Contents

Preface ix

1. Can Church Conflict Be Christian? 1

Christian Sources of Church Conflict 2
Making Church Conflicts Begin to Be Christian 3
A Fair Church Fight 6
Managing as Intervening to Cut the Costs or Reap the Benefits of Church Conflict 7
Distinguishing Concepts of This Book 10
How to Use This Book 13

Part One
Step One: Becoming a Conflict Manager

2. Step One, Task One: Rethinking Gut Theologies of Conflict 19

Registering Feelings to Detect Their Underlying Messages 19
Understanding Family Systems as Theological Teachers 22
Christian Perspectives for Rethinking Gut Theologies 24
Rethinking Our Gut Theologies of Conflict 29

3. Step One, Task Two: Practicing Christian Assertiveness 34

A Christian Ethic of Assertiveness 34
The Barrier of Shame to Practicing Responsible Assertiveness 38
Practicing Christian Assertiveness 40
An Illustration of Step One Work for Assertiveness 41

In Conclusion 43

4. Step One, Task Three: Determining Roles 44
Defining Roles in Conflictive Situations 45
Managing Conflicts in Role 51
Naming the Parties to Conflictive Situations 53
Contracting with Oneself as Conflict Manager 56

Part Two
Step Two: Appraising a Conflictive Situation

5. Step Two, Task One: Identifying Contextual Factors 59
Adopting a Systemic Perspective 60
Identifying Communal "Rules" 62
Identifying Communal Structure and Procedures 65
Identifying Changes in Communal Environment 67
Assessing the Contextual Factors Influencing Parties 69
An Illustration of Completing the First Column of the Work Sheet 69

6. Step Two, Task Two: Assessing the Principals 73
Naming the Primary Principals 74
Understanding Power 75
Understanding and Assessing Power Balances Between Principals 77
Formulating a Christian Ethic of Fair and Dirty Fighting 79
Assessing Principals' Ethical Proclivities 82
Common Difficulties When Using This Model of Appraising Conflicts 84

Part Three
Step Three: Managing Conflicts

7. Step Three: Managing Conflicts 89
Using Communal Power to Manage Conflicts 91
Recognizing Limitations on Managing Conflicts Constructively 93
Using the Model 95
Choosing Among the Five Strategies 97
Dealing with the Emotional Dimension of Intervening 98
Managing in Role 99
Using a Reframing Process in Conflictive Situations 100
Flowing with the Model 101
Common Difficulties with Using This Model 103

8. Step Three/Constraining Strategies: Preventing Exchanges 104
Blocking Destructive Exchanges 105
Remembering Faith Meanings for a Preventing Strategy 107
Interrupting a Malevolent Cycle 109
Implementing a Preventing Exchanges Strategy 110
An Illustration of a Preventing Exchanges Strategy 115
In Conclusion 117

9. Step Three/Constraining Strategies: Changing Contextual Factors 118
Changing Principals' Behaviors Indirectly 118
Remembering Faith Meanings for a Changing Communal Contexts Strategy 121
When Changing Contextual Factors Surfaces a New Conflict 122
Implementing the Tasks of a Changing Contexts Strategy 123
An Illustration of a Changing Contexts Strategy 130
In Conclusion 132

10. Step Three/Constraining Strategies: Coaching Principals 133
Coaching for Principals' Self-Change 133
Remembering Faith Meanings for a Coaching Strategy 136
Deputizing Bystanders as Coaches 137
Securing Coaching for Oneself as Manager 139
Implementing a Coaching Principals Strategy 140
An Illustration of a Coaching Principals Strategy 144
Using a Coaching Strategy as the Constructive Option of Last Resort 146
In Conclusion 148

11. Step Three/Resolving Strategies: Negotiating Issues 149
Choosing Between Negotiating and Mediating Strategies 150
Understanding the Negotiating Process 152
Remembering Faith Meanings for a Negotiating Issues Strategy 155
Implementing a Negotiating Issues Strategy 156
Two Illustrations of Using a Negotiating Issues Strategy 163
In Conclusion 167

12. Step Three/Resolving Strategies: Mediating Relationships 169
Defining Primary Relationships 169
Understanding a Mediating Process 172
Faith Meanings for a Mediating Relationships Strategy 175
Implementing a Mediating Relationships Strategy 176

Three Illustrations of Using a Mediating Relationships Strategy 184
In Conclusion 188

13. Fighting for God's Shalom as Mainline Christians 189
The Pain of Conflict in Mainline American Churches 190
Fighting for God's Shalom Within, as Maturing Christians 191
Fighting for God's Shalom in Faith Communities of Diversity 193
Fighting for God's Shalom in an Endangered Public Sector 195
Experiencing the Gift of God's Shalom 198

Appendices 201

A Glossary of Working Terms 209

Notes 211

Bibliography 219