

Contents

1. The Making of the Missionary	15
Myths Regarding Missions	16
What Is a Missionary?	27
How Important Is a Call?	38
2. Matters Relating to Recruitment	51
Hang-ups Regarding Missionary Life	52
Obstacles to a Missionary Career	63
Qualifications for Missionary Service	73
3. Theological Issues	85
Missions and the Sovereignty of God	86
Missions and the Responsibility of Man	96
The Uniqueness of the Christian Faith	105
The Missionary Mandate	116
The Fate of the Heathen	127
4 Historical Development	139
Origin of Protestant Missions	139
Expansion of Protestant Missions	150
Development of Protestant Missions	160
Missions and the Ecumenical Movement	172
5. Cultural Penetration	185
The Muslim World	185
Asia	196
Africa	211
Latin America	224
Europe	237

6. Political Involvement	245
Missions and Colonialism	246
Missions and Nationalism	256
Missions and Communism	265
The Missionary Movement: An Evaluation	277
7. Methodological Imperatives	297
Evangelistic Missions	298
Medical Missions	308
Educational Missions	318
Humanitarian Service	328
8. Christianity in the Third World	339
Identification: Problem of Western Missionaries	340
Indigenization: Problem of National Churches	351
Evangelization: Problem of National Missions	359
9. Recent Developments	371
The Short-Term Missionary	371
The Nonprofessional Missionary	384
10. Future Prospects	401
Developing Trends	401
Opposing Forces	412
Unlimited Opportunities	420
The Unfinished Task	433