
CONTENTS

FOREWORD

An unforgettable visit to a remarkable church	x
---	---

PREFACE

Why I had to write this book	xiii
------------------------------------	------

PART ONE

The pastor's dilemma in a growing church	1
The stranger in our house	3
Controlling everything from the pulpit	4
A family versus a crowd	4
The shepherd and his associates	4
The eschatological problem	6
The ambidextrous superperformer	7
Then there is the first family	8

PART TWO

Applying God's Word to church government	11
I. One-man rule	14
II. Congregational form	16
III. Board or Council control	18
IV. Central or External control	18
V. Eldership management	19

PART THREE

Examining Old Testament patterns of team ministry	21
Three examples from Moses	23
Consider the parable of the trees	25
Discovering team ministry in Old Testament	27
Look at the rebuilding of Jerusalem	27
The value of counsellors	28
The threefold cord	28

CONTENTS

PART FOUR

Consider the New Testament definition of ministry	31
Three groups are clearly defined	32
The danger in exclusiveness	33
Several words describe ministers	34
The fivefold ministry	36
Consider how a home is managed	39
Notice the plurality of elders	40
The role of the senior elder	44
The synagogue and the Jewish church	47

PART FIVE

The awesome benefits of developing team ministry	51
I. A total ministry	52
II. A variety of ministries	56
III. An accelerating productivity	59
IV. It establishes truth	61
V. It encourages new ideas	62
VI. Checks and balances	63
VII. Smooth transition	67
VIII. Satisfying fulfillment	69
IX. It facilitates growth	73
X. And, it preserves ministers	73

PART SIX

Guidelines for setting up a team ministry in your church	77
I. Rethinking the pastor's duties	78
II. Persuading the power structure	82
III. Educating the people	84
IV. Choosing the elders	86
V. Ordaining the elders	91
VI. The priesthood of the believers	94
VII. Laying on of hands	98

CONTENTS

PART SEVEN

Maintaining the long-range benefits of team ministry	101
I. Cultivate communication lines	102
II. Keep biblical vision in perspective	104
III. Encourage unique diversity and variety	106
IV. Allow for margins	107
V. Set the pace in personal growth	107
VI. Be sensitive to others needs	109
VII. Learn how to listen	111
VIII. Esteem one another as equals	112
IX. Give room to creativity	115
X. Practice loyalty to one another	116
XI. Work for a spirit of unity	118
XII. Hold forth loving discipline	120

PART EIGHT

Training new elders to form the leadership team	123
I. Explore God's method	125
II. Expand our horizons	127
III. Exhort potential elders	130
IV. Examine the ministry	132
V. Explain the dealings of God	135
VI. Expend energy	139
VII. Expect flaws and failures	145
VIII. Expose men to service	149
IX. Exude confidence	151