

Contents

Editor's Note	ix
Chapter 1	Beginnings
	The Place and the Time	1
	Roman Peace and Roman Communications	3
	Greek Language and Greek Thought	7
	Hebrew Religion	13
Chapter 2	The House-Church
	Whose house, and where?	19
	What happened in the House-Church	21
	The Christian Festivals	30
Chapter 3	The Church and its mission
	The Apostles' Commission: "To the end of the earth"	35
	Full-time missionaries	40
	Lay evangelists	45
	Christian lives	48
	Confessors and Martyrs	49
Chapter 4	Which Scriptures? Which Creed? Which Ministry?
	Which Scriptures: Marcion and the New Testament	53
	Which Creed: the Gnostics	57
	Which Ministry: Montanism	61
Chapter 5	The Roman Empire: through persecution to pro-Christian Emperor
	Roman State and Christian Church	66
	The beginning of persecution	68
	Emperor-worship and the consequences of refusal	71
	Persecution intensified	74
	The first pro-Christian Emperor	79
Chapter 6	First Christian Kingdom and first Christian nation
	The Kingdom: Edessa	84
	Tatian and Bardaisan	85
	The nation: Armenia	89

CONTENTS

Chapter 7 Parthia/Persia: through persecution to toleration
The early Church in Parthia	92
Christians under the Sassanid Persians	95
The great persecution	98
A working agreement	99
Christians farther east	100
Chapter 8 Both shores of the Red Sea
Ethiopia	105
Arabia	107
Onwards to India	112
Chapter 9 Wild men of the north
The Huns of central Asia	117
The Goths: German tribes of northern Europe	119
The Church and the Goths	121
The Church and the Huns	124
The Church and the end of an age	126
Chapter 10 Doctrines that matter most
St Paul and the shaping of Christian doctrine	131
“God the Father, and Jesus Christ His Son”	132
“The Word”: the beginning for St John	134
From Origen to Arius	137
Nicaea: the first Ecumenical Council	139
Three viewpoints: Antioch, Alexandria, Rome	140
The Chalcedonian Definition	143
Chapter 11 The coming of the monks
The call to live apart	146
Egypt 1: Antony and the Desert Fathers	147
Egypt 2: Pachomius and Community	148
The Greeks: Basil and service of the needy	151
The Syriac-speaking East: Ephrem	152
The Latin West: Jerome	154
Chapter 12 What Christians today owe to the Early Church
The Bible	160
The Church	162
The World Mission	164
References for quotations from source materials not included in Young’s Handbook	168
Bibliography	171
Key to Study Suggestions	172
Index	177

Illustrations, maps, and charts

ILLUSTRATIONS

1.1 Nile travel in the 2nd century AD	4
1.2 Two philosophers and a pupil	14
1.3 The Law in the Synagogue	14
2.1 Sight to the blind as symbol of baptism	22
2.2 Living water as symbol of baptism	22
2.3 The “best position” for prayer	22
2.4 Eucharistic meal	26
2.5 Last Supper, showing Eucharistic custom	26
2.6–8 Christian symbols on everyday objects: ring, seal, and ceremonial bowl	29
3.1 Paul in Malta	37
3.2 Martyrdom of Laurence	47
3.3 Peter and Paul	47
4.1 Christian Scriptures: “the true Gospels”	55
4.2 Earliest fragments of New Testament MS	55
5.1–4 Roman emperors who persecuted Christians	70
5.5 Death in the amphitheatre	70
5.6 Christians in high places: a silver casket	77
5.7 The Chi-Rho, sign of victory	80
5.8 Constantine	80
6.1 Abgar VIII of Edessa	88
6.2 Ardashir, 1st Sassanid Persian emperor	88
7.1 Valerian kneels before Shapur I	96