

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xvii
The Author	xix

PART ONE Reflecting and Taking Action

1. Brian and Martha: Creating a Successful Mixed-Gender Team	3
2. Nine Criteria for Mixed-Gender Teams	9
3. Reflecting	23

PART TWO Learning

4. Ben, Fredrica, and Karen: Building a Shared Leadership Model	41
5. Leadership in the Mixed-Gender Team	48
6. Creating Effective Teams	60

PART THREE Believing

7. Erin and Wayne: Advocating for Women in Church Leadership	77
8. Believing Women Should Be Leaders	84
9. The Lutheran Relief Team: Building a Model for Gender Equity	105
10. Acting on Our Belief	110

PART FOUR Naming and Including

11. The Spiritual Formation Team: Demonstrating the Commitment to Know Each Other	127
--	-----

12. Naming Each Other	139
13. Including Each Other	156

PART FIVE
Communicating and Working Together

14. Eleanor and Peter: Communicating with Each Other	173
15. Communicating in Mixed-Gender Teams	179
16. The Theological Institute Team: Keeping the Daily Commitment to Working Together	199
17. Working Together	209
18. Traps for Women and Men	222

PART SIX
Influencing

19. Neely and Barbara, Barbara and Bill: Two Power Structures in Two Teams	243
20. Power and Influence	252
21. Power and Influence in Mixed-Gender Teams	266

PART SEVEN
Modeling

22. Blair and Mary: Keeping the Team Together	283
23. Modeling Partnership	290
Discussion Questions for Teams	315
References	321
Index	327