

Preface 9

Introduction: Is There Reason Enough? 11

The Five Circles 13
What Is Truth? 16
Christian Persuasion 17

1 Circle One: The Pragmatic Basis for Faith 21

The Humanist Faith 21
Our Quest for Meaning 23
From Darkness to Light 25
The Reasonableness of Belief 28
The Ethical Problem 30
The Problem of Sin 32
Can Life without God Make Sense? 34
The End of the Matter 36

2 Circle Two: The Experiential Basis for Faith 39

A Remarkable Fact 39
Unsecular Man 41
The Lack of Universality 43
The Other Religions 45
Religious Experience and the Christian Message 46
In Contrast to World-weariness 49
What Does It Prove? 50
Christian Hedonism? 54

3 Circle Three: The Cosmic Basis for Faith 55

- Natural Theology: The Proclamation of the Skies 56
The Marvels of Design 59
The Creation of the World 61
A Dozen Other Clues 64
The Moral Dimension 66
The Quest for Intelligibility 68
A Steppingstone 70

4 Circle Four: The Historical Basis for Faith 73

- Religion for the Tough-minded 73
The Fact of Christ 75
Who Then Was Jesus? 79
The New Beginning 84
The Principle of Analogy 88
What Does It Mean? 89

5 Circle Five: The Community Basis for Faith 93

- The Original Revolution 95
The Social Impact of the Gospel 99
BPGINFWMY 103

6 In Case of Doubt 107

- Pseudoproblems 109
Blessings in Disguise: Marx, Freud and Feminism 111
Real Difficulties 114
Dealing with Doubt 117

Conclusion 119

Notes 123