

Contents

Foreword by Walter Wright	xi
Introduction	1
Part I: Spirituality for the future
1 Jesus and Pilate: Matthew 27:11–31	9
2 The ‘inscape’ of a leader: John 13:1–17	14
3 The seeing of a leader: Nehemiah 2	21
4 The friends of a leader: 1 Chronicles 11 & 12	31
5 The flair of a leader: Luke 10:1–23	43
6 The task of a leader: Daniel 1	51
Part II: The way we will work the future
7 Heading for change	65
8 The new knowledge worker	69
9 Emergence of the ‘new’ team	73
10 Contradiction i: Creativity amid chaos	76
11 Contradiction ii: Specialization amid generalization	80
12 Contradiction iii: Tribal amid global	83
13 Contradiction iv: Alienation amid communication	86
14 Technology and the way we work	89

Part III: Mentors for the future

Introduction	95
15 An Observation of Spiritual Direction: Dr. James Houston	97
16 Reflection on a Friend and Brother: George Verwer	104
17 Global Leader: George Whitefield	111
18 Leadership in Constant Transition: Kathi Tarantal	117

Part IV: Leaders for the future

Introduction	125
19 Submit to the God-given context	127
20 Understand contradiction and model clear vision	132
21 Maintain momentum in times of change	136
22 Rooted in a community of friends	139
23 Empower and destabilize	146
24 Integrate technology into your experience	150
25 Embracing the life of prayer	152
26 Understand self and political realities	156
27 Create a culture and remain a learner	159
28 Be continually going	163

Part V: The process of restoration

29 The relocation of Zechariah	171
Endnotes	177
References	187