

Table of Contents

Introduction	9
1. Why a Growing Church?	13
Is It OK Not to Grow?
Church Growth and the Will of God
What About the Numbers Game?
Church Members Are Not Enough
The Cultural Mandate Is Important
Halting Twenty Years of Church Decline
The Vital Signs of a Healthy Church
Notes
2. Church Growth Is Not Cheap	41
The Pastor's Price for Growth
Assuming the responsibility for growth
Working hard
Sharing the ministry
Having members you can't pastor
Revising non-growth theology
The People's Price for Growth
Agreeing to follow growth leadership
Paying the money
Readjusting their fellowship groups
Opening their leadership circles
Notes
3. Church Growth Pastor = Leader + Equipper	73
The Decline of the "Enabler" Ideal
Where Did the "Enabler" Come From?
The Pastor as Equipper
Two Pastoral Dilemmas
Being both humble and powerful
Being both a servant and a leader
Servanthood and Leadership Today
Is a Manager a Leader?
Limitations to Leadership
Cultural limitations
Socioeconomic limitations
Denominational limitations
Local congregational limitations
Personality limitations
Theories of Leadership
Leadership and Growth Potential
Where Does This Leadership Come From?
Notes

4. The Fine Art of Lay Followership	107
Leadership and Followership in Scripture
Leadership, Not Lordship
Defending Against Lordship
Taking it out on the next pastor
Shifting the power to the elders
Shifting the power to the congregation
Getting Rid of a Pastor
Is Strong Leadership the American Way?
Getting the Congregation Ready for Growth
Lay Ministry and Growth Potential
The Pastor and the People in Balance
Notes
5. Why Bill Bright Is Not Your Pastor	141
Modalities and Sodalities
Congregations and Missions
The Modality-Sodality Debate
How the Two Relate
An Historical Clarification
Church Structures and Growth Potential
Sodality-type Leadership
Sodality-type Commitment
Notes
6. Getting the Right Start	167
Calling the Right Pastor
Write a Philosophy of Ministry
The classroom church
The life-situation church
The rock generation church
The spiritual high church
Diagnosing the Health of Your Church
The Awesome Power of Setting Goals
Notes
7. Keeping Growth on Course	193
The Pastor as Change Agent
Pray for More Faith
Be Prepared to Solve Problems
Plan Effective Outreach
Assimilate New Members
Nurture the Homesteaders
Add the Staff You Need
Preach for Growth
Notes	