

CONTENTS

- 1. THE "WHY" OF NEW WINESKINS 5
One of the constants of Church history is that as each change appears on the horizon, a new wineskin is required to contain the new wine of the Holy Spirit.
- 2. PROTESTANTISM'S NEW LOOK 33
An emerging consensus of some well-known researchers of what we are calling the "New Apostolic Reformation" is reassuring.
- 3. CHURCHES DRIVEN BY VISION AND VALUES 55
New apostolic pastors lead on the premise that trust and empowerment shape the future!
- 4. THE PASTOR LEADS THE CHURCH 81
The key factor, the root of the role of pastors in new apostolic churches, is trust, and authority is the fruit.
- 5. FIVE CRUCIAL QUESTIONS ABOUT APOSTOLIC MINISTRY 103
The five most crucial questions about apostolic ministry are: (1) What is an apostle? (2) Are there apostles today? (3) How important are apostles? (4) How does an apostle gain authority? (5) What are the qualities of a genuine apostle?
- 6. THE NUTS AND BOLTS OF APOSTOLIC NETWORKS 125
Some common characteristics of apostolic networks are discussed, and three mandates for preservation of apostolic networks are prescribed: (1) Keep a ceiling on the number of churches in each network. (2) Constantly cultivate new charisma. (3) Multiply apostolic networks.

7. PLUGGED-IN WORSHIP 155

New apostolic worship is plugged into the sound system, into the Holy Spirit and into contemporary culture.

8. OUTREACH IN OVERDRIVE 183

New apostolic churches focus on outreach. Their four central tasks include (1) church expansion, (2) planting new churches, (3) mercy ministries and (4) cross-cultural missions.

9. MULTIPLYING MINISTERS 209

Ministers of the New Apostolic Reformation are generally homegrown. As a result, seminaries may need to restructure to survive. Seven characteristics of seminaries are explored that can make or break their future.

10. MONEY? NO PROBLEM! 241

The four axioms of new apostolic financing are: (1) giving is expected; (2) giving is profitable; (3) giving responds to a vision; (4) giving is cheerful.

INDEX 269