

Contents

Foreword 1: Henry Blackaby	xi
Foreword 2: Stephen Olford	xiii
Preface.	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Part 1: Letters to the Church	1
Letter 1. Defining Worship Biblically.	3
Letter 2. Our View of God	7
Letter 3. God's Plumb Line for Worship	11
Letter 4. Worshiping Other Gods	16
Letter 5. The Imaging of God	22
Letter 6. The Use and Misuse of God's Name.	28
Letter 7. The Significance of the Sabbath.	33
Letter 8. Worship as a Lifestyle	38
Letter 9. Born to Worship.	43
Letter 10. Worship and the Glory of God	50
Letter 11. Worship and the Authority of God	56
Letter 12. The Eternity and Activity of God.	60
Letter 13. The Role of Submission in Worship.	66
Letter 14. Service: The Culmination of Worship	71
Letter 15. To Get or to Give?	74
Part 2: Letters to the Worship Leaders	81
Letter 16. "The Gathering"	83
Letter 17. The Pastor's Role as Worship Leader	90
Letter 18. The Primacy of Prayer in Worship.	92
Letter 19. The Importance of Scripture Reading in Worship.	99
Letter 20. The Priority of Preaching in Worship.	102

Letter 21. The Place of Music in Worship	105
Letter 22. Restoring Selah to Worship	112
Letter 23. Making the Offering Meaningful	115
Letter 24. The Lord's Supper: A Feast of Remembrance	118
Letter 25. Baptism: A Picture of Death and Resurrection	126
Letter 26. The Call of the Director of Music	133
Letter 27. The Language and Power of Music	138
Letter 28. Adrenaline Highs or the Holy Spirit?	145
Letter 29. Discerning between the Holy and the Common	148
Letter 30. To Applaud or Not to Applaud? The Response Factor in Worship	153
Letter 31. Preparing to Worship	160
Letter 32. Building Continuity into a Service: Cutting the Trough So the Water Can Flow	164
Letter 33. To the Choir	168
Letter 34. To the Soloist	172
Letter 35. To the Accompanists	178
Letter 36. To Audiovisual Ministers	182
Letter 37. Returning to Worship	184
Appendix 1: Choir Covenant	189
Appendix 2: Checklist for Worship Leaders	191
Appendix 3: On Preparation for the Lord's Supper: Twenty-Four Questions to Ask Yourself	193
Appendix 4: When Church Was Just Church: Worship Center or Theater?	196
Endnotes	208