that the messianic claims of the historical Jesus are to be rejected as a post-Easter creation.
Chapter 26. GNOSTICISM .....	281
The heavenly redeemer concept applied to Christ is attributed to a Gnostic myth which developed in oriental dualism before Jesus ever lived.
Chapter 27. CONCLUSION TO FORM CRITICISM .....	289
A look at the contribution and limitations of the Form Critical approach.
Bibliography .....	292
APPENDICES

THE STONES CRY OUT—Archaeological Examples .....	301
1) The Stories of Isaac, Jacob and Joseph
2) The Conquest of Canaan
3) The Hittites
4) The Lachish Letters
5) The Exile
Bibliography .....	322
"Recent Illumination of the Old Testament" .....	325
by Siegfried H. Horn
"Higher Criticism and Forbidden Fruit" .....	331
by Cyrus H. Gordon
"A Comparison of Form Criticism and Classical Criticism of the Gospels" .....	335
by Gordon R. Lewis
"Modern Theology and Biblical Criticism" .....	341
by C. S. Lewis
"The Influence of Form Criticism on Christology" .....	345
by Bob Patterson	