

contents

introduction	7
--------------	---

Part I: theological considerations

A. understandings of the church
1. life: what the church is	11
2. life's goal: what the church does	20
3. life's communication: how the church edifies	30
4. life's dynamic: the church's "family" relationship	40
5. life's transmission: the church evangelizing	51
B. implications for Christian education
6. a whole-person focus	60
7. a discipling purpose	70
8. a modeling method	80
9. an interpersonal dimension	106
10. an overflowing outcome	117

Part II: implementing Christian education in the local church

A. building the body
11. the servant leader	129
12. the pastor, in pulpit and in person	138
13. the lay leadership team	149
14. implications for seminary training	158
B. childhood education
15. present approaches	165
16. guidelines and limitations	177
17. home as a nurture center	190
18. an alternative system	206
C. adult education
19. the nature of ministry	228
20. conditions facilitating ministry	240
21. educational strategies: one to one	250
22. educational strategies: the small group	262
23. educational strategies: body life	276
24. educational strategies: worship	284
25. educational strategies: the preached Word	293

Part III: restatement: a summary

26. critical issues in Christian education	309
27. design elements in Christian education	316
28. the supernatural in Christian education	323