Introduction	11

PART ONE

This section presents a biblical analysis of the Church, taking into account the reality of the spiritual world and the need for Christ-centered leaders and ministries.

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| 1. Protected from the Evil One | 21 |
| The Lord Himself is praying for our protection from the evil one. | |
| 2. Prayer for Unity | 45 |
| In His high priestly prayer, recorded in John 17, Jesus prays for unity in His Body. | |
| 3. Balance of Power | 67 |
| If the process is done right, the congregation will be united around a common purpose. | |

4. Situational Leadership	87
Choosing the right style of leadership is determined by who the followers are.
5. Servant Leadership	105
A leader's greatest desire should be to see every member reach his or her highest potential.
6. The Pastor as Saint	125
By filling the role of saint, our Lord expects all biblical pastors and elders to model life in Christ.
7. The Church in Communion	145
The communion of the Church is its living union and communication with Christ.

PART TWO

This section will walk you through each of the seven steps involved in bringing freedom to your church.

8. Looking at Your Church's Strengths and Weaknesses	171
Most church leaders will not feel right about facing their weaknesses and corporate sins until they have talked about their strengths.
9. Dealing with the Power of Memories	193
Every church has memories that hold hidden power to affect the present and the future of the church.

10. Dealing with Corporate Sins	211
Patterns of sinfulness within the group life of a church call for corporate action on the part of its leaders.
11. Defeating Satan's Attacks	231
We overcome the enemy by following Jesus' instructions to the churches in Revelation 2 and 3: repent, remember, hold fast and obey.
12. The Prayer Action Plan	259
All the authority of heaven stands behind church leaders who fully agree and unite in prayer about a matter they discern in the presence of Christ.
13. A Leadership Strategy	281
Just as people who find freedom in Christ still must deal with deeply ingrained behavioral patterns of the flesh, so churches must have a plan for forming and establishing new habits.
