

CONTENTS

Foreword 7

1. Theory, Ecumenism, and Culture: The Proposal in Context 15
 - I. The Ecumenical Matrix 15*
 - II. The Psychosocial Context 19*

2. Religion and Experience: A Pretheological Inquiry 30
 - I. An Experiential-Expressive Model 31*
 - II. A Cultural-Linguistic Alternative 32*
 - III. The Inconclusiveness of the Comparison 41*

3. Many Religions and the One True Faith 46
 - I. Unsurpassability 47*
 - II. The Interrelationships of Religions 52*
 - III. Salvation and Other Faiths 55*
 - IV. Excursus on Religion and Truth 63*

4. Theories of Doctrine 73
 - I. Doctrines and Their Problems 74*
 - II. Grammar and Doctrine, Continuity and Change 79*
 - III. A Taxonomy of Doctrines 84*

5. Testing the Theory: Christology, Mariology, and Infallibility 91
 - I. Nicaea and Chalcedon 92*
 - II. Marian Dogmas 96*

III. Infallibility 98

IV. The Superiority of a Regulative View 104

6. Toward a Postliberal Theology

112

I. The Problem of Assessment 112

II. Faithfulness as Intratextuality 113

III. Applicability as Futurology 124

IV. Intelligibility as Skill 128

Conclusion 134

Index 139